Rumored Portland Man May Oppose Ben Olcott

It is rumored on the streets today by men who claim to be near the political throne at Portland, that by Sunday there will be a candidate in the field for the office of secretary of state against Ben W. Olcott.

Just who this man may be is a mystery, but it is said that he is a very strong candidate and if he decides to enter the race the campaign which will last for just seven weeks from today, will be one of the liveliest the state has seen for years.

Moore, Harbour, Adams and Caffee all of Portland, having stepped aside for this mysterious candidate to enter the race on the eleventh hour, is evidence that they have confidence in his ability to make a strenuous campaign in which it is rumored he will cover the entire state.

Get auto electric globes at Lockwood's, 216 N. Commercial street.

T. G. Albert will round out his twentieth year with the Barnes store tomorrow, as he first became identified with the firm April 1, 1896. At that time the Barnes store was a small one on North Commercial street in the building now occupied by the Foster Baker grocery. The following year it was removed to its present location.

Furniture repaired at E. L. Stiff & Son.

The Tuskegee singers, from the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, founded by Booker T. Washington, will appear at the First Congregational church, Friday evening, one week from tonight. No admission will be charged, but all will be given an opportunity to aid this institute through a silver offering.

E. L. Stiff & Son will save you money on shades.

Mrs. J. O. Lents, who lives a few miles from the city, will leave tomorrow for Redfield, S. D., where she will make her permanent home. She will be accompanied by her children, Marie, Irene, Albert and Daniel. They will leave Portland tomorrow morning, take a boat for San Francisco, and after a stop over at Fresno, go direct to their South Dakota home.

Valuable premiums with every cash purchase of $1.00 or over Saturday at E. L. Stiff & Sons.

The Rev. James Elvin will address a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association to be held this evening at the Mountain View school house in Polk county. Tomorrow he will speak at a meeting of the Christian Endeavor Union to be held at the First Congregational church in Beaverton, Wash., and will deliver an address on "Efficiency." In the evening he will preside as toastmaster for the convention.

"EXTREME CRUELTY" Redwood City, Cal., Mar. 31. -- "I feet stuck out for a chicken roost." So runs the old ballad. Hans Taft, contractor, is enjoying single blessedness today as the result of a somewhat similar state of affairs. He told the judge his wife let her roosters and hens perch on the family bedstead, so he was granted a divorce on the grounds of extreme cruelty.
