At the Chicago Store's 20,000 Sale

Would You, Could You, Dare You Pass Up This Sale?

NO! OF COURSE NOT

You can't afford to pass up The Chicago Store's $20,000 Sale, it is the greatest buying sensation that the public of Salem has ever had, greater bargains than ever before; thousands of dollars worth of New Spring Goods, at radically cut prices. The only reason for this slaughter is to get the cash. The proprietors are pounding me on the back every day, urging me to hurry up and get the money, and take any steps I think necessary to sell the goods, so down, down go the prices: I must get the money, at any cost. Sell it, sell it, is the cry, and sell it I will. Don't hesitate, come here tomorrow and supply your wants.

EASTER SUIT AT BRICK BROS.

THE HOUSE THAT GUARANTEES EVERY PURCHASE—THE CORNER STORE

TWO STORY BRICK FOR SOUTH HIGH
Will Cost $15,000, Lower Floor for Garage, Upper for Apartments

Arrangements were today completed for the erection of a two story brick building to cost approximately $15,000 and plans are under way for the building of several other business blocks, all of which seem to indicate that while Salem is experiencing no sudden boom in building, yet there is a gradual improvement in the building situation.

Fred A. Legg is the builder of the new $15,000 structure and it will be located at 263 South High street. It will be a two story brick with a frontage on High street of 75 feet and extending back 100 feet. The lower floor of the building will be built for a garage and the upper floors arranged into two, three and four room apartments.

Mr. Legg has just purchased the property on the north east corner of the block bounded by High and Trade streets with a frontage of 75 feet on High and 110 on Trade street. The two story residence on the corner will be removed to the east end of the lot, and will face on Ferry street. Mr. Legg's present residence, just across the street at 263 High, will be moved to the corner lot just purchased by Mr. Legg and placed facing High street, where Mr. Legg will make his home.

The corner property on High and Trade streets is valuable from a business standpoint as it is at the intersection of the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific, and in the business district. It was owned at times by Owen Hutton, Mel Hamilton, John W. Roland and was purchased by Mr. Legg from John H. Scott.

As soon as the two resident houses are moved on the corner property and the lot on High street cleared, the erection of the two story brick will begin.

Macleay Items

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Macleay, Or., April 10.—One of the most successful social events of the season passed into history with the breaking up of the Young People's Bible class party Saturday morning, April 8.

The young folks met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Russell and after a short business meeting, at which the Misses Hilda Leutz, Eleasa Bartels and Hattie Reik were appointed a social committee for the next party, beguiled the time until an early hour in the morning with party games.

Breakfast was served in true picnic style at 1 o'clock a. m. or thereabouts.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Russells are: Misses Alma, Verda and Iris Russell, Homer Russell, Emil Sundborg, Misses Hattie and Helen Reik, Frank Neiswander, Pansy Neiswander, Jarlan Hoffman, Eleasa Bartels, Irving Bartels, Lois Taylor, Guy Young, Dewey Crook, Charles Douglas, Walter and Clarence Armstrong.

The Macleay school is improving in all directions. This time it is school gardens. Harvey Taylor has plowed a patch of ground near the school and soon the children, who are taking enthusiastically to the work, will be planting their crops.

Macleay Grange will meet April 11, at the Grange hall for an all day meeting. Dinner will be served at noon. Discussions will be heard on "The Australian System of Farm Credits," "The Medicines Needed in the Family Medicine Chest on the Farm" and "Books Which Every Farm Library Should Contain." All grangers invited.

Millie Neiswander was a home visitor at Macleay Sunday. She is employed at the Deaf school.

Will Payne is the owner of a new Maxwell. He has sold his farm to the man who owns the walnut orchard, and this may account for the car. He will not leave the place until fall and so we all may get a ride in his car yet.

A. J. McLean, of Seio, is visiting his niece, Mrs. Theron Russell.

The Rev. Mr. Allen, of McMinnville, will preach at the hall next Sunday afternoon.

The literary society will meet Saturday night in the school house, 8:00 p. m.

The Show Went On In Spite of the Storm

San Francisco, April 11.—Passengers arriving here today on the steamer Matsunia described a Pacific ocean storm which raged one night while a vaudeville show was in progress in the cabin. While winds howled and the vessel pitched, the entertainment went on.

Painted sails furnished the scenery. Among those who participated were: Estella McNeal, prima donna, and Miss Marguerite Walker, and Miss Florence Williams, talented San Francisco debutante. Proceeds were given to the Red Cross.
