ALINE THOMPSON

Mrs. C. P. Bishop's Kensington this afternoon was a charming affair, about twenty-five prominent matrons being asked.

Mrs. John Minto entertained as her guest the first of the week, Mrs. John H. Logan, of Portland.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Parish will meet tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. James Walton, 1677 Center street.

Miss Zoe Stockton entertained this afternoon with a few tables of cards. Her guests were a coterie of the young matrons and maids.

Monday evening Miss Phyllis Kellogg was hostess for a "500" party at her home on Chemeketa street. Four tables of the game were circled by the guests, who were: Misses Marie Evans, Pearl George, Eulalia Lindsay, Louanna Brown, Opal George, Myrtle Herdlein, Mrs. Lester Stiffler, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kellogg, and Messrs. Earl Sumner, Ralph Lindsay, Frank DeWitte, Virgil Meadors, Clarence Cory and Warren Lindsay.

Miss Kellogg was assisted in the serving by Miss Louanna Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher returned last night from a brief visit in Eugene.

Several little friends of Little Rosalind Van Winkle gathered at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Van Winkle Wednesday afternoon to participate in her seventh birthday. The prettily appointed table was all done in pink. Favors, dainty Easter baskets filled with bonbons marked the places. Covers were laid for seven little play mates of the young honor guest.

The ladies of the order of the Eastern Star enjoyed their regular social afternoon Thursday at the Masonic Temple club rooms. The hostesses were Mrs. Louise Brink, Mrs. Jennie Kingley, Mrs. O. C. Thompson and Mrs. Marcia Tipple.

Games were indulged in during the afternoon and Mrs. Lorena Wise was awarded the prize. Later refreshments were served.

Spring vacation is here for the University of Oregon students and each day brings a number of boys and girls home for a visit. Among the boys who have arrived home are: Donald Byrd, Kenneth Moore, Fred Deekelbach, Bryan Turner and Karl Becke.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kellogg went to Portland Wednesday to be the guests of their daughter, Mrs. S. E. Mountain for several days.

At a meeting held in the Higland school Wednesday evening delegates were elected for the session of the Marion County Parent-Teachers' association, which will be held in Salem on May the sixth at the high school. Those elected were: Mrs. F. H. English, Miss M. P. Bingle and Mrs. M. Wilbur.

An enjoyable programme followed the business session. Those contributing numbers were: Miss Ruth Danison, Miss Jessie V. Miller, Miss Charlotte Bisazza, Miss Beulah Presnall and Miss Griffin.

The ladies of the First Congregational church will gather at the residence of Mrs. W. L. Staley for an informal social afternoon Friday.

One of the prettiest of the week's luncheons was that given Wednesday by Mrs. William Daney in honor of Mrs. Edwin L. Baker's guest, Mrs. Ralph Watson, and Mrs. Frank Meredith, of North Yakima, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. F. Griffith. A huge bowl of wall flowers centered the table which had covers for six. The afternoon was devoted to bridge and the honors were won by Mrs. L. F. Griffith.

Miss Marie Churchhill, who is attending the University of Oregon, has arrived home for her Easter vacation.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, who has been the guest of friends in Portland, returned Wednesday evening.

THREE HAIRCUTS AT ONCE

San Francisco, April 12.—Can a barber give a man three haircuts at one sitting?

This was one of the questions up to Police Judge Morris Oppenheim today. F. Abeln, appeared in court with his head bandaged and testified that Albert Ganzko, a barber, had cut his hair wrong, kept the change when he handed him a half dollar, beat him up and broke his glasses.

Ganzko said he cut his hair three times, that the complainant was in the chair an hour and a half, had an extra tooth and kept him from waiting on three other customers.

Ganzko was dismissed but ordered to pay Abeln $7.50 to replace the glasses broken during the fight.

SLAUGHTER IN MOVIES

Chico, Cal., April 13.—Rev. Madison Slaughter, accused of attacking Gertrude Lamson, aged 15, his church and congregation will soon be seen in the "movies." A motion picture company filmed the pastor delivering a sermon to a crowd of 1,000. His sermon was a defense, based on the supposition that Gertrude told her story because she thought it would be a "good lark" to have an "affair" with a man of prominence.

NOON HOUR SERVICE

The Salem Ministerial Union will hold a noon hour service in recognition of "Our Lord's Last Week." The services will begin next Monday, April 17, in the lecture room of the First Methodist church. They will open promptly at 12:30 and close at 12:55 p. m. There will be inspiring music and a gospel message by President Carl G. Doney. The hour selected is that we might accommodate ladies and gentlemen who lunch down town and might have a half hour to spend in honoring the world's greatest name. Come if you can only spend 15 minutes.

"23" FOR WILLIAM

San Francisco, April 13.—William Shakespeare's death date which was disputed by various organizations planning tercentenary celebrations for the immortal bard is now firmly established as April 23. The societies which are to celebrate the episode have taken a vote on it and decided that Shakespeare expired on April 23, therefore it must be true. In San Francisco the occasion will be featured by a simple program at Golden Gate park.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT COMPANY

Washington, April 13.—A company of United States Marines, skilled in high altitude gunnery, has been attached to the Advance Base Brigade of the United States Marine Corps, and will be known as the Anti-Aircraft Gun company. This is the first aero-defense company organized in the Marine Corps, if not the first in the United States.
