COW IN CHAPEL UPSETS ROUTINE AT WILLAMETTE

For the first time this year no chapel services were held at Willamette University this morning although the entire student body showed more interest in the "exercises" than has been aroused on the campus in many moons. Instead of a speaker this morning a Jersey cow occupied the "post of honor." She was chained to the post with a log chain which was secured with a padlock and it was necessary to file hokey loose before she could be restored to her owner. In the meantime Adams, a junior and varsity pitcher, milked the cow while she chewed her cud and made herself as much at home as if she were in her own little box stall.

Recently the faculty made a ruling that every student must attend the devotional exercises at chapel at 10 a. m. each day. This morning when C. C. Clark, the superintendent of the buildings and grounds, unlocked the chapel door to build a fire he was horrified to find a skeleton, which had been removed from the laboratory, rattling its dry bones in the morning breeze and "Queen Arabella" was rattling her chain impatiently at the postponed milking time.

Orange jelly and cream is a favorite dish of the Russian royal family. King George has lately been devoting some time to the study of Russian. Queen Mary's accounts of her personal expenditure are kept by her chief dresser. The prince of Wales, during his stay in London, has risen every day at six o'clock in the morning.—From London Answers.

Girls! Don't you know that more than three months of the glad leap year have hurried themselves into the depths of time? Better be getting busy. A local minister says: "All God's day is the judgment day." Think it over, brother. Usually the man who "makes good" in the town where he was raised is an exceptional creature. If hard work received as much attention from some people as baseball does there would be more missions in Salem.

The Table.
Haricot of Mutton—Two tablespoons chopped onions, two tablespoons butter or drippings, two cups water, salt and pepper, 1 1/2 pounds lean mutton or lamb cut in two-inch pieces. Fry onions, add meat and brown, cover with water and cook until meat is tender. Serve with border of lima beans and chopped parsley.

WANT LOWER COAL RATES
Washington, April 13.—The Southern California Fuel Dealers association of Los Angeles today asked the interstate commerce commission to lower coal freight tariffs from Gallup, N. M., to Pasadena, Los Angeles and Lamanda Park, over the Santa Fe railroad.

Things Worth Knowing.
Small roast fowls often burn before done. Take a piece of clean white cloth, fold five or six times, wring out of water, lay on top of fowl and baste as often as necessary, not removing cloth. The cloth keeps steam in. It will be much sweeter and juicier in this way.
Quick Way To Cut Noodles—After noodle dough is dry, but not brittle, cut into strips about two to three inches wide and lay these strips one on top of the other, wad they may be cut broad or fine as desired.

WAR DECLARED ON THE "PEACE HAT"

War on the "peace hat" a late creation in spring millinery, is an imminent possibility. Women friends of the birds declare the love with which they will set the hat on their fair heads. They are for peace, they declare, but they say they will not advertise their principles at the price of an innocent bird's life. Privately, those who are advocating the wearing of the "peace hat" have confessed that the alleged "dove" is not a "real-for-sure" dove at all. They say it is made of chicken feathers. Nevertheless the bird champions declare it looks like a real dove and they will not wear it. So there! The subject has been brought to the attention of the National Association of Audubon Societies of America, the last authority on bird protection. The society is making a vigorous fight against the use of bird plummage for hat trimmings. Secretary Pearson says if the alleged "bird" is the body of a real dove, the Audubon authorities certainly are against its use in millinery. "As long as they make these 'doves' out of the feathers of domestic birds, there can certainly be no objection to women wearing them," said Mr. Pearson, "unless perhaps it may be said that by doing so they are encouraging the general subject of feather-wearing. The feathers of wild birds cannot be obtained unless birds are killed," said Mr. Pearson, "and therefore should never be worn; on the other hand, ostrich feathers are legitimate as well as beautiful decorations and are approved by the Audubon societies."

SCENE FROM "LOVELY MARY"
There is every evidence that little Mary Miles Minter will hereafter be known as "Lovely Mary," since the release of the wonderful feature of that title on the Metro program. No name could fit the flower of the screen more aptly, as in this feature she is the embodiment of all that is exquisite in femininity.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Lentil Dishes.
Vegetable Soup—Boil in two quarts water one cup each of chopped cabbage, potatoes and turnips; season to taste and when tender add one cup chopped celery, one quart tomatoes and 1 1/2 cups macaroni. Cook until done and serve hot. Good and nourishing.
Mock Fish—Grind one cup pecan meats in dome cup black walnut meats, mix with two cups cold boiled hammy, half cup bread crumbs, two hard-boiled eggs chopped fine, tablespoon parsley, tablespoon grated onion, salt and pepper to taste, one well-beaten egg. Shape like fish, bake half hour in moderate oven. Serve with Hollandaise sauce and sliced lemon.
Potato Sausage—One-half cup butter (scant), one-fourth pound chopped onions, one-half pound boiled mashed potatoes, one-half pound bread crumbs, salt and pepper to taste, two beaten eggs. Mix all ingredients thoroughly together with a spoon (wooden spoon is best), then form into sausages; tie each well in cloth and boil exactly as a roly poly. If not to be beaten when newly cooked, put aside; until when wanted. This sausage is also good if cut into small cubes instead of bread crumbs, or it may be made half oatmeal and half bread crumbs. Sufficient for twelve sausages.
Hot Cabbage Salad—One small head cabbage chopped fine. Dressing: One egg, one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon sugar, two tablespoons vinegar, four tablespoons thick sweet cream, one-fourth teaspoon mustard, salt and pepper to taste. Mix all together, cook till thick, pour over cabbage and serve hot.
Italian Luncheon Salad—To 1 1/2 cups cooked Italian peas add one cup diced apples, half cup diced celery, one-fourth cup cooked raisins. Put French dressing over all but raisins, let stand thirty minutes, arrange on lettuce leaves, stew raisins on top, serve very cold. Cream cheese sandwiches are a nice accompaniment.
Oyster Salad—Two cups oysters, two cups diced celery, two eggs, one-fourth cup cream, one-fourth cup vinegar, one-half teaspoon mustard, one-fourth teaspoon celery salt, one-half teaspoon salt, few grains cayenne, one tablespoon butter. Drain, clean and parboil oysters; drain again. Beat the eggs, add slowly the cream and vinegar, seasonings and butter. Cook in double boiler until like soft custard. Add the drained oysters. Cool on ice and at serving time add the celery. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

A suit was filed in the circuit court today by Eliza B. Cook against M. M. Diehl to collect on a note upon which the sum of $4,750 and interest are alleged due. In addition to a judgment in the original sum the plaintiff seeks to add costs and $175 attorneys fees. The note is secured by a mortgage on 80 acres of land in this county.
Squire Farrar was today appointed by Judge Bussey as administrator of the estate of Thomas Johnson who died at St. Louis, Missouri, January 8, 1916, aged 82 years. The estate of the deceased consists of 100 shares of stock in the Thomas Kay Woolen Mill company with a par value of $100 each. The appraisers are E. C. Giltner, P. W. Patterson and C. B. Moores. The heirs of the estate reside in England.

The unusual procedure of a man being charged with burglary and objecting to the case against him being dismissed upon motion of the district attorney appeared to startle Judge Kelly's court this afternoon. William F. Porter was indicted on a charge of larceny of $20 from John Weaverling at Donald. The case was continued from last term and was set for trial this afternoon. District Attorney Ringo moved to dismiss the case on the grounds of insufficient evidence and the absence of a material witness. Attorney William Lord for the defendant objected to the case being dismissed but Judge Kelly overruled his objection and ordered the bail money refunded.
Today was naturalization day in Judge Galloway's court and five new Americans were admitted to full citizenship. Rasmus Anderson, of Jefferson, renounced his allegiance to Denmark. Richard Claxton, of Shaw, a native of England, had his case taken under advisement. Nelson Norman Carpenter and Harry Bertram Carpenter, both of Salem route 3, natives of Canada, were admitted. Jacob Andrew Rise, of 1205 North Nineteenth street, Salem, a native of Norway, was also admitted with Louis Cramer, of Salem route three.

AND AN ALL NEW COMPANY

The case of Benton B. Short against George A. Etzel, went to the jury this afternoon at 2 o'clock. This is an action brought to recover damages of $2,100 alleged to have been sustained through a breach of contract.

Things Worth Knowing.
When boiling eggs wet the shells thoroughly in cold water before dropping in the boiling water; they will not crack. In laying a carpet in a room where there is a register, the center of the square section covering register should be pierced by the shears, then the carpet should be cut diagonally to the four corners. The four pieces should be turned under. If the carpet is ever taken up to be used elsewhere, the

FREDERICK WARDE AS SILAS MARNER

Noted Star Makes Film Debut In Thanhouser Mutual Feature

Frederick Warde as Silas Marner in Thanhouser Mutual Masterpicture, De Luxe Edition. Frederick Warde, the noted English actor, star in the Mutual Masterpicture De Luxe Edition, "Silas Marner," a novel, which will be shown at the Bligh Theatre today, tomorrow and Saturday, is one of the greatest of living actors and is a recognized authority on Shakespeare and his dramas. He is well known throughout the Continent and in the United States as a lecturer on Shakespeare and as a star in Shakespearean productions. His career on the legitimate stage has been a long and brilliant one and his name is familiar to all followers of the best in the drama. It was no easy task to persuade him to act in front of the camera, but when he saw the scenario for "Silas Marner," which he declares is his favorite novel, he succumbed to the lure of the screen and consented to appear in the Mutual feature production under the direction of his son Edward Warde, one of the best known directors in filmdom, who has turned out many artistic successes from the Thanhouser studios. Those who remember Mr. Warde on the stage will welcome him to the screen as he has never appeared to such excellent advantage as in the title role in "Silas Marner," a picture which has never been excelled in the history of moving picture dramas.
