WILL CELEBRATE TRICENTENARY OF GREATEST OF POETS

"Midsummer Nights Dream" to Be Presented by Women's Club Saturday

Saturday, April 22, is a date which all loyal Salem people should keep in mind—and also keep open. Because on that date the city of Salem, through the agency of its Women's club, will contribute its part in the nation-wide observance of the Shakespeare ter-centenary. It is perhaps too broad a statement to say that everybody is interested in Shakespeare, and in what Shakespeare means to all who speak the English language, but it is not too much to say that everybody ought to be interested; and it is primarily for those who ought to be interested that the Women's club is going to present one of the Bard's most fascinating comedies, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," at the Grand exact Saturday afternoon and evening. The presentation of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will take the form of an interpretive reading of the play. Mrs. Anna Rogers Fish, one of the most popular of Salem's entertainers, will do the reading, impersonating such of the famous characters in the comedy. Those who have heard Mrs. Fish in dramatic readings are aware of the cleverness with which she "puts over" a play single-handed—that is, all by herself—and there is no play which better lends itself to this method of presentation than "A Midsummer Night's Dream." However, Mrs. Fish will not be entirely alone in the forthcoming revival of the immortal comedy. The famous musical setting of Mendelssohn will be given in connection with the reading, and the various solos, duets, quartettes, choruses, and dances will be interspersed with the dialogue, in the regular order in which they belong. Mrs. William Borghardt, Jr., will preside at the piano, and in some of the heavier musical numbers, like the "Overture" she will be assisted by Miss Sadie Ford. The musical program includes the celebrated "Wedding March," "Nocturne," "Sheraz," and the "Clown Dance." Mrs. R. M. Hofer and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam will sing Oberon's song, "I Know a Bank," from Act 2, Scene 1, and with Mrs. J. J. Roberts and Mrs. T. H. Galloway, they will also render the Patries' Lullaby, "Ye Spotted Snakes," which has been arranged as a quartette. One of the features of the musical program will be the "Borgomast," or clown dance, which will be interpreted by Miss Margaret White, and then, for good measure, there will be the Patries' Dance, performed by 10 little Salem fairies. These are Misses Jeanette Sykes, Josephine Atkinson, Darral Anderson, Lenta Baumgartner, Rosalee Burton, Jeannette Plimpton, Constance Yantis, Margaret Stoltz, Prudence Patterson and Marie Schulderman. There will be two performances of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," a matinee and an evening performance, and you can have any seat at either performance for 25 cents. If you know your Shakespeare you won't have to be told that in this entertainment you will get a whole lot for your money. If you are still a stranger to the Bard this is a bargain opportunity for you to get acquainted with him. The proceeds from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be used by the Women's club as a nest egg for their building fund. All who are in any way connected with the entertainment are giving their services gratis, and it is expected that the two performances Saturday will score as big a success financially as they are sure to do artistically.

PORTLAND DENTISTS' OFFICES ARE ROBBED

Portland, Ore., April 17.—Twenty-four dentists' offices in Portland were robbed of gold estimated to be worth $5,000 last night. The robberies were not discovered until today, and the police have been conducting a secret investigation. The gang, according to the police, began operations in Salt Lake. They next visited San Francisco. Dentists' associations and detective agencies sent out warnings that raids by this gang of thieves might be expected. Meager descriptions of one or two of the robbers have been obtained. Ten offices in the Pittock block were robbed, but the Wills Dental laboratory, which contained gold worth $1,000 was untouched.

Jersey Cattle Club Organized Saturday

The Marion County Jersey Cattle club effected a formal organization at a meeting held Saturday in the auditorium of the commercial club with the adoption of a constitution and by-laws and the election of Henry Zorn as president and Jacob Fox as secretary. The holding of a dairy cattle show in Salem was discussed. The general opinion was that it should be held at an early date, preferably during the annual cherry fair. The general interest in Jersey cattle is becoming such that it is believed that such a show, especially during the cherry fair, would bring people here from all parts of the county as well as from Polk county. Following the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, directors were chosen as follows: Henry Zorn, Jacob Fox, Charles Cannon, Warren Gray, Joseph Ditter and J. B. Peterson.

The Salem Ministerial union will conduct noon day services this week from 12:20 to 12:55 each day in the lecture room of the First Methodist church. Dr. Carl Gregg Doney will deliver the message each day. These noon day sessions are for all.
