For the purpose of drilling, Company M will be divided into two sections. All the recruits will be in one section under the command of Captain Max Gehlhar and Lieutenant Allen. The old members of the company will be commanded by Lieutenant J. Roy Neer, Lieutenant L. H. Compton and Lieutenant Walter L. Spaulding. Each division is about equal in number and it is the intention of the recruits to challenge the old members, the contest to take place about June 1. Since the recruits have issued their challenge, there has been additional interest in the weekly drill, and even the old members are brushing up a little and coming out to the weekly practice.

All the women in the city who are interested in woman's suffrage, are invited to attend the meeting tomorrow morning at the Commercial club at 10 o'clock, to hear Miss Priscilla Webster, who is here to make arrangements for the entertainment and speaking of the prominent women of the east who are touring the country in the interest of the Susan B. Anthony amendment. The delegation of women who are touring the west will be here Saturday and those who have taken an interest in the movement will now have the chance to hear such prominent workers as Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and the militant Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain of New York City.

Before an audience that taxed the seating capacity of the First Congregational church, Lieutenant Swartzkopfsky, an escaped exile from Siberia last evening told of his experiences as a political prisoner in Russia and of his escape from Siberia. His lecture was especially interesting as many have read of the trials of the Siberian exile, but few have had the opportunity of hearing the story from one who had experienced all the misery of an exile and the perils of an escape. The lieutenant is a pleasing speaker and tells his story well. He spoke two times at Willamette university yesterday, and during the past two weeks has appeared at many of the colleges and universities in the valley.

ARRANGE FOR COMING OF THE SUFFRAGETTES

Advance Agent to Arrive Tomorrow to Arrange for Meeting Saturday

As an advance agent for the train load of eastern women who are touring the west for the Susan B. Anthony women suffrage amendment, Miss Priscilla Webster will arrive in the city tomorrow morning at 10:11 o'clock on the Oregon Electric. She will be met by members of the Women's Club and be taken to the Commercial club to address the members of the Women's Club and all those interested in women's suffrage. Arrangements are being made today by which the Women's club will be fully represented tomorrow morning at the meeting with Miss Webster. She is here to make arrangements for the meeting to be held Saturday in which the speakers will include many of national renown, including Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain, who always rides at the head of women suffrage parades in New York City, and Harriet Stanton Blatch, a daughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton. In fact there will be more famous suffragettes in the city Saturday than has ever before been in the state.
