Dr. Hector Macpherson, of the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural College will speak this evening at the public library on "Rural Credits." He has made a practical study of the needs of the farmers and does not hesitate, in his lectures throughout the state, to tell them truths about where they fail to live up to their opportunities. He is a practical man and not an idealist, and for this reason, his ideas on rural credits should contain some practical suggestions.

Seamon Schlesinger of New York city is in the city visiting at the home of Benjamin Brick. As he is associated with a large importing firm in linen, he was interested in the flax proposition in the Willamette valley. Although at first he was rather skeptical as to what could be produced in this valley, after a visit at the penitentiary inspecting flax raised last year, and a talk with Warden Minio, he became quite enthusiastic over the possibilities of flax production near Salem and promised that the matter would be taken up with his firm and that he would undoubtedly be heard from, especially as his firm were large importers in linen.

Word was received today from Lieut. Leo A. Walton who is seeing active service with the troops in Mexico. The letter was dated April 5, and was sent from the front 400 miles by aeroplane to Columbus, New Mexico. Lieutenant Walton is in the first squadron of the Tenth cavalry, in troop D, and has been among those troops that have been continually on the march and in the front of the general line of troops in the pursuit of Villa. The letter was written from Namaniqua, Mexico, and describes the country as "absolutely poverty stricken and the Mexicans of the lowest order, suspicious of the Americans and in fear of Villa. Lieutenant Walton was graduated from West Point, June 9, 1915, and visited relatives in this city last summer before being assigned to duty with the Tenth cavalry, located at Huachuca, Arizona.

Japanese Object to Last Immigration Bill

Washington, April 21.--President Wilson today discussed with Ambassador Chinda certain provisions in the immigration bill which the house recently passed, and which was objectionable to Japan. Simultaneously it became known that Japan had sent a memorandum to America covering its complaint. It is understood the Mikado objected to placing Japanese and Hindus in the same classifications and restricting the number of Japanese immigrants.

On the latter point Japan objects merely to putting the restrictions into writing, replacing the present "gentlemen's agreement" between the two countries.

Governor Pardons Two Foreigners for Deportation

Governor Withycombe yesterday granted conditional pardons to Trifone Cantaceo and Frank Molino, for whom the Federal Immigration Service holds warrants of deportation. The two men were pardoned upon the recommendation of the Parole Board and will be turned over to the proper Federal authorities for deportation.

A restoration to citizenship was granted to Grant Miner who was received at the penitentiary from Wallawa county in May, 1912, to serve from 6 months to 10 years for assault with a dangerous weapon and who was paroled in March, 1915. Judge J. W. Knowles, before whom Miner was tried, District Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe, and Wallawa Counties recommended the final release of Miner.

Mrs. Harriet Matt of Gervais Died Thursday

Gervais, Or., April 21.--Mrs. Harriet Matt died Thursday morning at 2 o'clock at her home in Gervais, aged 57 years. Mrs. Matt was born in British Columbia but was a pioneer of Oregon and has lived many years in Gervais.

She is survived by eight children, Frank, of Klamath Falls; Albert, Eva, Mary and Frances, of Portland; Ada Johns, of Salem; Mrs. J. Biagman and Paul, of Gervais. The funeral probably will be held Saturday from the Catholic church in Gervais.
