benefit at the Oregon theatre on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Here is the programme:
Orpheus chorus, "Cavalry Stew Song"; Miss Nannette Bloom, "Polonaise" (Chopin); George Snyder, "The Tramp"; Trotter; Carter and Alley, mandolin and guitar selections; Carl Gabrielson and Ruf White, blackface skit; Dan Langenberg, solo, "The Horn" (Floquer); Orpheus male chorus "Garden of My Heart" (Ball).

Amid an artistic setting of iris, candy tuff, narcissus and other spring blossoms, a score or more of young girls gathered at the Charles K. Spaulding residence Wednesday to participate in the informal evening for which Miss Ila Spaulding was hostess. The girls who were all members of the Breakfast club, added to the gaiety of the affair by initiating two new members into the club, the Misses Gertrude Walling and Ila Proctor. Miss Spaulding was assisted by her mother Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding and Miss Olga Gray. The guests were the Misses Caroline Dick, Olga Gray, Barbara Steiner, Grace Holt, Marybelle Reinhardt, Edna Howd, Lois Martin, Vivian Hargrove, Ethel Frazier, Irene Curtis, Clance Haines, Zeta Rosenquest, Ruth Schultz, Retha Hughes, Gertrude Walling and Ila Proctor.

It was an uncommon pleasure to attend the afternoon of music given by the young pupils of Miss Laura Grant at her residence last Saturday. About fifty proud and happy parents heard the young artists who played all of their numbers charmingly by memory, which is quite a feat in itself. The rooms were fragrant with white lilacs and easter lilies affording an attractive decoration and appropriate background for the youthful performers.

The matrons of the P. E. O. club enjoyed an informal afternoon Monday as the guests of Mrs. C. E. Bowles. The forepart of the afternoon was devoted to sewing. Later Mrs. Henry Poial read an interesting paper on California. As a little gift of cheer to be delivered to the sick and less fortunate the members of the club came laden with wonderful bouquets of spring blossoms. Mrs. Henry Poial assisted the hostess in serving.

An unusually interesting recital was given by the pupils of Miss Ima Welch Tuesday evening, when three of her Dealing students were presented in their graduating exercises at her residence studio 695 North Liberty street. Clever and artistic work was done by each student and the programme was enlivened by a double piano number "The Hunting Scene", played by Miss Harriet Griffith and Miss Mabel Marcus. Two delightful selections from James Whitcomb Riley were very effectively read by Miss Grace Babcock. Miss Lois Watt of Portland, who was an unexpected guest, completed the artistry of the programme by two beautiful solos "From Distant Lands" and "I Knew You and You Knew Me".

- Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Armstrong entertained a number of the members of the Parent-Teachers association of the Friends Bible school and friends at their home on Friday evening. A very interesting report of the convention was given by Mrs. Myrtle Kenworthy and Miss Beulah Presnel. During the evening an enjoyable and humorous programme was given by Clara Hinman, little Ira Riggs and Messrs. Hockett, Thorp, Pruitt, Graham and Hinman. Refreshments served in dainty May baskets ended the gayeties.

Mrs. J. R. Olinger extended charming hospitality to the Sweet Brier club Wednesday afternoon at her country home on the Wallace road. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Lady Bankshire roses. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Patty, and by Miss Mildred Inlath, in serving dainty refreshments.

During the afternoon Margaret and Mabel Olinger entertained their young friends on the lawn with games and stories. The children invited were Mary Christine Ferguson, Marjorie Harriett Dick, Webb Gaynell Beckett, Margaret and David Steiner, Dwight Webb.

Today was flag day, for the purpose of aiding the Salvation army with the local relief and charity work. They made a pretty picture, the girls and women wearing flags on the corners, in the hotel lobby, everywhere about town and in spite of their absence of an admonition that they were not to insist there we had few refusals to buy. Among those donating their time and efforts to the success of the sale were:

Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. John Caughell, Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, Mrs. John Brophy, Mrs. Ernest Hart, Mrs. J. H. Lewis, and the Misses Steiner, Margery Kay, Elizabeth Lord, Priscilla Fleming, Constance Yantis, Edna Josse, Carolyn Dick and Lorraine Ross.

The Salem club of the Oregon Agricultural college assisted by the O. A. C. cadet band will give an informal dance and concert in honor of the seniors of the Salem high school in the armory Friday, May the twelfth.

Mrs. Nitzel gave an enjoyable sewing at her home on Wednesday afternoon, having the matrons of the "Round Dozen Club" as guests. Dainty refreshments rounded out the afternoon. The hostess was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Leon Davidson.

Mrs. Mead and daughter, Muriel, who have been visiting with friends left Thursday for their home in Battle Creek, Mich., via California. They were quite taken with the Willamette valley and thought that Salem was one of the most beautiful cities they had visited during their trip.

The musicale given by the pupils of Miss Minnetta Magors at her new studio in the Moore building last Monday evening was very excellent, and highly appreciated by the audience who heartily encored each number. The program of English, French and German songs were well interpreted and showed good tonal work, phrasing and breath control. Mrs. Donald Miles assisted with two most interesting readings showing much ability in interpretation. She is a pupil of Mrs. Anna Rogers Fish. Little Miss Prudence Spight, who is a pupil of Miss Laura Grant, surprised all by the able way she rendered her number. The delightful programme was as follows:

- Love and Springtime..... Metcalf
- Night..... Ronald
- Sunset..... Miss Abbie Davis
- Sing, Sing..... Miss Ruth Fugate

Franklin, N. Y., April 28, 1916, Sidney Centre friends and relatives received the news of the marriage of Murray C. Wheat of Astoria, Ore., to Miss Fanny Johas of Sen Side. Mr. Wheat who went to Oregon a few years ago to practice law is making a success of his profession. He is a candidate for representative from Oregon.—The Delaware County Dairyman.

A quartet from the Indian school at Chemawa rendered several pleasing selections at the concert held in the First Congregational church on Wednesday evening. The selections were very fairly rendered and were well received by a large audience. The music of the quartet recalled to the Salem public that a unique work is being done at Chemawa by Mr. Turney as a composer as well as leader of the orchestra. The "Indian Suit" which was played with fine effect revealed the spirit of the early Indian people in their joys, in their sorrows and in their ceremonies.

Mr. Richard H. Kennedy in the role of narrative lecturer is in a class by himself and delivers his lecture on "Les Miserables" in a manner that made a great impression on his audience.
