class of 1916 of Willamette university, but now a senior in the University of California, has been visiting with friends on the campus for the last few days. He is on his way to Portland where his parents live. The graduation exercises will not be held at Berkeley until May 17 so Mr. Hall decided to come home a couple of weeks early. While in Willamette Hall was a very popular student, both in athletics and society affairs. He spent his first two years at Willamette and then finished at California, he is planning to go back to Berkeley again this fall and take up the study of medicine.

Professor James T. Matthews will give his lecture on the Fourth Dimension in the chapel of Walker hall tonight at 8 o'clock. The lecture is one of the faculty series which are free to the public, and everyone interested in the subject should avail themselves of this opportunity to hear the lecture. In commenting on the lecture Professor Matthews said: "If the first dimension deals with length, the second with breadth and the third thickness, what does the fourth consist of? That is the mystery which I will endeavor to unfold this evening." It is a certainty, however, that the subject will be an interesting one as the professor is noted for his mathematical ability.

The May day exercises will not be held today on account of the rain which has continued with regularity every day since the events were scheduled to be taken place. Evidently Rex Oregon has had to surrender his power to Queen Frances L. and consequently has invited Old Jope Phivius to come down and assist him in an endeavor to retain his power. At any rate he has been much in evidence lately and his presence can be explained for in no other way. If nothing further intervenes Manager Lyons plans to hold the coronation ceremonies next Saturday. It was thought at first that the weather would permit of their being held sometime early this week, but it has been so cold and disagreeable that it was thought best to wait until next Saturday and so that time it is expected that the weather will be settled.

The Y. W. Y. M. U. A. vesper services were held in the Philodorian hall yesterday instead of on the campus as had been planned. Dr. Carl G. Doney addressed the students. Special music was given and a song service in which all took part was held.
