

SOCIETY and CLUBS

ALINE THOMPSON

DESPITE the occasional down pour of rain, scores and scores of the married set and younger contingent motored to the Livelyest hop ranch "Lake Brook" Monday evening to attend the dinner and dance for which Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Livelyest were hosts.

Although there have been a deluge of smart affairs this season, there have been none quite so gay or so thoroughly enjoyable. Informality was the keynote of the evening and every one had a perfectly huge time.

Dinner preceded the dance and the tables were adorned with bowls of spring flowers and greenery.

The dance hall was a veritable hower of green, vine maple and dogwood making an effective background and foil for the array of brilliant sweaters and sports tops.

Japanese lanterns in every known color swung over the dancers and gave an oriental touch to the harmoniously blended panorama of beautiful coloring. The booth string orchestra furnished the music.

Those participating in the gayeties were: Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Thielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Olcott, Mr. and Mrs. Chaucey Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNary, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Boise, Dr. and Mrs. William Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Zedee Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. W. McDougal, Mr. and Mrs. Ben O. Schucking, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, Mrs. E. Treatie Clarke of Seattle, Mrs. Ralph Jackson (Maude Durbin) of Peoria, Ill., Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Miss Catherine Carson, Miss Margery Marlin, Miss Jennie Fry, Miss Esther Carson, Carl Gabrielson, Laurence Hofer, James Young, Hugh and Jack McCammon, Paul Wallace, Ralph Moores, Daniel J. Fry, Jr.

About a dozen prominent matrons were guests at the lovely luncheon for which Mrs. William Eldridge and Mrs. William Brown were hostesses at the home of the former on Tuesday. Yellow snap dragons and forget-me-nots combined with airy tulle adorned the handsomely appointed table which had covers for: Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. William H. Boot, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Thomas Kay, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. J. N. Smith, and Mrs. C. H. Robertson.

Another charming affair was given by these hostesses on Friday, when they entertained the matrons of the "Happy Hour Club" and several additional guests at informal afternoon of bridge.

The drawing room and library where the card tables were arranged were fragrant with white carnations and spirals. The card honors fell to Mrs. A. I. Eoff. In the dining room yellow and white snap dragons adorned the exquisitely appointed tea table over which Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson presided.

BANISH SCROFULA

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cleanses the Blood, Skin Troubles Vanish.

Scrofula eruptions on the face and body are both annoying and disfiguring. Many a complexion would be perfect if they were not present.

This disease shows itself in other ways, as bunched in the neck, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, watering of the muscles, and form of dyspepsia, and general debility.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine completely eradicates scrofula. It purifies and enriches the blood, removes humors, and builds up the whole system. It has stood the test of forty years, and has received thousands of testimonials of the entire satisfaction it has given.

Scrofula is either inherited or acquired. Better be sure you are quite free from it. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla and begin taking it today.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Jordan of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Meyers of Salem, Ore., who have been touring Southern California by automobile are at the Cliff.—San Francisco Examiner.

Ten happy little folk of the very youngest set revelled at the charming birthday party given Miss Janet Plimpton this afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton. Mrs. Plimpton planned the most artistic table decorations for these small guests. The center was of pink sweet peas mingled with ferns, and at each little place there were dainty pink cakes aglow with tiny candles.

Favors, bright colored balloons floated and marked covers for Helen and ailded Roberts, Nancy and "Tommy" Livesley, Marie and Peter Schulderman, Rosalie Buren, Asahel Bush, Jr. and Robert Bishop.

Charming informality marked the five hundred party for which Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen were hosts Tuesday evening. The members of the "Merry-Go-Round" club were asked to make up the tables and the high score honors were awarded to Mrs. Russell Catlin and Dr. J. N. Smith.

Those playing were: Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mr. and Mrs. John McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Boren, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Fleming, Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Kay, Mr. and Mrs. William Thielsen, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. H. J. Schulderman and Mrs. Ada Stroug.

Miss Helen Krause, the charming Portland girl whose engagement was recently announced to Glenn Sigel is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Albert.

A vast throng attended the dance and concert given for the seniors of the Salem high school by the Salem club of the O. A. C. and the O. A. C. cadet band at the armory last evening. A more cosmopolitan assemblage of young folk has never been held. Fully 400 people attended the affair and they came garbed in every kind of frock imaginable, in which summer gowns and sports tops took the important place. Informality and good music were no doubt responsible for the spontaneity which characterized the affair. Streamers of Salem high school colors gaily mingled with the O. A. C. orange and black and floated from the balcony; white pennants were every where about the huge hall.

A profusion of Scotch broom heided in the band and was also used to decorate the punch bowl.

A charming affair was the "500" party given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Locke at their apartments in the Court. The rooms were attractive with yellow roses and quantities of golden butter cups and greens. Mrs. George Rodgers and George Brown were the high score honors. Assisting were Mrs. William Dancy and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker. The Nemo card club augmented by several guests were asked including Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNary, Dr. and Mrs. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Josepa Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin, Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olinger, Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mr. and E. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. William Dancy and Mrs. Lovelace.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany who were the guests of the William Burghardts Jr., for the dinner dance Friday evening motored home late that night.

Mrs. Joseph Alberts asked the matrons of the Happy Hour bridge club and several guests at her home Wednesday for an informal afternoon over the bridge tables.

The card favors fell to Mrs. Robert Downing and Mrs. Frank Griffith. Miss Helen Krause of Portland and Miss Mildred Wiggins assisted Mrs. Alberts.

In honor of the anniversary of her husband's birthday Mrs. Paul Hauser entertained Friday evening with an attractive stag dinner.

The table was centered with an artistic array of red pennies and covers marked places for Dr. Roy Byrd, G. B. Webb, James Chinook, Lloyd Hauser, Roscoe Shelton, Paul Rasmussen, Kenneth Brown and the host. Later the party was augmented by the women who were asked for an evening of five hundred. Mrs. Hauser was assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Hauser.

Amid an array of pretty spring blossoms, Miss Ada Dayton became the bride of Reverend John Robertson of Moro, Oregon, at six thirty o'clock Wednesday at the home of her mother Mrs. H. Dayton.

Rev. Carl H. Elliott of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Miss Dayton's wedding though a simple affair was very charming. A hower of white elematis and pink tulle formed an effective foil for the bride party. The bride wore a gown of white lingerie and carried a bouquet of cream roses. Miss Alma Phole was maid of honor and her gowa was a delicate pink lingerie and she carried pink carnations. Little Barbara Dayton of Astoria, a niece of the bride, preceded the bridal party carrying the ring' in a lovely rose.

Dr. Floyd B. Dayton of Portland acted as best man. Mrs. Charles McAllister of Portland sang "I Love You Truly" and Miss Maude McCoy played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Following the ceremony a buffet wedding supper was served.

The table was adorned with pink sweet peas and pink tulle. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mrs. A. J. Dayton of Astoria, and Miss Della Hagon.

The bride's bouquet which was fashioned in three parts contained the lime, the chimele and the ring and was caught by Miss Margaret Putnam, Miss Anna Phole and Miss Bessie Shum.

Boy and Mrs. Robertson left on a wedding trip to Portland. They will be at home to their friends in Moro after June first.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Dayton and daughter Barbara of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McAllister and children of Portland, Dr. Floyd B. Dayton of Portland, Mrs. Norman Courtney of Mazatlan, Mexico, and Miss Edna Pury of Orenco.

Miss Caroline Dick and Miss Marjorie Kay went to Eugene Thursday to attend the junior week end festivities at the university. While in Eugene they will be guests at the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority house.

It has been a happy week for the dance-loving set, and Friday evening again found a throng of society folk whirling merrily at the Hotel Marion dinner dance.

The tables surrounded by various vivacious groups of maids and matrons in brilliant sports clothes and sweaters with their escorts, made a pleasing and colorful ensemble.

Among the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., whose guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Chaucey Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam.

Miss Ellen Thielsen, Miss Hazel Downing, Carl Gabrielson, Ercel Kay and James Young entertained a party of the younger set including: Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Catherine Carson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Margery Marlin, Miss Jennie Fry, Miss Ida Simmons, Miss Esther Carson, Miss Grace Benn, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Miss Aline Thompson, Laurence Hofer, Albert Egan, Daniel J. Fry, Jr., Leland Hendricks, and Mrs. William Dancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany who were the guests of the William Burghardts Jr., for the dinner dance Friday evening motored home late that night.

Mrs. Joseph Alberts asked the matrons of the Happy Hour bridge club and several guests at her home Wednesday for an informal afternoon over the bridge tables.

The card favors fell to Mrs. Robert Downing and Mrs. Frank Griffith. Miss Helen Krause of Portland and Miss Mildred Wiggins assisted Mrs. Alberts.

Ralph Moores, Hugh McCammon, Chris Reynolds, Prince Byrd.

Others noticed circling tables in congenial groups were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ben O. Schucking.

At another table were: Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton and Dr. and Mrs. William Lytle.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts and Mrs. E. Treatie Clarke, of Seattle, were together, while Miss Florence Hofer, Miss Myrtle Albright, Allan Bynon and John Carson formed another party.

A party of Albany devotees motored to Salem for the affair and included Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cusick, Miss Laura Taylor, Rollo Rawlston and Harry Hawkins.

Mrs. Charles Dick entertained with a few tables of bridge Monday afternoon. It was a very informal affair, only the matrons of the Bridge club and several additional guests being asked.

The rooms were charming with a profusion of forget-me-nots artistically arranged in bowls and vases. Three tables of bridge were circled by the guests, the card honor falling to Mrs. Douglas Minto. Mrs. Dick was assisted by her daughter Miss Caroline Dick.

Besides the club the guests included Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. H. J. Schallerman, Mrs. John Coughlin and Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

Mrs. Harry Wenderoth asked a group of matrons and maids for an informal sewing Friday afternoon, her guests included the members of the La Coudre club.

An attractive dinner was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poisal. The table which was all done in yellow, was unusually pretty with a center of golden hued poppies, dainty ferns and yellow tulle.

Seated around the table were: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bolinger, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw and Miss Marion Shaw and the hosts. Dinner was followed by an evening of five hundred.

One of the charming and pretty affairs of the week was the shower for which Mrs. B. J. Miles and Mrs. Donald Miles were hostesses this afternoon to honor Miss Regina Long, bride-elect, who has been much entertained since the announcement of her engagement.

The rooms of the Miles residence were a scene of exceptional beauty, being decked with a profusion of yellow Scotch broom and purple wild flowers, which made an effective foil for the pretty afternoon toilettes of the guests.

The afternoon was made unusually delightful by a musical programme. Mrs. Florence Holliday-Haight, recently of New York, charmed the guests with her beautiful voice. Mrs. G. Powers sang several pretty solos, while Miss Laura Grant's piano selections and Miss Joy Turner's violin numbers were equally enjoyable.

The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. C. Pruner, Mrs. George Barnett, Miss May Rauch and Miss Marguerite Miles.

Besides the honoree the guests included: Mrs. H. E. Bolinger, Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mrs. S. N. Endicott, Mrs. H. E. Epley, Mrs. Mary Ramsdell, Mrs. E. C. Rauch, Mrs. L. K. Page, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. G. W. Gerald Volk, Mrs. C. Pruner, Mrs. O. M. Elliott, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. William Fleming, Mrs. F. Seeley, Mrs. M. Grant, Mrs. R. B.
