WOMEN find the Saxon Roadster especially appealing because it is so simple and safe to drive. It starts and stops and turns with utmost ease. There is never any tension or strain felt when you are at the wheel of the Saxon "Four". Even at the end of a long trip you are not fatigued. You'll find the upholstery deep and restful and the seat is 40 inches wide—plenty of space for two large people. Let us take you for a ride and show you how easily you can drive a Saxon Roadster.

WHAT MADE DORA MAD

Los Angeles, Cal., May 13.—"My husband called me a 'big fat slob' and when I wanted to be petted and have him show me some affection, he told me to go away and leave him alone as he had trouble enough."

This is what Mrs. Dora A. Reynolds told Judge Wood today in her suit for divorce against James W. Reynolds, a Los Angeles tailor. She got the divorce.

growth? Family discipline not mainly by the "rod." These are some of the sub-topics that the main subject suggests. If convenient, wear a white flower. In the evening "grains of wheat in a mummy's hand." Good music both morning and evening.

Churches to Observe Mother's Day Sunday

Special services have been planned in many of the city churches tomorrow in honor of Mother's day. The Rev. Carl H. Elliott of the First Presbyterian church will speak appropriate of the occasion. At the Unitarian church, the Rev. R. F. Fischer will take for his subject, "The Nation's Mothers." The Rev. George F. Holt, of the First Baptist church will deliver a sermon on "The Most Beautiful Sight in the World."

At the First Methodist church, the Rev. E. N. Avison will preach on "My Mother's Bible." The Sunday school of the First Christian church has prepared a special program, and the pastor, the Rev. F. T. Porter, will speak on the observance of Mother's day.

In co-operation with the effort to foster the observance of the day, the Western Union has provided special blanks on which to send messages. The emblem of the day is the white carnation, to be worn not only as a tribute to one's mother, but also for the noble motherhood of the land.

Fund Collected for Salem Y. W. C. A., $1529

The sum of $1,529.55 has been raised during the campaign this week for the support of the Y. W. C. A. the coming year and the 40 women, working in five committees are of the opinion that Salem has responded generously to their efforts.

While today will close the regular daily program of campaign and daily meetings, the work of soliciting funds will be continued, until the necessary amount, $3,500, is raised.

The final report of the week was made yesterday at the usual 4 o'clock tea, presided over by Mrs. Perry H. Raymond, Mrs. A. N. Bush, as chairwomen of the finance committee, and Mrs. C. A. Parks, president of the board, expressed their thanks to the 40 good workers who had given their entire time during the week. Miss Maxwell, city secretary of field work, complimented the women on their excellent team work.

The amounts collected by the five teams, as shown by their reports yesterday, were as follows:

Mrs. John H. Albert	$ 786.50
Mrs. Nancy L. Wallace	338.25
Mrs. Russell Catlin	100.00
Mrs. John Farrar	294.10
Mrs. Chaucery Bishop	282.50
Additional gifts	128.00

Total $1,529.55
The amount collected by the teachers' team, in charge of Mrs. LaMoine Clark has not been reported.

ASPIRANTS ARE NOT FEW

CANDIDATES WHO SEEK REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS AT PRIMARY.

There are 12 candidates on the primary ballot of the republican party from which to select four delegates from the state at large to the national convention at Chicago for the nomination of candidates for president of the United States, and four candidates in the first congressional district for like honor from which to select two. Six of these announce their preference for Hughes; three favor Roosevelt, while the others give various reasons for desiring to be nominated on May 19. Russell Hawkins, of Tillamook county, is a very determined Hughes supporter, for his slogan reads: "I shall vote for Hughes; if you don't object better elect me." Charles W. Anderson, of Multnomah, calls for "Roosevelt, reunion and results," and J. H. Wordley, of the same district, says "republican victory means prosperity; democratic victory means continuance of present conditions." One candidate stands for Borah, of Idaho, for vice-president as a running mate for Hughes.

There are three candidates for the nomination for the office of president of the United States, they being Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio; Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, and Charles E. Hughes, of New York. For vice-president but one name, that of William Grant Webster, of Illinois, appears on the primary ballot. Five electors of president and vice-president will be selected from the seven candidates.

"No interests to serve but the public interest" is the slogan of W. C. Hawley, of Marion county, who is the only republican on the ticket having aspirations for congress, he to succeed himself.

Charles B. Moore, of Portland, carrying the slogan, "courtroom, efficient and personal service," will contend with Ben W. Olcott, of Marion county, for secretary of state, and a pretty fight for the nomination is now being waged. "Administration of state affairs guided solely by business principles and common sense," is Mr. Olcott's slogan.

George H. Burnett, of Marion, and Frank A. Moore, of Columbia, are candidates for justice of the supreme court, and as two are to be nominated they have what is commonly termed a cinch. John D. Michle, of Portland, a candidate for dairy and food commissioner, and Fred G. Buchtel, of Portland, and Thos. K. Campbell, of Cottage Grove, are candidates for public service commissioner.

State Conference of Social Agencies

The Oregon State Conference of Social Agencies and the Religious Education association are holding sessions in Portland today at Reed college.

In the discussion of "The Segregation of the Socially Inefficient," yesterday afternoon, George Palmer Putnam spoke, taking for his topic, "What Institutions Are Needed to Handle the Problem."

In the discussion last night of the Oregon criminal code, George M. Brown, attorney general, spoke on "Suggested Changes in the Criminal Code."

This afternoon, in the general discussion of proposed social legislation for Oregon, Dr. J. N. Smith, superintendent of the State Institution for the Feeble Minded, delivered an address on "A Commitment Law for Feeble Minded."

At the fourth annual convention of the Religious Education association, J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction for Oregon, spoke Thursday on "School Credits for Home Study of the Bible." Mr. Churchill and Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, are members of the advisory council.

CHURCHES JOIN IN EVANGELISTIC WORK

With the Protestant churches all throwing their forces together in the series of special meetings being held at the Methodist Episcopal church of Stayton under Evangelist John Lewtas, the attendance at the services is growing very satisfactorily to those in charge of the movement. On Sunday afternoon the auditorium held a large audience of women only when the speaker gave his address on "The Twentieth Century Woman." The morning and evening services necessitated the throwing open of the Epworth league room that the concourse might be seated. Taking into consideration the attendance at all the services, the afternoon and evening, it is said that the audiences doubled during the first week of the special effort. Next Sunday afternoon Mr. Lewtas will speak to men only.—Stayton Standard.

A Knockabout Hat For Just Plain Wear

This close turban is put up in finest straw, a navy blue, and high about the crown with the shining green ivy leaves lined with white kid. Three glossy blackberries appear in and out among the foliage, and altogether this is a smart, durable hat.

Krumbles

The New Whole Wheat Food with the Delicious Flavor originated by the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flake Co.

EVEN the confirmed sweet tooth of the family is likely to go light on the sugar when eating KRUMBLES. This new whole Wheat food has such a fine sweetness of its own that the more you chew it, the sweeter it tastes!

The wonderful thing about Krumbles is that this delicious flavor has been hiding in the wheat until the Krumbles method was discovered. In the WAXTITE package—10c. Look for this signature.

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

By Margaret Mason. (Written for the United Press.)

If you want to be a model man, 'Tis simple goodness knows, Just wear a lot of swaggy tops. And strut around and pose.

New York, May 12.—Yes 'tis true the worn will turn and this summer the silk worn has turned its efforts from the fair to the sterner sex. It is terribly busy spinning the wherewithal to clothe "me lord" in a stunning silk summer suit.

Last year the summer man seemed cool and content in Palm Beach suits of ordinary hempen weave, but this season he sniffs at anything short of silk.

Arrayed in Tussore or Pongee, he will lay siege to frail hearts and press his suit after it has been well tubbed. He will undoubtedly owe as much to his laundress as to his tailor for his success so far this season—gratitude. I mean of course, not monies, although perhaps it may be a little of both.

The Tussore and Pongee suits are tremendously attractive and also delightfully cool. Many of the best models show coats with pleated backs and half belts.

All the boys will vie with belted Earls nowadays, for the belted coat is quite the thing. Not only in the summer silk models but on coats of serge and light weight tweeds.

The belted coats of navy serge will be quite smart for country and outing wear with trousers of striped white flannel and will cause many a female heart to surge with admiration.

Primary Candidates in Polk County

The people of Polk county are, however, displaying more interest in the local offices to be filled, which is quite natural because of the fact that each candidate is known to them. Following is the complete list:

For joint representative—W. V. Fuller, of Polk county.
For representative, Eleventh district—W. J. Clark, of Independence; Mrs. Ella J. Metzger and Conrad Starfin, of Dallas. Mrs. Metzger's slogan is "faithful service and less promises," and that of Mr. Starfin is "economy and efficient service."
For district attorney—Benjamin E. Swope, of Independence, whose slogan is "fearless, impartial enforcement of the law, and protection of the home," and Walter L. Toose, Jr., of Dallas, with "just and conscientious law enforcement, with a square deal for all," as his slogan.

For sheriff—John W. Orr, the present incumbent, has no opposition.
For county clerk—H. Charles Dunsmore, of Independence; Fred L. Holman, of Dallas, and Levi V. Macken, of Month. Mr. Macken is the only candidate for this office who has a slogan.

San Francisco, May 13.—Alexander Smith failed to answer a summons for jury duty in Federal Judge Van Fleet's court but the marshal couldn't arrest him for contempt—because Smith died 20 years ago.
