Willamette Notes

Tomorrow's student body meeting will give occasion for those aspiring to become future legislators to express their budding ideas. The occasion will be the amendment of the student body constitution; two articles will be amended. Their import is as follows:

The first one provides for a prolonging of the time for balloting at student body elections, in order that the law students will be able to vote at present the polls close at 4 p. m., and many of the law students are unable to vote as their classes do not begin until 5 p. m. The second amendment will, if adopted, place the athletic coach in the position of manager of athletics, with power to purchase equipment, schedule games, etc. This will do away with the present system of student managers, which is becoming highly unsatisfactory.

Commencement now looms into a place of primary importance on the university horizon. The Kimball College of Theology graduation will be held May 28, or rather will begin then and end June 2. The list of events are as follows:

The College of Law graduates will be graduated with the College of Liberal Arts. There are five who will receive their degrees in the law school, next month. They are: Ray Grant, Millar McGilchrist, Arlie G. Walker, Paul R. Smith and Lester Sheehy.

Prof. Morton E. Peck will deliver a very interesting lecture Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the public library auditorium. His lecture is entitled, "Between Two Kingdoms." It is not, as the name suggests, a story based on the Heretic Alger or Henry books for boys style; but it is a treatise of forms of life that scientists are endeavoring to prove exist in one or the other kingdoms of life: animal or vegetable. Prof. Peck is deeply interested in this kind of work and the lecture will be on worth while hearing.

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney will deliver the commencement address at the Hood River high school Friday evening, May 19. He has a number of dates scheduled for the next two weeks to deliver commencement addresses, which proves that he has made a reputation as a public speaker, in the short time that he has been in the west.

The Willamette "Bear Cat" baseball nine will play the O. A. C. "Beavers" at Corvallis Friday afternoon. Several changes have been necessitated in the line-up due to the injury of Lloyd Skisler, one of the veterans of the team, in last Saturday's game at Mt. Angel; and by the vacancy caused by Dean Adams leaving school. The O. A. C. team walked off Willamette on Sweetland field some time since, and local fans are wondering what Friday's outcome will be with the amended line-up.

STANFORD CREW MAY NOT GO EAST THIS YEAR

Less Than Half the Funds Necessary Raised—Wolcast After Championship

Stanford University, Cal., May 18.—Stanford's varsity crew which defeated California on Oakland estuary a few weeks ago, probably will not go to Poughkeepsie this year to participate in the big eastern intercollegiate regatta. "This was the belief among the students here today when it was learned that less than half of the $2900 required for the trip had been collected. Inasmuch as the crew would have to leave here June 2 in order to reach Poughkeepsie in time to get some practice, it is feared that the required funds will not be raised. Coach Guereña is doing everything in his power to get the money needed to finance the trip, as he believes this year's crew is the greatest Stanford has ever turned out.

The Bouts at Portland
Portland, Or., May 18.—In the main event of a card of mixed ring events here last night Lee Johnson, the colored California boxer gained the decision over Joe Benjamin, of Spokane at 125 pounds.

In the semi-final Danay O'Brien, the Portland lightweight outpointed Ted Meredith, colored, of the U. S. S. South Dakota. Romeo Hagan and Frank Parslow, 158, fought six fast rounds, gaining the decision.

Abe Gordon, 105, knocked out Jimmy Lewis, in the third round of what was scheduled to be a six round event. A battle royal was a feature of the card.

Will Claim Championship
Salt Lake City, Utah, May 18.—Ad Wolcast is getting ready to claim the lightweight championship of the world, according to a statement today by Larry Richenstein, his manager. Ad knocked out young Gilbert, a local scrapper, in the sixth round last night without having to extend himself. Richenstein declares Champion Freddie Walsh has persistently refused to make the weight for a battle with Wolcast in Denver and that, therefore, Ad will claim the title.

BEN W. OLCOTT FOR SECRETARY OF STATE
(Gardner Courier.)
Ben W. Olcott is a candidate on the Republican ticket to succeed himself in the office of secretary of state, which he is so ably filling to the satisfaction of the majority of the people of the state of Oregon, and he should receive the nomination without any serious opposition from his party. Mr. Olcott has made one of the best secretaries of state that Oregon has ever had. He has conducted his office solely along the lines of business. Anyone at a distance could do business through his office as well as if he were present. This is of great interest to those who have been situated as the people of the Lower Umpqua have been in the past, saving unnecessary trips to Salem by those who may have had business with the secretary of state's office. He has proven himself always prompt and courteous in business affairs, working Washop and Chabek were jammed hard by the Beavers and Salt Lake last, 12 to 10. There were more than 30 hits, many assorted errors and much artistic cursing.

Frank Arellanes weakened in the seventh during a pitchers' battle with Bill Prough and the Oaks beat Vernon, 7 to 0.

Joe Berger started the pyrotechnics when he planted one in deep center for two runs — the longest bingle of the game.

San Francisco evened things up with the Angels when Jerry Downs contributed a bingle in the last of the ninth.

Two were in the grave when the winning came over, with Manager Chance and Manager Wolverton both exiting for their argumentative proclivities, watching the scene from afar off.

Harper got wild toward the finish of the Detroit-Washington game and the Senators made it four straight, 6 to 4.

The Giants were all speed on the bases and stole at will, beating St. Louis, 9 to 3.

Williams and Schalte homed in the third at Chicago and the Cubs beat Brooklyn, 7 to 2.

always to the interest of his constituents. We know of no one who is opposing him but politicians who have special axes to grind. Mr. Olcott is the right man in the right place and has proven himself such, and should receive one of the largest votes of any candidate who will come before the people at the primaries on the 19th day of May.
