

Salem Grange Held Session Saturday

Salem grange met in regular session Saturday, May 20, with the Worthy Master in the chair. After the regular routine of business, two new members were given the third and fourth degrees. A recess was then declared and the grangers proceeded to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served by the ladies. The afternoon session was taken up in discussion of different subjects among which was the injustice the city council would do the farmer if they enforced the old ordinance of not leaving a team or auto in front of a store for not more than 10 minutes without consent of the owners of the property. They thought it would encourage the farmer to patronize mill order houses a good deal more than they do now.

Mother's day was fittingly commemorated. At the next meeting the ladies and gentlemen on the committee for refreshments will serve a chicken dinner. The ladies are tired of preparing the dinner alone so will expect every man to do his part in preparing and serving dinner, be he lawyer, school teacher or farmer; and if they don't do their part it is just possible they may be fined anywhere from 25 cents to $1 so the gentlemen will have to get busy.

A feeling of sadness surrounded the meeting on account of the death, since our last meeting of Sister Howell. She was a faithful and helpful member of the grange, never missing a meeting when it was possible for her to attend and always cheerfully performing duties which a good member should. She leaves a vacant place which will be hard indeed to fill.

Brother Voorhies, Woodburn grange, met with us. The next meeting will be held on the third Saturday in June.

Minister Objects to Religion In Politics

Portland, Ore., May 22.—"Religion and politics don't mix," asserted Rev. J. H. Boyd, Presbyterian minister, today. He referred to the injection of religion into last Friday's primary election.

Dr. Boyd yesterday preached a sermon principally on the results of the election, in which 17 out of 20 A. P. A. or anti-Catholic candidates in Multnomah county were elected.

"Now our hands are dripping with the nastiness that has been uncovered and our whole civil and political life is blackened by this creed of suspicion and distrust," he said.

Alaska Pictures at Bligh Theatre

The land of the midnight sun, where is found the most beautiful scenery in the world to be shown here Monday, May 22, at the Bligh theatre in 7,000 feet of film. This film was taken by Dr. Leonard S. Sugden, a big-game hunter, miner and explorer.

Dr. Sugden spent seventeen years in Alaska, and probably knows more about our northern empire than any other living man. This wonderful picture is full of thrills from start to finish, showing the White Horse rapids, scenes from the inside passage, a school of sperm whales, a band of caribou swimming the Yukon, and the midnight sun, a few of the wonderful scenes. This picture is accompanied by the "Olson Concert Orchestra" of seven pieces, five brothers and two sisters, all of one family, the best family orchestra on the Pacific coast. This combined show is one that pleases the most critical audience and is looked on by Manager Bligh as the one of the year.

Governor Sets Aside May 26 As "Bird Day"

Governor Withycombe has issued a proclamation setting aside May 26 as "Bird Day" for the boys and girls of this state to promote greater interest in the feathered citizens of this state.

The proclamation in full follows: Whereas, I have been petitioned by a large number of school children of Oregon to set aside a day which shall be known as "Bird Day," wherein the study of bird life and the appreciation of our bird neighbors shall be given special attention, and Whereas, the designation of such a day in other states has given a real impetus to healthy educational work in this field, Now, Therefore, I do hereby set aside and proclaim Friday, May 26, as "Oregon Bird Day," and I urge that each boy and girl in Oregon on that day tries to become better acquainted with the bird life of the state and if possible to do something towards promoting interest in the activities of our feathered friends; and I suggest that parents and teachers endeavor to include in the daily program, whether it be at home or in the school, some fitting instruction regarding the value of birds to any community, and of the pleasures and profits which study of bird life will bring.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state of Oregon to be hereunto affixed this twentieth day of May, 1916.

JAMES WITHEYCOMBE, Governor of Oregon.

Much Comedy Lightens "The Flying Torpedo"

There is clever character acting in the Triangle-Fine Arts play, "The Flying Torpedo." It will make its appearance at the Oregon theatre next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. John Emerson, who stars in the play, lightens the serious parts of the production by little eccentricities of manner. His role is that of an author of detective stories, who falls a band of international crooks in their attempts to steal an invention of the utmost value to this nation in an hour of peril from foreign invasion. Emerson breaks into the most serious business before the experts of the nation with his calisthenics, because the hour strikes when he is accustomed to exercise. Their astonishment is changed to laughter, when he explains his violent gestures as simply being employed to clear the cobwebs from his brain.

SIX INCHES SNOW AT MEACHAM

Pendleton, Ore., May 22.—A six-inch blanket of snow lay on the ground at Meacham, in the Blue mountains today and snow was still falling at noon. Little damage will result, it is believed, for the storm struck only the mountainous country.

BLIGH THEATRE

May Robson In a Play of Laughs and Love

That popular actress, May Robson, in a new vehicle of laughs and tears, "The Making Over of Mrs. Matt," is to be the attraction at the Grand tomorrow evening. The play is said to be clever, and to cause wet eyes as well as aching sides, to possess wholesome stage artistry and to give to its beloved stage favorite opportunities that will help more thoroughly to endear her as the conceiver of the pure, the clean and the wholesome, as well as the winsome and happy philosophic stage creation. Much might be said of Miss Robson and her art; suffice that she, in this new play, will appeal to theatregoers of all ages and various tastes. That she, in the stellar role, will possess opportunities to create laughter and pathos, thoroughly blending these two opposites possessing as she does the happy faculty of always throwing laughter into the foreground. Miss Robson, as all the playgoers know, is a comedienne of rare ability who makes all her roles lovable, outspoken, generous and kind-hearted, and whose personality exudes optimism, common sense, clever satire and a rare wit which she knows so well to interject into all her stage creations, with the result that she now ranks head and shoulders above all comers. A complete production is promised.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Cheese Balls—To two packages of Neufchatel cheese add half teaspoon onion juice and two tablespoons lemon juice. Add dash of ground tobacco if desired. Mold into small balls with butter paddles and serve with lettuce as salad.

Cheese Fondue—Take two tablespoons melted butter, add four tablespoons flour, mix until smooth, add one cup milk or cream, cook until thick. Take from fire, add yolks of three eggs, six tablespoons grated cheese, salt and pepper. Beat whites of eggs stiff and add to other ingredients, then turn into greased dish. Bake twenty minutes in hot oven. Serve at once.

Tonated Cheese—Take slices of bread cut three-fourths inch thick and fresh cheese cut in thin slices and laid on the bread. Place on inverted dripping pan, put in moderately hot oven and watch closely for a few minutes, or until the cheese melts, then spread evenly. Eat hot with a little salt, butter or mustard, as preferred.

The Table. Fried Oysters—Select large oysters. Roll in fine cracker crumbs, put into shape, dip in beaten egg, roll again in cracker crumbs and fry on both sides in deep fat (smoking hot), as you would doughnuts. Do not use butter for frying, as it burns too quickly and makes oysters soggy.

Baked Pork Chops—Six good-sized pork chops, one and one-half cups sliced onions, one cup water, two teaspoons salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one pint canned tomatoes. Flour chops and fry them till slightly browned. Cover with the sliced onion, pour over the water, put on lid and simmer half an hour. Add tomatoes and bake thirty minutes more in moderate oven.

Creamed Cabbage—Shred a small head of cabbage very fine, cook twenty minutes in salt water, adding a pinch of soda, then drain and add half cup sweet milk and two small slices of bacon. Let simmer about fifteen minutes.

Date Pudding—Soak one-half cup pearl tapioca in one pint cold water over night. In the morning add one-half cup sugar and one-half pound dates cut in small pieces, and a pinch of salt. Cook two hours in double boiler. Flavor with vanilla. Serve cold with whipped cream.

Lemon Crackers—One pint sweet milk, one cup lard, 2 1/2 cups granulated sugar, whites of two eggs, pinch of salt, lemon extract to flavor, half of five cents' worth of baking ammonia. Use flour enough to mix stiff dough. Cut in squares.

Easy Ways for the Housewife. After cleaning windows, when they are dry, rub them with a cloth slightly moistened with glycerine and they will not sweat.

Mica windows in stoves can be cleaned by soaking in a strong solution of vinegar and water, then rubbing with a soft flannel.

Grease spots can be taken from wall paper by mixing pipe clay or powdered chalk with water, to a paste, spreading it on the spot. Leave till the next day, then brush off and grease goes with it. Cover a sugar barrel with creosote or Jenin, cover the top also, and attach a

A small acreage at Brooks and enough at Parkersville to make 25 acres will be the entire acreage for this year. Mrs. G. J. Moisan, Mrs. Sumner Steves and Mrs. Marion Henning jointly entertained at 500 in the Masonic hall Wednesday night. There were eight tables of jolly players who did their best to win honors. Miss Anna Casquette won ladies' first prize, and Mrs. Joe Nathan the consolation. Miss Minnie Nihler (taking the place of a gentleman) won first prize for a gentleman and Mr. Marion Henning won the consolation. The Gervais ball team scored another victory Sunday when they defeated Silverton by a score of 13 to 4. The weather was ideal and quite a crowd witnessed the game. Both teams played a slow game but warmed up some before the game was finished. The batteries

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove it

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after-effects. All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

ROSSE FLAX MACHINERY WILL GO TO EUGENE

The machinery to be used in the preparation of flax in this county, will arrive in this city about May 27, according to Eugene Rosse, flax expert, who left yesterday to attend to the shipment of the machinery from Salem to Eugene.

The machinery to be used here belongs to Mr. Rosse and is now stored in a building formerly operated as a flax mill at Salem. Late on Thursday afternoon, when the first reports were received in this city of the fire at Salem, in a flax mill, Mr. Rosse believed it to be his establishment.

An attempt was made to get an authentic verification as to which flax mill was burning, but it was not until late in the evening that Mr. Rosse was assured it was not his factory which was ablaze.

So great was his anxiety while waiting that he decided today to move the machinery to this city and take no further chances. He says 10 years ago he lost approximately $50,000 in a fire at his mill in Salem, and he is now taking every precaution not to have this experience repeated.

Mr. Rosse plans on storing the machinery after its arrival in the freight depot pending the completion of the buildings at the site of the Eugene Lumber company. As soon as these buildings are erected the machinery will be installed.—Eugene Guard.

JIM LARKIN'S "CITIZEN SOLDIERY" INVOLVED IN IRISH REVOLT

LARKIN ON SHOULDERS OF HIS FOLLOWERS.

Just how deep Jim Larkin, the turbulent Irish labor leader, and his followers are involved in the Irish revolt is not known, but it is not to be doubted that the man who preached fiery opposition to the government in 1913 will take advantage of the disturbances in Ireland. It is said that members of "Larkin's" citizen soldiery" seized the Dublin postoffice and other points and Liberty hall, in Dublin, also occupied by the insurgents, has been the headquarters of Larkin's followers. In 1914 it was ascertained that Larkin had stored arms and ammunition in Liberty hall. The photograph shows Larkin carried on the shoulders of some of his enthusiastic men.
