HISTORIC ORDER IS READ TO G. A. R.

Copy of Document Creating Memorial Day Received by Veterans

A copy of the original order which created Memorial day, forty-eight years ago, has been received by D. Webster, adjutant of Sedgwick post, and has been read before the post. The order was issued in Washington, D. C., May 5, 1868, and is signed by John A. Logan, commander in chief of the first organization of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The order contains the hope that the day will be observed from year to year while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of his departed comrades.

The order in full follows:
Washington, D. C., May 5, 1868.
General Order No. 11.

1. The 30th day of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of decorating the graves of the comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and those bodies now lie in almost every city, village and hamlet church yard in the land. In observance no form or ceremony is prescribed, but posts and comrades will in their own way arrange such fitting services and testimonials as respect as circumstances may permit.

We are organized, comrades, as our regulations tell us, for the purpose, among other things, "of preserving and strengthening those kind and fraternal feelings which have bonded together the soldiers, sailors and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion." What can aid more to assure this result than by cherishing tenderly the memory of our heroic dead, who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foe? Their soldier lives were the revivification of freedom, a race in chains and their dead a tattoo of rebellious tyranny in arms. We should guard their graves with sacred vigilance. All that the consecrated wealth and taste of the nation can add to their adornment and security is but a fitting tribute to the memory of their slain defenders. Let no wanton foot tread lightly on such hallowed grounds. Let pleasant paths invite the coming and going of reverent visitors and fond mourners. Let no vandalism of avarice or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or to the coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic.

If other eyes grow dull and other hands slack, and other hearts cold in the solemn trust, ours shall keep it as long as the light and warmth of life remains to us.

Let us, then, at the time appointed, gather round their sacred remains and guard the passions of the crowd above them with the choicest flowers of spring time; let us raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor; let us in this solemn presence renew our pledges to aid and assist those whom they have left among us a sacred charge upon the nation's gratitude—the soldier's and sailor's widow and orphan.

It is the purpose of the commander in chief to inaugurate this observance with the hope that it will be kept from year to year, while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of his departed comrades. He earnestly desires the public press to call attention to this order, and lend its friendly aid in bringing it to the notice of comrades in all parts of the country in time for simultaneous compliance therewith.

3. Department commanders will use every effort to make this order effective.

By command of
—John A. Logan,
Commander-in-Chief.
—N. P. Chipman,
Adjutant General.

National Convention of Gypsies in Chicago

Oswego, Or., May 23.—Two hundred gypsies with automobiles, who had camped here, moved away suddenly today in response to an order from Sheriff Wilson.

When the sheriff drove up to the camp in an automobile and told the "king" they must move, the king changed the subject by offering to buy the sheriff's automobile.

The gypsies are going to Chicago for a national convention. Those in automobiles will go by way of Seattle. The ones who can afford only wagons are going east along the Columbia river.

Land Grant Bill Passed House Today

Washington, May 25.—The Oregon-Columbia land bill passed the house today by a vote of 186 to 6. Representative Foster's amendment providing that counties in Oregon receive 20 per cent of the proceeds from the sale of lands instead of 30 per cent was defeated 167 to 12.

Representative Johnson, of Washington, opposed the measure to the last, declaring its only result would be more litigation and confusion and in the end the timber land reversion would be placed in a national reserve, further hampering development of the state of Oregon.

KAIN WANTS TO KNOW

Washington, May 25.—Representative Kain sought a ruling from Secretary of War Baker today as to whether federal employes in coast cities could have a 30 day leave of absence without prejudicing their positions in order to participate in civilian military training camps at Monterey and American Lake. The ruling will be made later.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

The University of Washington tennis team arrived this morning to play the Willamettes this afternoon on the cement courts. The University of Washington team has as one of its members a Japanese, who is considered a phenom with the racquet, opposed to him in the singles this afternoon will appear Willamette's diminutive giant, Howard Jewett, who is likewise an artist with the tennis club. The match promises to be a fast one in both singles and doubles and all who are interested in seeing a professional tennis game may do so by going to the Willamette courts this afternoon. The match will begin at 3:30.

Dr. Dooney in his chapel address this morning read some very interesting statistics, compiled from a study of 10 senior classes in Harvard university during the years 1850 to '60 by a statistician. The figures show that out of the 900 graduates, the 100 ranking highest in their studies while in college and generally considered as "grinds," were the ones who had achieved greatest success in their life work. Those men became later state and national figures; of the others there seems to have been few who achieved greatness. This, said Dr. Dooney, shows that the man or woman who applies him or herself while in college has a far better chance for success than the sluggard. He also quoted from George Harvey, the eminent editor and writer, who recently said that the great universities by virtue of what they are, with their vast outside interests, are failing to produce leaders and that the public must look forward to the small colleges for their future leaders.

The Y. W. C. A. program for this afternoon will be taken charge of by the seniors, with Miss Mabel St. Pierre as leader. The program has been entitled "Leaving the Nest, Our Alma Mater," and is as follows: "The Snow Bird," Miss Gitting; vocal solo, Miss Hosie; selection, senior trio, Misses Evelyn Winters, Hazel, dedication, Misses L. Ross, Ohling, Lenstein, Gleiser and Wastell; ideals of the nest, Miss Avisson; What the nest has meant, Miss Holt; Advice to young birds, Miss Ada Ross.

The senior class is to have charge of the chapel exercises tomorrow, this being the last one for the school year. A farewell address will perhaps be given by the president of the class.

Next week examinations and then, the end.

BIG FIRE AT SEATTLE

Tacoma, Wash., May 25.—The pattern plant of the Puget Sound Iron and Steel Works on the tide flats here were totally destroyed by fire today with a loss estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000. The main steel plant was saved. The origin of the fire is unknown, and the police have been requested to make an investigation. Several months ago, officials say, the company was asked to participate in the manufacture of munitions for European powers. However, no munitions were being manufactured, it was said.

THE DOG A THOROUGHBERED

Oakland, Cal., May 25.—There's no argument about it. Charley Johnson's dog is a thoroughbred whether it is or not. Charley proved it.

Herman Walkenbuser had his doubts about Charley's pet dog. He expressed them and an argument ensued. It was an ill chosen argument for Herman. Charley went to the defense of his dog's reputation with both fists. And when the police arrived and Herman lay in the dust they heard Charley ask:

"It's a thoroughbred, ain't it?"

Herman admitted that it was.

TWO BRITISH CRUISERS OFF CALIFORNIA COAST

San Francisco, May 25.—Two British cruisers are off the California coast near Eureka today according to the captain of the Norwegian collier Thor. When steaming southward from Nainimo, B. C., he says he sighted the vessels off Point Gordon. They appeared to be proceeding leisurely, evidently waiting to intercept some vessel.

MADE QUICK FLIGHT

New York, May 25.—Victor Capleton today flew in an aeroplane from New York to Washington with Alan Hawley, president of the Aero Club of America, as a passenger. He made the 225 miles in 157 minutes. After calling at the White House, he returned on a train.

CIRCUS PARADE WAS "GREATEST EVER"

City Filled With Visitors Bringing the Kiddies To See the Animals

The John Robinson Ten Big Shows arrived in Salem this morning over the Southern Pacific railroad. It was evidently a most welcome visitor for there was a big crowd gathered to see one of the most interesting features of every big circus—its unloading from the cars. There was a small army of children, and of course older folks who had to go along to look after them, although they all grinned as happily as the youngsters.

The machine like methods used by the circus men soon had the great caverns on the way to the show grounds at Fourteenth and D streets. As it moved away, it was followed by old and young, who desired to be present to see the erection of the big tent and the smaller ones that shelter the performers and house the side shows.

The big parade left the show grounds on schedule time.

Bands played, calliope tooted, clowns abounded, lions roared, horses pranced and the great crowd that lined the curbing and filled office windows entered into the spirit of the circus day. Every one was satisfied for the parade was the best that has been seen in Salem for years.

The big elephants caused much badinage, many of the big fellows being picked out as Teddy, Cummins and others of the other big herd soon to gather in Chicago.

The tents are up at the end of Fourteenth street, the old high school stadium and are reached by the Chemeketa street car line. Get off at Fourteenth and see the biggest circus that ever visited Salem, that is judging by its parade.

HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH AFTER THIS TREATMENT

Science has aided in simplifying the banishing of hairy growth from the face, and according to a beauty specialist, the most effective treatment yet devised consists of applying a delatone paste to the hair surface for 2 or 3 minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. When this paste is removed and the skin washed every trace of hair is vanished. Be sure to get real delatone.

CHAUNCEY STILL TALKING

Seattle, Wash., May 25.—Former Senator Chauncey Depew will give an after dinner speech over long distance telephone from New York City to members of the Seattle chamber of commerce and their wives, in Seattle, Wednesday night, next week. Theodore Karle Johnston, Seattle's home grown grand opera tenor, now in New York, will also sing for the folks at home. Individual telephone receivers will be installed at each plate.

TABLOIDS

Oakland, Cal.—Bee stings cure rheumatism says W. S. Halliwell, of Kansas City, stopping here, so he carries a box of pet wasps who obligingly sting him daily.

Santa Rosa, Cal.—Frankie with grief at his wife's sudden death by poison, Al Bruce, comedian of a musical show, played his part as usual, then collapsed.

San Francisco.—When the Royal Insurance company hoisted a British flag over its building on Empire day, the German consulate, located in the same structure, hoisted a German banner and the two flew side by side all day.

Oregon Banks Show Increase In Deposits

Financial conditions in Oregon as reflected by the banks of the state in their statements to S. G. Sargent, superintendent of banks, show a startling change for the better, according to Mr. Sargent, who issued a combined statement today of their condition at the close of business May 1.

As compared with a year ago, the deposits of the 177 state banks and 84 national banks in Oregon have increased $12,003,421.41. That more prosperous times, however, have come to Oregon industries within the last few months is indicated by figures which show that in the 51 days intervening between March 7 last and May 1, the date of the last call, deposits have gained $6,185,447.42, or almost half the total increase during the entire 12 months prior to May 1.

Although there is no sure index to the reason for the sudden gain in deposits recently, the increase is ascribed generally to the opening up of Oregon's lumber industry, which, until this spring, has been in a quiescent condition.

The statement issued today places the total resources of Oregon's state and national banks at $171,101,082.10.

Gets Life Sentence for Helping Kill Husband

San Andreas, Cal., May 25.—Mrs. George Schwarzer started for San Quentin today to serve a life sentence for helping Joe Silva, a ranch laborer, murder her husband, by whom he was employed. Silva was convicted and given a life term.

As judgment was pronounced, the woman leaped up in court and declared that she also was guilty. Proceedings in her case were rushed and she was given a similar sentence. Schwarzer was slain as he slept.

To Make United States Great Naval Power

Washington, May 25.—Minority members of the house naval committee today submitted to congress a report that would, if acted upon, make the United States sea power second only to that of Great Britain.

The report branded the program of majority members as inadequate. The minority recommended two dreadnaughts, six battle cruisers, fifty submarines and an increase in auxiliary vessels. It provided for an approximate increase of 28,000 seamen, and set aside $5,500,000 for aviation.

Today's Beauty Talks

You can make a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost, if you get from your druggist a package of cantrox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and rub briskly. This creates an abundance of thick, white lather that thoroughly dissolves and removes the dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly, with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.
