PREDICTS CORNELL WILL WIN THE MEET

Captain of Stanford Team As Prophet—Coast Has But Small Representation

Cambridge, Mass., May 26.—Two handfuls of men from the Pacific coast, one group wearing the Cardinal of Stanford, the other the Blue and Gold of California, represented the far west today in the annual track and field meet of the Inter-Collegiate Amateur Athletic association.

Opposed to the westerners were small armies of sprinters, runners, jumpers and weight men from every big college and university in the east. As far as numerical strength went, Stanford and California were hopelessly outclassed. But every man they brought to the Atlantic seaboard is among the best in his event, so the invaders expected to figure largely in the final tallies.

Captain "Feg" Murray, of Stanford, predicted that Cornell would win the meet, and that Stanford would be well up. Sunshiny weather greeted the athletes when they trotted on the field for the preliminaries today. On the program were trial heats in the hundred yard dash, two 20 yard dashes, high hurdles, low hurdles, quarter mile, half mile, qualifying jumps in the pole vault and trial heaves in the weights.

Six of the men competing have lowered world's records. Ten are regarded as capable of establishing new marks. The trials will reduce the fields to 12 men in each of the dashes, 10 men in the quarter, the half and the two hurdle races.

Six are to qualify in each field event. On the eve of the big affair all the coast athletes were announced in excellent shape.

White Made Easy Money. Cincinnati, Ohio, May 26.—Charley White made a little easy money last night when he knocked out Milburn Saylor, of Indianapolis, in the first minute of fighting of a scheduled 10-round bout. Before Saylor had a chance to land a single blow, White put him down and when he arose, groggy, put him down again for the count.

Only Betless Racing. Chicago, May 26.—Only betless racing will be permitted if the owners of Hawthorne track decide to attempt to revive the game here this summer. This was the announcement today by Sheriff Trenger when the promoters of the proposed meeting consulted him regarding the legality of their plans. He said no gambling of any character would be permitted. The meeting is scheduled for July.

Featherweights Tonight. Portland, Ore., May 26.—Lee Johnson, of Oakland, and Billy Maccott, featherweights, are the headliners on tonight's boxing card at the Rose City Athletic club. Al Sommers and Romeo Hagen, Joekey Bennett and Joe Gorman will furnish other six round bouts.

Farewell Reception to Turner Teacher

(Capital Journal Special Service)
 Turner, Or., May 26.—One of the most enjoyable events that has taken place in Turner for many months was the farewell reception given in honor of Mrs. F. W. Hall, by her many friends at the beautiful new home of Mrs. R. O. Thomas, Wednesday, May 24th. The spacious rooms were tastefully arranged and decorated with roses in accordance with the color scheme of each room.
 A short program was rendered consisting of: Quartet, Mrs. G. A. Massey, Mrs. F. W. Hall, Mrs. W. H. Small and Mrs. H. Albert Thiessen; recitation, Miss Eldrid Wald; solo, Mrs. G. A. Massey; reading, Mrs. H. L. Earl; solo, Mrs. Geo. Moore; recitation, Phyllis Wald; duet, Eleanor and Dorothy Moore; solo, Mrs. W. H. Small; solo, Ailsie Massey; solo, Mrs. T. W. Hall.
 At the conclusion of which all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne, and Best be the Tie that Binds."
 Mrs. Geo. Bicknell with a few well chosen words then presented the guest of honor with an electric four heat grill, the gift of her many friends who wished to show their appreciation of the Hall family.
 Mr. and Mrs. Hall have been very active in church and social work and are leaving a host of friends in and about Turner who sincerely regret their leaving our midst.
 Mr. Hall who has been employed by the Portland Pure Milk and Cream Co. at this place for the past several years has accepted a higher position with the same company in Portland. The hostess assisted by a few friends served delicious refreshments to the following guests: Mrs. E. W. Hall, Muriel and Ronald Hall, Mrs. H. L. Earl, Mrs. Earl R. Gribble, Mrs. Nellie I. Gunning, Mrs. Lenora Mickey, Mrs. Carrie Larson, Mrs. Emma Osborn, Mrs. Hettie Lyle, Mrs. L. M. Small, Mrs. W. Steel, Mrs. Geo. E. Bicknell, Mrs. Anna B. Gunning, Mrs. Bette G. ## Will Build Another Ship Yard at Vancouver

Vancouver, Wash., May 26.—Arrangements were completed today by a group of California capitalists for a shipyard to be built immediately in Vancouver. The company is named the Motor Ship Construction company. Articles of incorporation were filed in Olympia yesterday.
 The company already has contracts for four auxiliary powered schooners to be built at a total cost of $550,000 and options for three more vessels of the same type are held.
 The incorporators are: Merrill A. Reed, S. S. Hewitt and D. C. Zimmerman. Eason B. Schock of New York will be supervising engineer of the plant. The four vessels contracted for will be delivered in eight or ten months.

Matters Baby Case Suggests Solomon's Way

Chicago, May 26.—Further delay in the matter of deciding just who owns the famous "Matters baby" was sought today in Judge Landis' court by Mrs. Dollie Matters, who claims the infant as her own. Her attorney said the baby was ill and that he had not time yet to perfect his appeal for it.
 Margaret Ryan, who also claims the child, expressed gladness at the acquittal of Mrs. Matters in her trial on a charge of stealing it. She said she did not want Mrs. Matters to go to jail.
 Judge Landis granted a delay in proceedings until Wednesday. When this decision was announced Margaret Ryan faintly in the court room, screaming: "I want my baby!"

CLOTHES INTERESTING SUBJECT

New York, May 26.—Clothes, children, food and again clothes were discussed today by prominent club women from all over the United States assembled here for the convention of the National Federation of Womens clubs.
 Lady Duff Gordon, Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, Mrs. Genevieve Clark Thompson and others talked, but those who spoke of clothes got the bulk of the crowd.

Fruitland News

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
 Fruitland, Ore., May 25.—Mrs. H. C. Brouder and Mrs. Nina Brouder went to Portland Friday, the 19th, to attend the trial as witnesses of Stumam vs. Wood. They returned Tuesday. This is the second trial of this case.
 Some of the neighbors are losing some of their fruit trees this spring by reason of the bark drying up and killing the trees. It does not seem to be anthracnose, but the body of the tree and not the limbs is affected. Some think it is due to freezing last January.
 The basket ball boys have moved the goals from the school grounds and placed them in the door yard of the McFarlane place now occupied by M. M. Bannom.
 The primary election suits Fruitland well enough as about every one we voted for was nominated. We did not mix our religion with politics as did Portland, as we have none to spare. By the way the A. P. A.'s seemed to have "mixed it" according to the newspaper reports. But it must be stated if certain sectarian Zealots had not mixed religion and politics years ago there would have been no A. P. A.'s.
 Ted Montgomery is hauling lumber for J. E. Nichols' new dairy barn.
 Three hunters are now making daily deliveries of milk to the new garden road cheese factory, two two-horse teams and one auto truck.
 Francis Schrank, the Aunsville merchant, made a trip here this week.
 C. M. Robinson is moving some out buildings preparatory to erecting a fine dwelling house.
 There will be a party Saturday night at Mr. Bond's.
 Mr. Coulson is putting out his young apple orchard.
 The school board has hired Mr. H. C. Todd, of Hubbard, to teach the ensuing term.

America's Greatest Juvenile Entertainers at The Bligh Theatre Today and Tomorrow

MAYBE IT'S A BURGLAR

I WANTA BILLY GOAT.

LITTLE MISS LEWIS AND "BILLY" LEWIS OF THE FOUR LEWISES.

J. F. Lewis, Jr., & Co. headlines a bill of vaudeville that tops anything of its kind that has ever been offered to a theatre audience in Salem. Just as there are artists and artists, so there are artistic and artists, so are there child artists and child artists, but little J. C. Jr., who is but 6 years old is in a class all by himself. This little star is assisted by his two little sisters, and mother and father offering a little play of their own, entitled Christmas eve. Abbott and Rozzella present a very clever act, different from the ordinary in the way of midget entertainers, an act filled full of laughs. Manager Bligh announces this great show for today and tomorrow as the best he has had in the Bligh Theatre for some time.
