Chicago Duplicates New York Preparedness Parade

Chicago, Juse & A preparedness demonstration equal to New York's gripped Chicago today. It was the pretude to a series of big events which threw this city in the world's spotlight of news, for the next ten days. Nearly a quarter of a million Chicago has thickened slightly, add 1.2 tea- men, women and children, it is estimat-spoon vanilla and the prepared fruits eed, marched today in a parade to arouse the nation to preparedness. Sober minded men and women—bankers, politicians, society women, clerks, shop girls-from all walks of life who want peace but not "at any price" march-ed. There were 50,000 marchers from the United Young Men's clubs alone. One feature of the parade was the suffragist section. Another was the motorcycle section, in which several thousand motorcyclists rode their mu-thines. One hundred and eighty union chauffeurs offered their cars without charge to anyone desiring to take part in the parade. The steel mills in South Chi-
