

Nothing To Be Added To The Maxwell

YOU will never want to add anything to your Maxwell.

The purchase price includes everything you will ever need or desire for luxurious motoring.

You won't want to disguise the hood or buy a new body or put in another carburetor or ignition system or install electric lights or a self-starter.

You won't want a new radiator or springs or new spark plugs or shock-absorbers or a new top.

You need add nothing for comfort, reliability, beauty, economy or convenience. If it is a Maxwell, your car, your experience and your investment are complete.

That is the way that Maxwells are designed, manufactured and sold.

Question the owners of other motor cars—any other motor cars—and see if they are equally satisfied with their motoring investment.

BABY BEAVERS WIN GAME FROM LOJUS BY 4 TO 5 SCORE

Wilson Hits Out Two Homers and a Single and Pulls Off Double Play

Salem lost to the Baby Beavers yesterday by a 5 to 4 score when a ninth inning rally flashed in the pan though the locals had three men on bases and one down when Wilson came to the bat. Wilson had hammered out two home runs and one single up to this time, however, and could hardly be expected to repeat. Cole was wild and wobbly but held the Beavers to seven hits while the Salem hitters collected eight safeties.

The fracas started with the first inning when Casey walked and took second on a balk and scored when Mickel failed to pick up Eagle's single. Lind doubled and Engle scored and McKern walked, Druhot hit to Wilson who knocked it down but failed to get Druhot at first. Cole then massaged Brant's slats with an inshoot and McKern walked home. Three hits and three runs.

Wilson came up in the Senator's frame and bounded one into the creek for a round trip. In the third the Beavers added two more runs when Druhot singled and McBride hit a hot one to Wilson who chased Druhot back to second but Cully slid safe. Jones committed an error and the bases were full with Casey at the bat. Casey singled and Druhot and McBride crossed the plate.

The Salem fans who wagered a few jitneys on the outcome began to think, in the sixth inning, that they would collect perhaps 80 cents on the dollar when Humphreys hit safely and Semour attempted to sacrifice but the Beavers refused his generous offer, then Wilson splashed one into the brook and the joy was unconfined for a few minutes. Adams followed with a single and then Zwiefel, the Beaver Hinger, felt himself slipping and was retired in favor of Brant, but Hanser, Mickel and Miller fanned after Jones had reached first by being hit by a pitched ball.

The ninth inning rally was started with one down when Cole singled and Humphreys duplicated. Semour drew four wide ones but Cole was forced out at the plate when Wilson's infield grounder was fielded to the plate and Adams was an easy out.

Yesterday's Results

At Los Angeles—Portland 4-4, Los Angeles 1-0.
At San Francisco—Oakland 14, San Francisco 6-3 (first game 18 innings), second game 10 innings.
At Salt Lake—Vernon 9, Salt Lake 7.
Los Angeles tripped over a couple of Portland pitchers and the Sabbath was featured by twin defeats for the Angles.
Rip Hagerman displayed a flowy line of goods in the opener and cased the Scorpas down with four mealy hits.
The afternoon discovered Mr. Southoron on the hillock, distributing drops, curves and slow teasers around the home plate. Eight Angles fanned and only three hit safely.

Joy, joy, joy in Oakland.

The Oaks won two games from San Francisco. Sound the cymbals. Strike up the band!

Eighteen innings the two teams struggled in the morning, until Klavitter drove a boulder to left that scored Davis, who had walked, breaking the nothing to nothing ice.

It took ten innings for Oakland to turn the trick in the afternoon, but the Seal rallies availed naught when Doc Cook doubled and Kenworthy drove a hot one to Ping Bolle's territory bringing the physician home.

Detroit made every hit count against the Senators. They made four of them Veach got two.

The Indians counted their second straight from the Red Sox and now have a two game lead on the Yanks.

It was a bad day for the seekers. Hobbittzel of the Red Sox and Gandill of the Indians were forced to quit when the former was spiked and the latter hit in the head with a pitched ball.

The Browns bunched four hits in one inning for three runs and beat the Athletics. Pitcher Koob of the Browns quit in the first when he became ill.

The White Sox were extremely batty. They walloped the Yank hulkers for 16

GERMAN-AMERICANS OBJECT TO ROOSEVELT

Penrose Heaves From Pennsylvania Germans, and May Drop the Colonel

By Perry Arnold
(United Press staff correspondent)
Chicago, June 5.—German-Americans took an active and in the pre-convention fight against Theodore Roosevelt Saturday.

Some of the "big three, Penrose, Barnes and Crane, were bombarded with telegrams asking them to present at all costs the nomination of the colonel by the republican convention.

Senator Penrose, it was reported, had heard from the Pennsylvania Germans today. There had been persistent rumors that Penrose, while perhaps not ready to lend his active support to Roosevelt, would at least not fight against him.

Favorite sons hoped against hope today that the Roosevelt-Hughes situation would develop a deadlock which would furnish an opportunity for a compromise.

The bulk of the delegates will not arrive here until early next week, but those on hand today were frank in their statements that, so far, Roosevelt apparently has the best of the bargain.

Among arrivals today was former Governor Franklin Murphy of New Jersey. Murphy, formerly a foe of Colonel Roosevelt, was said by some politicians to be "on the fence" regarding Roosevelt now.
