While the people of Salem have been registering mild opposition to the unusually rainy weather and especially during the month of March when the rain fell was so thick a letter from W. O. Rankin at Prince Albert Saskatchewan, tells of a country where it really rains. The letter in part says: "One often hears the remark about the rains in Oregon, but here from May 20 to June 1 it rained heavy every day and night, excepting two nights. With-in that period, the rainfall was over four inches. On the night of June 1 we had a heavy white frost, melting the kibosh on the gardens. Oregon is good enough for me when I get through here."

In response to the efforts being made by the Salem Commercial club to secure the building of a suitable passenger depot at the Southern Pacific station, and the resolutions passed to the effect that the present building was rather a disgrace to the city, the following letter was received by president W. On behalf of our company, I will express their appreciation of the patience displayed by your citizens, based on the financial conditions which govern improvements of such character. I am forwarding your communication to our executives with the hope that our finances will justify meeting your wishes. I also wish to express my thanks to your committee for the proffered assistance that may be necessary in connection with such development."

DIRECT PRIMARY LAW TO BE TESTED OUT IN SUPREME COURT

Wilson T. Hume Launches Inquiry Into Constitutionality of Law

An effort to test the constitutionality of the direct primary law in this state was launched this morning by Wilson T. Hume, a prominent Portland attorney. Formal demand was made upon Governor Withycombe to refuse to grant certificates of nomination to Gus C. Moser, A. W. Orton, Conrad P. Olson, S. B. Huston and R. S. Farrell for the republican nomination for representatives from Multnomah county. Governor Withycombe, of course, will refuse to comply with the demand and a writ of mandamus will be applied for in the supreme court. The direct primary law in Oregon will hang in the balance when the argument on the writ is made before the supreme court.

Governor Withycombe is at present out of the city and his refusal to comply with the demand will be forwarded to H. M. Patton as soon as the governor returns. Hume's letter to Governor Withycombe and Patton's demand follow in full: "Sir: I enclose a formal demand of H. M. Patton, which explains itself. This demand is made for the purpose of laying a foundation upon which to apply to the supreme court for a writ of mandamus to the end that we may test the constitutionality of the act of 1915 with reference to primary nominations. Please notify me your refusal to comply with the demand, so that I may proceed with the legal action. Yours truly, W. T. Hume."

To the Hon. James Withycombe, governor of the state of Oregon: Sir—The undersigned hereby demands that you grant to him a certificate of nomination by the republican party for the office of senator in the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon for the thirteenth senatorial district and that you issue a proclamation declaring the nomination of the undersigned by said republican party for the office aforesaid as a candidate at the general election to be held in November, 1916; and that you refrain from granting a certificate of nomination by the republican party for the said office to either Gus C. Moser, A. W. Orton, Conrad P. Olson, S. B. Huston or R. S. Farrell for the reason and upon the ground neither of said last named electors were lawfully or legally nominated as candidates for nomination at the direct primary election held on May 19, 1916, and that the undersigned received the highest number of votes cast at said primary election for the nomination for said office. Respectfully, H. M. Patton."

Mrs. Gilkey will respond to the toast, "The class of '90'."

The installation of officers will take place early in July. As the next regular meeting night falls on the evening of the Fourth of July, it is probable that the installation will not take place until the following week.

A. H. Lea Receives 25 Pound Birthday Cake

A. H. Lea, secretary of the state fair board, was carving a huge 25 pound birthday cake for those who visited his office today. ## C. F. Stone Re-appointed to Fish and Game Board

As announced some time ago, Governor Withycombe today issued the formal re-appointment of C. F. Stone, of Klamath Falls, as a member of the fish and game commission. He served short term upon the commission when the new law went into effect and his re-appointment is for the statutory term of four years.

T. MAS C. GALLOWAY DEAD

Judge Galloway this morning received notice of the death of his brother, Thomas O. Galloway at his home in Weiser, Idaho, yesterday. He was 78 years old coming with his parents to Oregon in 1852, they locating in Yamhill county. In 1862 he moved to Idaho pre-empting the land upon which the city of Weiser now stands. He built the first saw mill in Idaho territory, and was always a leader in public enterprises. He was a member of the constitutional convention, and served several years in the state senate. He had been in poor health for some time and his death was not unexpected. His body will be brought to Portland for cremation arriving tomorrow.

Besides his family of nine sons and 22 grandchildren, one brother and two sisters survive him. They are Judge William Galloway of this city, Mrs. Mary Lynch of Weiser, Idaho, and Mrs. Sarah Hembree of Rochester, N. Y. Judge and Mrs. Galloway went to Portland this afternoon to attend the funeral ceremonies.
