HAS ECHO IN SALEM

Rocks Thrown at Deckhands of Granaoa As They Enter Dock Shed

The large order which has led up to the strike all along the Pacific coast has again been given expression in Oregon on the North Coast, and the strike has spread to the Willamette River. TheSection of the dockhands at Astoria were reported on strike as they marched into the town.

The deckhands at Astoria had been working under a contract that expired last week, and they refused to work. The men entered the workhouse where the strike was being held and then continued on to the dock, where they refused to work. The strike has spread to the Willamette River, and the men have refused to work. The strike has caused a great loss to the company, and the company has been forced to reduce wages.

Ritchie Got Decision Over Grammar Last Night

Prohibition was given a material victory last night when the Massachusetts Supreme Court decided that the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state is illegal.

The court ruled that the sale of alcoholic beverages is illegal in the state, and that the violation of the law is punishable by a fine of $500 and imprisonment for up to one year.

The decision was a material victory for the prohibition movement, and it is expected to have a great effect on the sale of alcoholic beverages in the state. The decision will also have an effect on the sale of alcoholic beverages in other states, and it is expected to have a great effect on the sale of alcoholic beverages in the United States.
