THIS FREES YOUR SKIN FROM HAIR OR FUZZ
*****

The method here suggested for the removal of superfluous hair is quick and certain unless the growth is extremely stubborn, a single application does the work. Make a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water; apply this to the hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub it off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. To avoid disappointment, be sure your druggist sells you delatone.

FORT VAUX CAPTURED AFTER WEEK'S BATTLE

Paris, June 8.—The French war office in its official statement today admitted the occupation of Fort Vaux on the east bank of the Meuse, by the Germans.

The statement said: After seven days of the fiercest fighting the garrison of Fort Vaux was absolutely exhausted and could not prevent the occupation of the ruined fort by the Germans. The French hold positions on the outskirts of the fort and the trenches on the swells to the right and left. All German attacks against these positions have been repulsed.

Called by the key to Verdun, the fort is one of the works in a circle about four miles from the shell-scarred city. Beyond it are the Forts Thiamout, souville, Tavenue and Saint Michel.

Fort Vaux is on a hill 300 feet high with sharply inclined slopes. For several weeks it has been the scene of some of the fiercest fighting of the war, being alternately ripped by the heaviest of artillery bombardments and then charged by infantry.

GERMANS ADMIT LOSS.
London, June 8.—A German official statement received in Amsterdam today admits the sinking of the large battle cruiser Lutzow and the small cruiser Rostock, in the Skagerak naval engagement, according to dispatches received here this noon. The battle sank on their way to harbor after the fight. Earlier mention of their loss was not made, say the dispatches, because of "military considerations."

Russian Offensive Views.
London, June 8.—Confirmation of Russian success in the east's gigantic offensive on the Austrian front is contained in the report of the Austro-Hungarian army headquarters, which admits a retreat of five kilometers near Okna in northeast Bukovina. The artillery attacks of the Russians are described as "tremendous."

A WOMAN'S TORTURE
No ingenuity of barbarism ever devised an agony so intense, so persistent, so long-enduring, so nerve-harrowing as that which is suffered day after day by the woman whose distinctly feminine organism is deranged or diseased. There are three trying times in every woman's life: 1st—when girlhood blossoms into womanhood; 2d—when motherhood is achieved; 3d—the change.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was devised to make these three periods safe and painless by restoring to vigorous health the organs involved. It soothes, heals, nourishes. It gives nature just the help it needs. It is the only ready-prepared medicine devised by a regularly graduated physician and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

PROGRESSIVES TO

Governor Johnson of California, pleaded with Parker to hold off until tomorrow.

"I want to nominate Roosevelt just as soon as you do," Johnson said, "but I don't want to give these pusyfooters a chance to say that because we did this thing today, we ruined Roosevelt's opportunity at the Coliseum."

"Will you tell the delegates that?" asked Parker.

"Yes, I'll take the chance," replied Johnson.

"Then you'll be taking a chance," Parker said, "but I'll back you up. Perkins deserves our support as long as we can give it consistently."

"The call us 'dynamiters,'" said Johnson. "We'll be good just so long and then off goes the lid."

As the situation then stood Perkins planned to make a statement at once, following the call to order.

*****
PERKINS FIGHTS FOR DELAY.
After a sharp fight led by Vincent of Colorado, for an amendment to change the progressive party rules, aimed to permit nominations prior to the report of the resolutions committee, the Perkins element on the committee won, and the rules remained unchanged.

This is regarded as enhancing possibility that Perkins will be able to hold down the lid on the rampant western moose, and prevent nominations until tonight at least.

Pressure brought to bear upon the resolutions committee by labor and peace interests resulted in the re-opening of general hearings this afternoon.

President Sam Gompers of the A. F. of L., appeared with a delegation and presented a labor plank for insertion in the platform.

Mrs. Fred J. Taussing of St. Louis, with a delegation from the women's peace party asked the committee to endorse the proposal for an international court of justice.

Southern and western delegates censured following the action of the rules committee to determine what action should be taken in case an effort was made to "unduly delay the colonel's nomination."

It was discovered that progressive party rules permitted the suspension of the regular order of business if requested by the majority of one delegation and seconded by four states.

R. B. Castler of Arkansas of delegate, then announced the Arkansas delegation would take this action, if necessary, and that Kansas, Louisiana, California and Colorado would support the motion, thus getting it before the house.

DELEGATIONS MUSICAL.
Every delegation that entered the Auditorium was singing. The first to spring the new song was the Louisiana crowd as they shouted "It won't stop raining until we nominate Teddy." Every delegation shouted themselves hoarse.

*****
HOWLING, SHOUTING MOB.
At 2:10 p. m. 10 minutes after the convention was scheduled to open, the hall was one wild mob of shouting, singing, flag waving bull moose. They sang "Teddy, You're a Bear," and every other Roosevelt song that they could think of. The platform was jammed and crowded with excited delegates anxious to know when to start the fireworks.

A parade of women started from the platform before the convention opened. Every one in the hall was standing up. The galleries were excited, too. But they were not crowded.

thought, it will support this motion. The delegates have nothing to lose. This movement and this party will never go back."

Persons showed signs of making a long speech and was hooted down.

Henry Allen of Kansas, the most radical of the leaders, was next recognized and was cheered to the echo.

"Fellow progressives, I feel like a boy standing in a powder magazine with a lot of matches around," he began.

"The republicans told us we could have anything except Roosevelt," he continued and the crowd laughed and cheered again.

Allen moved that the proposed conference committee must report back to this convention not later than 8 o'clock tonight.

William Flynn of Pennsylvania was the next speaker. He said every delegate from Pennsylvania was for the resolution.

"What else does it cut how soon we nominate Roosevelt, so long as we nominate him?" he asked.

"The leaders here are doing the best they can. I move Allen withdraw his amendment."

*****
MURDOCK FOR ACTION.
The convention was in disorder and Robins gavelled home a statement that "your will shall rule, but this convention is going to be in order."

Victor Murdock came to the platform and was cheered louder than any of his predecessors.

"For the last four years I have been in this fight," he shouted. "I am for harmony, but I want a little of this harmony to run both ways. Shall we get down on our knees to the old party at the Coliseum?"

"No!" shouted the crowd.

"Then vote your will," Murdock cried.

The delegates went into a wild gust of cheering.

"You folks want Roosevelt," Murdock cried. "The way to get him is by nominating him."

The crowd jumped straight into the air and shouted "Roosevelt, Roosevelt!"

*****
ROOSEVELT'S LETTER READ.
Irvin Kirkwood, publisher of the Kansas City Star, appeared on the platform with a communication from Sagamore Hill. Chairman Robins vainly attempted to secure order.

Secretary Davis began reading the paper and delegates quieted down. It was Colonel Roosevelt's telegram replying to William P. Jackson's invitation asking Roosevelt to speak before the republican convention.

the republicans if that was the G. O. P.'s desire. Roosevelt's reference to German-Americans brought the delegates cheering to their feet. The galleries were now crowded.

Finally a vote on the resolution was reached and it was declared adopted.

The sergeant at arms of the progressives left at once for the Coliseum to lay the conference resolutions before the republican convention.

Dean Lewis of Pennsylvania, read the platform which was adopted by the convention.

Geo. C. Perkins arising to speak, given great demonstration, and moved to adjourn until 10 a. m. without formally adopting the platform, pending the result of the conference with the republicans.

Motion was withdrawn and platform adopted.

Governor Johnson moved to adjourn until 8 p. m. tonight.
