

SOME OF THE MEN WHO ARE POINTED OUT TO CHICAGO DELEGATES AND VISITORS

Chicago, June 10.—Aside from its immediate political interest, the republican national convention always attracts attention as a gathering of men noted in various ways. Many of the names of delegates and leaders are familiar as those of men who have achieved success in various lines, political and otherwise.

HUGHES AND FAIRBANKS

(Continued From Page One.) California, with its state banner led the parade of the states through the hall. Hughes' nomination on an early ballot was indicated as early as midnight, when Senator Sherman withdrew and asked that his 58 delegates vote for the supreme court justice. Ohio next swung in line, and then just before the convention, Indiana, Iowa, Massachusetts and others.

HUGHES RESIGNS WILSON ACCEPTS

Rival Candidates Write Brief Notes to Each Other On Eve of Campaign

Washington, June 10.—3:30 p. m.—Supreme Court Justice Hughes this afternoon sent his resignation to the president. It follows: "To the President—I hereby resign the office of associate justice of the supreme court of the United States. I am, Sir, respectfully yours, (Signed) "Charles E. Hughes."

C.W. FAIRBANKS

The roots of the old line of statesmen that so long summarized the heights of American opportunity—"From the log cabin to the White House"—are being grubbed out these days. The main part of the forest is already gone. Indiana, in Charles Warren Fairbanks, presents a candidate for the republican presidential nomination who goes back to that old line. The former vice-president not only was born in a log cabin but was cradled in a sugar trough.

Justice Hughes Wiring His Acceptance, Outlines The Policies He Will Stand For

Washington, June 10.—Following is the message Hughes sent to Chairman Harding: "Mr. Chairman and Delegates: "I have not desired the nomination. I have wished to remain on the bench. But in this critical period of our national history, I realize that it is your right to summon and that it is my paramount duty to respond. You speak at a time of national exigency transcending nearly partisan considerations.

The choice is largely geographical. Borah is enthusiastically liked by the progressives, but has always refused to leave the G. O. P. ranks. For two days he has refused to yield to strong pressure urging him to run, but it is the belief of his friends in both parties that if he received a whirlwind nomination, the convention would accept him before he should protest.

First and Second Ballots Last Evening

Chicago, June 10.—On the first ballot taken last evening Justice Hughes polled 253 1/2 votes. He got 42 from his own state, and aside from Oregon and Florida, the remainder were largely scattered. On the second ballot he increased to 328 1/2 votes. It required 495 votes to nominate.

HITCHCOCK KNOWS HOW TO HANDLE DELEGATES

Chicago, June 10.—Charles Warren Fairbanks told the United Press this afternoon that he had not yet made up his mind whether to accept the nomination for vice-president made by the republican national convention.

Roosevelt Gets

Chicago, June 10.—Justice Charles Evans Hughes will probably be named republican standard bearer today within not more than five roll calls. The call of the party may come to him on one or two ballots. For his running mate, any one of half a dozen favorite sons may be chosen.

Longshoremen at Work Under Agreement

San Francisco, June 10.—Conferences at which the new longshoremen's wage scale will be drafted began today at the Merchants Exchange, under the direction of Federal Mediator White. Representatives of the employers and employees were both present. It is expected the work will require perhaps a month.
