W. H. Stevens is chairman of the committee and J. E. Whitehead secretary.

The services at the Swedish church yesterday were attended by an appreciative congregation. The church being finely decorated and the children's program in charge of Mrs. Edward Olson was well rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Schumann are on their wedding journey, having started south this morning in an auto. Mr. Schumann is the representative of the wholesale house of Williams & Kerr Bros. and as he was too busy to take a trip to Iowa to claim his bride, she came west and they were married a few days ago. On their return, they will make their home at the Marion hotel.

Mr. F. H. Thompson will return about July 1st from New York where he has been attending special clinic in eye, ear, nose and throat. The doctor will limit his practice to that field of work.

A Sunday school rally and picnic will be held at Victor Point Sunday June 25. The Macleay, Silverton, Victor Point and the McAlpin Sunday schools will take part. The exercises of the day will be furnished mostly by the children. All are requested to bring well filled baskets.

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness during the recent illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Anna Smith, John Jones, Mollie Mill.

Senator C. P. Bishop, one of the Oregon delegates to the Republican national convention and also one of the original Hughes men, has been named as one of the committee to officially notify former Justice Hughes of his nomination as the Republican candidate for president. The party will leave Chicago for Washington today.

Programs will be distributed tomorrow evening to all attending the band concert and this plan will be continued throughout the summer whenever those who are new familiar with band music will know what selection the band is playing. The programs will be furnished by Brick Bros.

Patrolman Walter De Long who has been in the Salem police department for the past few months has been transferred to the city paving department and will assume charge of the paving operations for the city when it begins. H. A. Rowe took Mr. De Long's place on the day relief of the police force.

The United Artisans will hold a county fair at their regular meeting Wednesday evening, June 14. In addition to an attractive program, there will be various booths, including one for candy and ice cream and fortune telling. The public is invited to attend, enjoy the program, patronize the booths and take a peep into the future from the fortune telling tent.

Salem has another newspaper. The first issue is dated June 12 and it appeared on the streets this morning, in an extra edition. It was dedicated to the Oakland ad club and its official name is the "Cherry City Rooster." As part of the business the starting point is made that it is published whenever the managers have the price. The fact is the Cherry City Rooster was published especially for the Oakland Ad men in the city this morning, and it is no more. It crowded and croaked.

Within the past six weeks, six accidents have happened at street intersections between street cars and vehicles. One of these was at Capital and Cheneketa streets where two autos ran into the side of a street car and another occurred at Mill and Winter when a motorcycle bumped in to the side of a car. These accidents would probably not have happened had the near side stop system been used, where the street cars take on passengers before crossing the street.

TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

George G. Brown and M. L. Meyers, of This City, Will Attend It

The 33rd triennial conclave of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar, United States of America, will be held at Los Angeles, from June 12 to 17.

Salem will be represented by George G. Brown, grand captain general of the Knights Templar of Oregon, with headquarters at Hotel Landerholm, and M. L. Meyers, who has been appointed as one of the aids of Curtis B. Winn, of Albany, marshal of the seventh division, which consists of commanderies from Oregon, Washington, Montana and Wyoming.

Part of the Salem party will leave Wednesday evening at 10:38 on the Southern Pacific and will include Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Meyers, accompanied by Miss Barbara Steiner, Mrs. D. W. Matthews and Miss Elizabeth Cunningham. Glen C. Niles, Frank Shafer, and son and Henry Schankler will attend the conclave, going by the steamer Great Northern as far as San Francisco.

The Salem Floral society will hold its monthly meeting tonight at the Commercial club. The special business of the meeting is to discuss plans and arrange committees for a proper floral display at the armory for the Cherry fair and also to prepare a list of premiums to be awarded. For the first time since its organization, the society will have an opportunity to demonstrate just what its members can accomplish in the way of floral displays and in decorating the armory.

The selection of a school director to succeed B. J. Miles will take place one week from today, June 19. As yet, no candidates have announced themselves although a petition was circulated some time ago asking Charles L. Dick to become a candidate. It is understood that Mr. Miles will not become a candidate for reelection. The incoming director will not only take part in spending the $100,000 a year that the board of education handles, but before the close of his five year term, will have much to say in the building of a junior high school, as at the present rate in school attendance, it is probable that another building will be necessary within a few years.

A dinner at the Commercial club at 8:30 o'clock will mark the first meeting of the Mercantile department since the election of Fred W. Steusloff as director. This dinner is for every member of the department. Plans for the coming year and the general policy of the Mercantile department will come before the meeting and for this reason it is the wish of Mr. Steusloff that all members attend. W. A. Denton, E. A. Choate, W. E. Gahlsdorf and C. S. Hamilton have been appointed to serve as a committee with Mr. Steusloff during the coming year.

A. H. Moore and family motored 205 miles yesterday, taking in the Pacific Highway as far as St. Helens and several side trips. A speed cop driving an automobile passed Mr. Moore on the highway and rather intimated that he would like a little race. He was accommodated, resulting in the cop displaying his star and Mr. Moore being placed under arrest for exceeding the speed limit. The story ends happily as this being his first offense, the Salem autoist was let off with the admonition that it is not always best to pass everything on the Highway.

The entertainment committee having in charge the coming of the Elks to be celebrated next Thursday evening at the armory will meet tonight and complete all plans and hear the report of those having in charge the entertaining features. These will include some first class vaudeville from Portland, solo by Miss Vera Corder, the Elk candidate for queen of the Cherry fair, and selections by the Elk orchestra. Several new moving picture specials of a personal nature are to be introduced. All Elks will meet at 8 o'clock at the lodge Thursday evening and march to the armory.

The tenth annual Waldo Hills pioneer picnic will be held next Saturday June 17, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hunt, Hon. George S. Downing, a pioneer of 1847, presiding. The program in the morning will include music by a band; a vocal solo by C. Slade of Silverton, and an address by Judge J. C. Moreland. The afternoon program will begin with an address by Judge P. H. D'Arcy; vocal solo by Miss Edna S. Harding; vocal solo, Miss Judd; address by Mrs. Edyth Tezier Wetherst; reading by Miss Laura Noyes; remarks by W. H. and E. A. Downing; recitation by Mr. Haberly and closing with music by the band.

The Rev. H. B. Dorks, who has been pastor of the United Brethren church, Seventeenth and Nebraska streets for the past four years has been assigned to the church at Eugene. He preached his farewell sermon last night and expects to move with his family to Eugene Thursday of this week. The Salem church will be temporarily supplied by the Rev. Mrs. O. M. Peoples of Hazel Green. Mr. Dorks was secretary of the Salem Ministerial Union and before coming to Salem, was in charge of the United Brethren church at Pueblo, Colorado.

The commercial bodies of Silverton have taken up the proposition of raising a fund to erect a suitable monument for Homer Davenport. A committee has been appointed with Roscoe Ames president, Julius Wolf secretary, Miss Eva Coolidge treasurer and J. K. Mount, E. P. Aldrich of the Ladd and Bush bank has been asked to cooperate with the committee. An effort was made shortly after the burial of Mr. Davenport to secure funds for a monument and the small amount raised is still in the Ladd and Bush bank. The committee will meet soon and formulate plans whereby it is hoped to secure at least $2,000 for the erection of a monument to the memory of the great cartoonist.

The chairmen of all the committees appointed for the Cherry fair will meet this evening with Benjamin Brick at the Commercial club and report as to what has been done by each committee and also make whatever additional plans that may be necessary. According to the plans outlined at a meeting Saturday evening of the directors of the tourist and publicity department of the Commercial club, all the events of the Cherry fair and the farmers' all-Oregon grange will be held Monday, July 3 and the Fourth given entirely to the celebration at the fair grounds. These matters and the re-arrangements of plans will come before the chairmen of the committees this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCrow who were injured in the automobile accident at West Salem a week ago yesterday, are reported to be gradually recovering. Mrs. W. A. Ward was able to leave the hospital several days ago, but Mr. and Mrs. McCrow are still confined to their rooms as well as their daughter, Miss Hughteta.

The members and friends of the First Congregational church are invited to enjoy a picnic to be given under the auspices of the Women's Union and Yigim's club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miller, 1509 South High street tomorrow evening. Dinner will be served at 6:15 o'clock. Ladies are asked to bring basket lunches.

The West Salem baseball players are trying to figure out how it happened. In the game played yesterday afternoon, West Salem scored only 21 runs and the Business College team, 1.

At the meeting held in Portland last week of the Oregon presidential postmasters, P. S. Myers, of Portland was elected president, August Hockstein first vice president and Marshall Malton secretary.

The Epworth Leagues of Salem and vicinity will meet tomorrow evening at the First Methodist church to organize all the leagues into one body for social, education and missionary purposes. There are six leagues in Salem and with those near the city, it is expected that at least ten leagues will be associated. They will be entertained from 6 to 8 o'clock by the First Methodist church Epworth League cabinet.
