IN HONOR OF KITCHENER

London, June 13.—The late Earl Kitchener, Great Britain's premier soldier lost when the cruiser Hampshire was mined near the Orkney Islands was today paid a tribute as great as England has ever given to her departed heroes.

The services were held in St. Paul's cathedral. The King and queen, persons attached to the royal house, may peers, soldiers and statesmen attended, jamming the mighty cathedral to the doors while thousands stood outside in the rain with heads bared. Many were in deep mourning, expressing the loss as personal.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Judge Galloway has granted a decree of divorce to the plaintiff in the case of George W. Herseback against Helen Herseback in department number 2 of the circuit court. The couple were married in Salem June 30, 1911 and have two children aged three years and one year respectively. By the decree the defendant is awarded the care and custody of the children.

Enzie Floyd Hunslett, a laborer of Independence, has secured a license to wed Rosaline Hogan, of Annsville.

A suit was filed in the circuit court today by Charles Schmid against A. Taylor in which the plaintiff alleges that he is the owner of 210 acres of land in this county known as the "Old Ball Place" and that the defendant is trespassing upon the property and refuses to vacate the premises. The plaintiff seeks an injunction restraining the defendant from entering upon the premises and damages of $250.

Judge Bushey today appointed W. O. Van Schuyver as administrator of the estate of W. L. Patterson, who died intestate May 26 in this county. The petition states that the estate of the deceased consists of a life insurance policy for $3000 and household goods valued at about $500. The only heirs are Helen J. Patterson, mother of the deceased, and three brothers, John, Guy and Ray Patterson, all residing in Multnomah county. The petition states that the life insurance policy was made payable to the wife of the deceased but since the wife and only child of the deceased died before Mr. Patterson, his mother is the sole heir to the estate.

W. L. Patterson shot and killed his wife and child early in the morning of May 26 and then shot himself and died in the hospital.

John W. L. Smith, of Salem, and J. V. Fike, of Hubbard were elected county school supervisors at a meeting of the county board of education which met at the court house yesterday afternoon. J. C. Dillotte, the present supervisor, may enter government educational work. The salary for the supervisors was fixed at $1000 per year with $200 annually for travelling expenses. Their new terms begin September 1. The members of the county board of education are Superintendent W. M. Smith, George W. Hubbs, of Silverton; J. D. Alexander, of Sunnyside; J. W. Kellis, of Scotts Mills, and Mrs. Mamie Fulkerson, of Salem Heights.

WOMAN'S MARTYRDOM

How many men, think you, have any idea of the pain and misery endured by women of their own households, who suffer from ill health to their sex? They often see them smiling and trying to be cheerful, even while racked with pain. If every such woman would only be guided by the experience of thousands of others who have been restored to health by that grand old remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, much suffering might be avoided.

"Beauty is only skin deep," quoted the Wise Guy. "Ay! there's the rub!" quoted the Simple Mug.

SUFFERED FROM BACKACHE AND KIDNEY TROUBLE FOR YEARS.

Dear Readers—I wish to tell you that I suffered from backache and kidney trouble for years. I heard of Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets and I tried them. They cured my backache. I hope people that are troubled with backache will give them a good trial. I am sure they will not fail to benefit.

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. Geo. Deming.

NOTE: Folks in town and adjoining places are delighted with the results they have obtained by using "ANURIC," the newest discovery of Dr. Pierce, who is head of the INVALIDS' HOTEL and SURGICAL INSTITUTE, in Buffalo, N. Y. Those who started the day with a backache, stiff legs, arms and muscles, and an aching head (worn out before the day began because they were in and out of bed half a dozen times at night) are appreciating the perfect rest, comfort and new strength they obtained from Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. To prove that this is a certain uric acid solvent and conquers headache, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism, if you've never used the "Anuric," cut this out and send ten cents to Doctor Pierce for a large sample package. This will prove to you that "Anuric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid—and the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector. If you are a sufferer, go to your best druggist and ask for a 50-cent box of "Anuric." You run no risk for Dr. Pierce's good name stands behind this wonderful new discovery as it has for the past half century for his "Golden Medical Discovery" which makes his blood pure, his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women and his "Pleasant Pellets" for liver ill. All Dr. Pierce's medicines can be had in Tablet form, by mail or at drug store.

YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS CHURCH ENDS

Takes Firm Stand for Peace, and for Still Stricter Prohibition Laws

Newberg June 13.—The twenty-fourth annual session of Oregon yearly meeting of the Friends church, which will close today at noon, according to present indications, has been marked by two actions that were very emphatic. One was the unanimous and hearty endorsement of the movement to initiate an addition to the prohibitory amendment to the constitution of Oregon, forbidding the importation as well as the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages.

The other was the emphatic position taken on the peace question, in which it was evident that the traditional position of the church on this question is no less a position that is emphatically held by Friends of today. Strong resolutions were adopted against all war and war preparation, the time-honored stand of Friends on the question and the recent action of Philadelphia yearly meeting on the subject being emphatically reiterated; a protest was made against the introduction of military drill in the public schools, whether voluntary or compulsory; the requirement of military drill on the part of all male students of some of the state educational institutions of the northwest was denounced as tyrannical, since it demands that taxpayers violate their conscience in this matter if they hold to Friends views of war and war preparation; and the authorities of the nation were urged to seek for the peace of the world and of the United States, not by armed force but by the power of truth and love and justice. The following resolution was made a part of the records of the yearly meeting:

Resolved, That we pledge our love and loyalty to our country, and desire always to be willing to make any rightful sacrifice in the interests of genuine patriotism; but that we cannot permit a false idea of patriotism to blind us to the fact that we owe our love to all mankind, and must not permit it to be circumscribed by geographical boundaries; and that we must place our loyalty to Jesus Christ above our loyalty to any man or set of men, being true to our conscientious conviction at whatever cost.

Yesterday was full of devotional services on the part of the great gathering. Services were held at 8 o'clock, 11 o'clock, 3 o'clock and 7 o'clock, with the Bible school and the Christian Endeavor meetings also largely attended by visiting delegates.

Today has been occupied with consideration of the Bible school and missionary interests, under the leadership of Dr. Nelson Morrison of Portland and C. J. Sherman of Portland. The work in both of these departments has flourished during the year.

Voluntary gifts have been made from time to time to the Christian Endeavor work, Pacific College for the installation of the equipment of the commercial department for next year, to the help of the meetings at Turner and Saerwood and to the general work of evangelization and church extension, amounting to over $1,000. The regular yearly meeting appropriations will be made today.

CHAPLIN CONTRASTS MAKE CARMEN LAUGHING RIOT

That Charlie Chaplin's ability is not confined to slapstick comedy is demonstrated in his burlesque on Carmen. In this tour act Essanay-Chaplin feature film he combines real dramatic situations with his most comic efforts, and from the contrast comes the humor of the piece. Seriously duplicating a scene from the opera, one moment and the next plunging into a screamingly funny burlesque on the

The Clans Gathering By Perry Arnold.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

St. Louis, June 13.—William Jennings Bryan arrived today—and found the democratic national committee ready to tell him, "good bye and God bless you."

Nothing could be more indicative of how democracy's times have changed than the fact that the great commoner, four times a dominant figure in national conventions and three times democracy's candidate for presidential honors, now figures in the councils of this party as a mere alternate from Nebraska and a reporter.

In all the platform talk heard today, there was no indication that the former secretary of state would have a hand in the leaping of the planks. He pledged himself not to inject the prohibition issue into the convention—and having done so, the democrats were willing to let Bryan alone, with hopes that Bryan would also let democracy alone and raise no discordant note in the harmony program.

Twenty years ago the silver-tongued orator came to the 1896 democratic convention as a reporter, thrilled democracy with eloquence and departed as its presidential candidate. Four years later he was again nominated. In 1904 his leadership was rejected and another candidate chosen, but four years after that, it was William J. Bryan who made the race as democratic standard bearer. In 1912 it was Bryan who forced the nomination of Woodrow Wilson; Bryan who headed off Champ Clark and Bryan who dictated the platform.

Bryan Only a Reporter.

In the convention of 1916 William J. Bryan will be a reported agent—just as he will be 26 years ago. He is officially accredited also as an alternate. Alternates cannot address the chair from the floor except by unanimous consent. Newspaper reporters, of course, cannot participate in the proceedings. Therefore, according to all indications today, William J. Bryan will be invited to make a speech—when the business of the convention has proceeded to the point where oratory is needed to fill in—but no aid nor advice will be sought of him; no part in the drama of democratic politics will be cast for him.

The platform building—in which work Bryan four years ago was the master carpenter—is already done. Tonight Secretary of War Baker arrives with the draft approved by President Wilson himself.

The chief executive is credited personally with writing a number of planks. He has talked the whole document over with Senator Stone of Missouri. The latter will have the principal direction of the putting together of the words and pledges on which democracy will make the race this year.

Whiskers Threaten Democracy.

The great bulk of the delegates were expected to arrive today. Lobbies of the Jefferson and Planters hotels are showing more of the convention spirit—but so far exactly one hand has blared its way about downtown, and there hasn't been a sign of a cheer. The delegates are alternately dodging and talking to woman suffrage workers, several scores of moving picture operators are on the job from dawn to dark, and several hundred newspaper reporters hunt for choice bits of news.

St. Louis has done herself proud on convention weather. The days have been just warm enough to make summer clothes comfortable, but not sticky enough to be enervating.

It was said while the renomination of Marshall for vice-president appeared likely today, it might not be unanimous.

Roger Sullivan of Illinois and Governor Major, of Missouri, both have shouters hoisting them for the second place berth and probably will draw the complimentary votes from their state delegations. There was practical certainty, however, that not more than this number of votes would be registered against Marshall's renomination.

Friends of Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois indignantly declared today that if Roger Sullivan's name was presented as a candidate for the vice-presidential nomination that of the man who made the whisker famous in politics, would also go before the delegates. It was asserted that Lewis could command a big bunch of Illinois delegates even bigger than those who might vote for Sullivan.
