The New York

City Marine Band

New York's "best"—the most sought after band in "America", has been secured for the Western Chautanguas.

The inspirational power of a great band—every musician an artist to his finger tips, whose very soul fingles with the rapture of the harmonies helps to swall—has in it the broath of life itself. Music is man's highest expression of himself—the band the suppreme instrument of that expression. The New York City Marine Rama is builded of that timber. It is to the music of such a band that use charge inpenetrable barriers impelied by a strength apart from themselves—become human sheaths to the bayonets of the engagy, the smile of triumph untrollegated of such a land, when patriotic airs are played that tears fall machined own the grizzled cheeks of veferans, as they remember the victors or forfurn hopes of another day.
