

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

An array of beautiful fragrant blossoms clustered about Miss Mildred Edith Bagley, one of the most popular of the season's brides when she wedded David McConaghey Graham of Eugene in the Congregational church Wednesday evening, Rev. James Elvin officiating.

Although the wedding was notable for its charming simplicity, it was one of the prettiest and most artistic of the season. The church was a bower of pink blossoms and greenery, the pews being adorned with huge baskets of Carolina Testout roses. A white lattice work entwined with the same pink petaled blossoms and greens made a beautiful background for the bridal party.

The bride, who is an attractive girl, wore a lovely gown of satin crepe, and silver lace which on the newest lines. Her tulle veil which was scooped and edged with silver, was arranged in a Juliet cap and wreathed with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of white bride's roses and sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Margaret Gray of Seattle, who was attired in a smart frock of pastel pink taffeta and tulle, trimmed with silver lace. She wore a hat of pink tulle and carried pink Killarney roses.

John Cahalan of Portland acted as best man, and the guests were ushered by Paul Wallace and Ralph Moores.

Before the ceremony Miss Margery Marvin charmingly sang "Because" (by D. Harbord) accompanied by Mrs. Robert Kinney of Astoria and Miss Mary Schultz on the violin. Mrs. Kinney also played Lohengrin's wedding march and the zephyr like Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" after the ceremony.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to the bridal party and a few relatives at the Elmer T. Ludden residence. The rooms were charming with snapdragons, sweet peas, centerberry bells and sweet William, massed in great baskets and vases.

The table was decked with a huge bowl of Thousand Wonder roses and presided over by Mrs. Warren M. Knight of Portland and Miss Gertrude Gray of Seattle.

The bride's going away suit was a chic sports style of old rose jersey with a hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham motored to Portland and left the next day for a two weeks sojourn at Neukoni.

After their return they will have apartments at the Hotel Osborne in Eugene until October fifteenth, when they will be at their attractive new home in Kincaid Park.

The bride is a vivacious and charming girl and very popular in Salem society. She received her earlier education in Salem, and a few years ago graduated from the University of Oregon, where she is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is a devotee of outdoor sports, being a graceful and clever tennis player.

Mr. Graham is also an Oregon graduate and a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mrs. John H. Albert's bridge on Wednesday was one of the smartest and most delightful affairs of the week. Guests were asked for four tables of the game, card honors falling to Mrs. G. A. Wood and Mrs. E. W. Allen.

The library where the bridge tables were arranged was fragrant with an array of Caroline Testout roses. In the dining room a huge basket of red roses centered the beautifully appointed tea table over which Mrs. Louis Jachmann presided. Mrs. John Scott assisted Mrs. Albert in the serving.

The guests included the members of the Happy Hour club and several additional matrons, who were: Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. G. A. Wood, Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mrs. E. W. Allen and Mrs. Susie Jones.

The Misses Gertrude and Margaret Gray of Seattle who were the guests of their aunt Mrs. John H. McNary for the Bagley-Graham wedding Wednesday night returned home today.

The girls frequently come to Salem for a visit with their aunt, and as they are very popular here, they are always joyously welcomed by the younger set.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cashow of Roseburg.

Miss Verna Cooder who is the leading candidate for queen of the Cherry Fair, was one of the soloists at the Elks' Home-coming.

As a pre-nuptial attention to Miss Mildred Bagley, whose wedding was a simple event of Wednesday evening, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross entertained Monday with a tea.

The affair was most informal and charming, only the close friends of the honor guest being asked.

A huge bowl of lovely Caroline Testout roses and lace ferns adorned the tea table over which Mrs. Robert Kinney (Althea Moores) of Astoria presided.

Assisting were Mrs. Frank Durbin, Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Ralph Jackson of Peoria, Ill., and Miss Barbara Steiner. Calling during the afternoon were: Mrs. Henry R. Thielson, Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Chaucery Bishop, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Elmer Ludden, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, Mrs. Chester A. Moores of Portland, Mrs. George W. Gray, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Winifred Byrd, Miss Ellen Thielson, Miss Margery Marvin, Miss Aline Thompson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Verna Cross, Miss Catherine Carson and Miss Margaret Gray of Seattle.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clay are planning to leave the first of July for a several weeks sojourn in San Francisco.

Miss Florence Hoffer's informal dance Thursday evening to honor her charming house guest Miss Marion Gould of Medford, was one of the merriest affairs of the week.

About sixteen of the younger belles and beaux were asked to participate in the gayeties. The Hoffer residence was artistically adorned with Caroline Testout roses and greens.

The veranda was also adorned and prepared for dancing were lighted with vivid-hued Japanese lanterns.

The guests included: Miss Helen Deckebach, Miss Mary Schultz, Miss Myrtle Albright, Miss Catherine Carson, Miss Nanelle Bloom, Miss Ruth Boggs, Miss Mildred Brunk and John Carson, Allan Bynon, Homer Egan, Donald Byrd, Harry Quinn Mills, Kenneth Moores, Clarence Byrd and Lawrence Hoffer.

With regrets good-byes are being said to Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Elliott and Miss Ethel Elliott, who are leaving soon for Lewiston, Idaho, where Mr. Elliott has accepted a position as president of the normal school. During their sojourn in Salem the Elliotts have become very popular, and will be greatly missed by their host of friends.

The golf tournament at Eugene will be in full swing tomorrow. A number of Salem society folk, as well as devotees of the sport will attend the event. Among those motoring to Eugene today were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, who left this morning in the former's car. The Chaucery Bishops will go this evening and will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Carl Gabrielsen and Ralph Moores.

They will be joined in Albany by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young and Miss Isabel Young, who will also motor up for the festivities.

Charming and informal was the tea for which Mrs. George G. Bingham was hostess Thursday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Keith Powell of Lafayette.

It was a small affair only a few of the younger maids and matrons who are friends of Mrs. Powell being asked. The rooms were aglow with garden flowers and the tea table was decked with a huge crystal bowl of pink and lavender sweet peas combined with honey ferns.

Mrs. Bingham was assisted by Mrs. Carlton W. Smith and Miss Hazel Erickson. The girls calling to see the attractive visitor were: Mrs. Norman Courtney, Miss Ellen Thielson, Miss Catherine Carson, Miss Margery Marvin, Miss Aline Thompson, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Hazel Downing, Miss Ida Simmons, Miss Esther Carson, Mrs. Clifford Farmer (Edna Jones), the Misses Francis and Louise Adams of Silverton.

Quite a jolly affair of the week was the farewell picnic given by the members of the quince quon club in honor of Mrs. Blanche Liston Neimeyer, who is leaving soon for Toronto, where she will join Mr. Neimeyer. As a token of remembrance, the club presented the honor guest with a handsome silver vase.

An interesting and delightful affair of Friday evening was the reception given at the Y. W. C. A. in honor of Miss Florence Cleveland, the new secretary. More than 75 matrons and maids called to greet the attractive honoree who has already made many friends in Salem.

A profusion of marigolds and Shasta daisies adorned the living room, where the guests were received by Mrs. George Dewberry, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Chaucery Bishop, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. Charles Park, Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Mrs. H. C. Epley and Miss A. McCulloch.

The refreshment room was fragrant with beautiful roses, and the punch bowl was presided over by Miss Grace Bean and Miss Louise Benson.

An enjoyable feature of the evening was the artistic programme which included, vocal solo, "Dream," Mrs. Halliday-Haight; reading and solo, Mrs. Arthur Bahan; solo, "An Open Secret," Miss Alice Judd, and a cornet selection by Miss Martha Swart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jones and children left today for a few weeks visit in Joseph, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Courtney (Emmaline Klein) who have been the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. A. Klein since their return from Mazatlan, Mexico, left today for Portland where they expect to remain indefinitely.

An attractive afternoon affair was given Wednesday by Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. Woodruff at the former's country place "Bethmore" for the members of the D. A. R.

It being flag day the national colors floated from the veranda. The rooms also had red, white and blue as a color note, made manifest by garden flowers.

The members motoring out for the affair were: Mesdames Isaac L. Paterson, S. C. Clark, H. B. Thielson, Woodruff, Alice M. Prizzell, D. I. Howard, Durkee of Willamette chapter, Portland; Vincent, R. S. Wallace, J. W. Harbison, Frank Miller, Homer (Louie), Misses Ellen B. Thielson, Lillian Applegate, Mary Creed Howard.

A bevy of little girls gathered at the guests of little Henrietta Bishop this afternoon to participate in a picnic planned in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Bishop was assisted in serving the little folks by Mrs. T. Hicks and Mrs. Hazel Bishop. The guests were: Dorothy Boshardt, Maxine Ulrich, Mary Kightlinger, Florence Spencer, Doris Hicks, Russell Steiner, Katherine Elgin, Ruth Hazelton, Ruth Halvorsen, Helen Arpke, Marian Shaw, Grace Thompson.

The beaches are becoming a busy place for society's week and sojourn. Several parties are planned to motor to Newport today and will include Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, who will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick D. Thielson. They will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton who will go over with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Terry, the latter having motored to Salem from Portland this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Glover, who have been in Washington, D. C., since November are expected home Monday.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the informal afternoon for which Mrs. A. T. Wain was hostess Tuesday at the Wain country place "Lou's Hill Fruit Farm." The affair which was planned as a birthday party for little Keene Wain was also complimentary to Mrs. Frank Myers and Mrs. Ida Babcock.

In the dining room a long table was arranged for the guests and adorned with baskets of crimson roses and with huge birthday cakes. Mrs. Wain three huge birthday cakes. Mrs. Wain was assisted by Mrs. A. L. Brown. The guests included the members of the Priscilla and a number of Master Keene's little friends who were Priscilla Fry, Rowena and David Eyre, Maxine Myers, Bertha Babcock, Francis Matty Martin, Katherine Hartley, Margie Hedrick, Kenneth Shellberg, Kenneth Webb and Dorothy Myers of Medford.

At a charming and simple home wedding, Miss Mary Yantis will become the bride of Lin C. Smith at the residence of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Yantis, 235 Center street, Sunday at one o'clock.

The color scheme will be pink and white and the rooms will be adorned with quantities of pink roses. Miss Yantis will be unattended and will wear a chic gown of pastel blue taffeta trimmed with silver lace.

Miss Leola Slater will play the wedding march and the guests will be greeted at the door by dainty little Constance Yantis. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon will be served.

Mrs. Myrtle Lawrence, Mrs. David Yantis, Miss Lillian Slater and Miss Anna Yantis will assist. Only the immediate relatives, and a few close friends of the couple are asked for the wedding.

Both Miss Yantis and Mr. Smith have a wide circle of friends in Salem. Mr. Smith is in the United States National bank.

After a two weeks wedding trip they will be at home to their many friends at 1064 Oak street.

The members of the Epaphorians were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. F. H. Thompson Thursday. This was the last meeting of the club until next season, and the afternoon was devoted to needle work.

The hostess was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by Mrs. George Forbes. Mrs. Ray Albee was the only additional guest.

Miss Ruth Brown and Hedda Stary were married at an unusually pretty home wedding at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Brown on 110 Division street, Thursday evening at eight o'clock, Rev. F. T. Porter performing the ceremony.

The house was a veritable bower of blossoms, a color scheme of pink and white being developed with roses, peonies and other flowers.

Wreaths of roses were everywhere and the ceilings were festooned with white ribbons and vines. The ceremony took place beneath an arch of pink roses, centered with a huge bell.

The bride wore a gown of white satin elaborated with pearl trimmings. Her veil was wreathed with sprays of tiny flowers and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Birdean Yantis was her only attendant. She was attired in a pretty frock of pink crepe and carried pink roses. Mr. Swart was attended by Oscar Culter.

The bridal party was presided by Lorence Porter as flower girl and John Douglas Minto as ring bearer. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Schultz and Frank Churchill, Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and a wedding feast was served on the lawn which was gaily lighted with Japanese lanterns and electric lights.

A group of young girls, the Misses Leah Nichols, Vivian Hargrove and Pauline Porter, in dainty white dresses with pink sashes assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Swart are at home to their friends at 147 Union street.

Mrs. David Yantis and small daughter Constance, will leave Sunday night for their future home in Fargo, North Dakota. Mr. Yantis has been in Fargo for some time, while Mrs. Yantis and daughter remained over for a several months visit with Mr. Yantis' mother Mrs. S. E. Yantis.

The residence of N. D. Elliott on west Miller street was the setting for a merry all fresco party Friday evening, given by the members of the South Salem Friends church.

The affair was planned as a courtesy to Mrs. Bertha Minton, who had charge of the church choir and Miss Louisa Minton soprano of the choir, who are leaving soon for Ohio. The grounds were lighted with electric lights and refreshments were served under the trees.

About forty friends and members of the church gathered to bid good-bye to the honor guests, and to enjoy the gayeties of the evening.

About one hundred proud parents and friends attended the lawn fête given by the little tots of the Misses Ethel and Nellie Caschere's kindergarten, at their residence on Winter street, Wednesday morning.

The affair which closed the school season for the little ones was interesting and artistic to a degree. The grounds were prepared for the festivities and were adorned with huge baskets of red roses, from which festoons of graceful Rambler roses formed a semi-circular enclosure and back ground for the dainty little participants.

Numbers that completed the artistry of their charming little programme were the spring songs, and the especially quaint dance "Lads and Lassies of Long Ago."

During the morning the guests assembled in the house, where an interesting and remarkable exhibition of the year's work was displayed.

Assisting the Misses Caschere were Miss Eva Hogue, pianist, and Miss G. Jory.

Those little ones taking part were: Virginia Berger, Billy Capper, Helen Darby, Maxine Glover, Eldon Jory, Frances Harlan, Betsabe Hoffmann, Nancy Hunt, Edith May Jenks, Elizabeth Lewis, Norma Lorendine, Doris McCracken, Catherine Taylor, Richard Johnson, Frederick Chout, Robert Chout, June Wilson, Richard Wilson, Eloise White, Gordon Bennett.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holman (Viola Verelst) will be interested to know that they are now in Sault Lake City where they are playing in the orchestra at the "Hotel Semloh."

The Hotel Marion rang with merriment last night, as a throng of gaily attired dancers revelled in the gayeties of the last Summer dance of the season.

The advanced piano pupils of Miss Beatrice Shelton announce a most delightfully arranged program for their annual public musicale, which is to be given at the First Congregational church next Monday evening. The event marks the close of activities for the young folk and will be the most pretentious program of their year.

Supplementing the piano selections, and adding much charm to the event will be the vocal solos by Mrs. Hallie Parrish Hinger, and the orchestral numbers by Miss Mary Schultz, Miss Lillian Stege, Miss Bernice Sauter and Miss Shelton. As usual local music lovers have evidenced the greatest interest in the event, and they are extended a most cordial invitation to attend.

Mrs. Gerald Volk left this morning for an over Sunday visit with friends in Hillsboro.

Mrs. and Mrs. E. Cook Patton's guests, Mrs. J. D. McCully and Miss Edna McCully, of Hood River, will return home tomorrow.

Miss Helen Taylor entertained with a delightful all fresco affair at her country home on the Wallace road Wednesday evening. The grounds were lighted with electric lights for the occasion, and supper was served under the trees at a large table prettily decked with sweet brier.

The guests included about sixty members of the Sweet Briar club and their families.

Assisting were Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mrs. S. F. Kimball, Mrs. Al Steiner and Mrs. Clyde Beckett.

After supper the evening was rounded out by music.

A delightful farewell party was given by the members of the Methodist choir last evening at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Ford on Chemeketa street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Mendenhall, who left today for a sojourn in the east.

WILL HELEN GOULD SHEPARD RAISE HER ADOPTED SON TO BE A SOLDIER?

MRS. HELEN GOULD SHEPARD, FINLEY J. SHEPARD, JR.

Whether or not Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard will raise her adopted son, Finley J. Shepard, Jr., to be a soldier, the little lad certainly takes a satirically boyish interest in the doing of soldier men. That was shown at the recent annual garden party at the headquarters of the department of the east, Governors island, New York, in aid of the fund for widows and orphans of enlisted men. Master Shepard was one of the most interested spectators at the drills, maneuvers, etc. For years Mrs. Shepard, who was Helen Gould, has given time and much money to soldiers and sailors. She gave personal attention to the care of sick and convalescent soldiers during the Spanish war, contributing $50,000 for needed supplies. Photo shows Mrs. Shepard and her adopted son and Lieutenant Colonel Horton, United States army.

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

Cause furriers in furria parts
Wear furs in summer time
Our summer girls still keep it up
Sans reason and sans rhyme.

New York, June 17.—If you have a little mole on your shoulders then this summer you will be quite the thing.

Also ermine or kolinsky shoulders are more to be desired than hare shoulders, even if the bare shoulders be bare shoulders.

In plain words the summer girl prefers furs on her shoulders even to wings.

Like the snows of yesterday the snowy white foxes of last summer have vanished to give place to flat capes of unspotted ermine combined with mole-skin, entire cape collars of kolinsky, all mole ones or all ermine ones.

They are very quaint, old fashioned and bewitching so what matter if they be a bit uncomfortable when the thermometer, which is no respecter of furry fashions, begins to climb.

One lovely model of mole-skin, shaped like a little triangular shawl, is edged with fringe of chenille and in fact all these little fur shoulder capes put more things on edge than teeth.

A wide, straight piece of kolinsky that folds stiffly around the shoulders as if it were made of card board, fastens in front with two gorgeously enameled buttons and is edged in a fold of chiffon.

Yet another of mole cut like a semi-circle is finished with a tiny quilting of taupe satin and another of unspotted ermine is edged in lovely white scallops of itself.
