Civic Department at Work on Camp Grounds

The first meeting of the Civic department of the Commercial Club since the election of F. B. Southwick, director, was held last evening. The first work to be taken up will be that of arranging for camping grounds at the fair ground. It seems that the camping grounds have incurred some indebtedness and this of necessity will be first attended to by the committee especially appointed by Mr. Southwick. The committee to visit the grounds tomorrow and make note of what should be done to make it a camping grounds to attract tourists visiting through the valley is composed of Judge William Galloway, George M. Post, H. B. Thielson and F. B. Southwick.

Until the river falls about three feet, nothing can be done about the municipal bathing beach to be established between the two bridges on the Polk county side. The committee will make estimates of the cost of a stairway from the bridge to the beach and also of bathing houses.

The one cloud on the horizon when it comes to the municipal bathing beach is the warning from Judge Bushey in regard to the condition of the bridge which he believes is hardly in condition to stand the heavy traffic of hundreds of automobiles, should the beach become as popular as the island was one year ago.

The first meeting of the lately elected board of directors of the Commercial club will be held at the club rooms tomorrow noon.

Our prices are right, no reduction necessary. Gardner & Keene, jewelers and opticians.

Members of the Republican Women's club interested in Company M will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William O. Asselin, 542 North Liberty street.

While others are reducing we are increasing our stock. There's a reason ask us. Gardner & Keene, jewelers and opticians.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Penberton of 1600 South Commercial street and their daughter Mrs. Albert Bates left this morning for Marshalltown, Iowa, for a two months visit.

You can furnish your house for one half at E. L. Stiff & Son.

Weather permitting, the third Chautauqua band concert will be given this evening in Wilson park. The concert will consist of all band selections as no vocalist has been engaged for this evening.

All kinds of new and used furniture at E. L. Stiff & Son.

The Salem Commercial club will be represented at the homecoming celebration at McMinnville Friday of this week by F. G. Deckerbach who will deliver a message of good will from Salem and its commercial body.

Let us figure on your bill of furniture, we usually get the business.—E. L. Stiff & Son.

The family of the Rev. George F. Holt pastor of the First Baptist church will arrive in the city within a few days. Part of their furniture arrived yesterday. The boys of the family decided to drive their car overland, leaving Riverside yesterday.

If you are in need of lumber, builders hardware, paints, lime, etc. it would pay you to pay us a call. Falls City-Salem Lumber Co., 349 S. 12th, Phone 813.

Owing to inclement and threatening weather, the band concert due tonight has been postponed.

We have all kinds of fire works. Wholesale and retail at Kwong Yick Lung & Co., 153 S. High St., Phone 283, Salem, Oregon.

The cherry display of the annual Salem Cherry fair is wanted by Meir and Frank Co. of Portland. In a communication to the Commercial club they state that the display will be given a good location, similar to that of the roses from the Rose show and that in their opinion a proper display of the Salem cherry will be a fine advertisement for the city.

Baptist Picnic postponed. Owing to the unfavorable weather the Sunday school picnic will be postponed indefinitely.

A special meeting of the members of the Commercial club has been called by president Joseph H. Albert for Wednesday evening. Several matters of importance have developed within the last few days and for a discussion and expression of opinions, this meeting has been called. One of the subjects to come before the meeting is that of the proposed new Southern Pacific depot.

Robin D. Day, who has been called out with Co. M, has made arrangements to have his clients taken care of at his office during his absence.

J. R. Ellison, of the Ellison-White Chautauqua system, was in the city yesterday conferring with the chairman of the several committees having in charge the Salem chautauqua. He is especially well pleased with the chautauqua prospects for the season, saying that for the first time, his company will come out of California without a loss and that the prospects are very encouraging for Oregon.

Salem will have to manage to get along with eleven less attorneys, now that Company M has mobilized at Clackamas. The profession is represented in the company by the following (legal lights): Captain Max Gehlbart; Lieutenant Dana H. Allen; Lieutenant Walter L. Spaulding; Sergeant H. F. Melstorf; Sergeant R. C. Wygant; Corporal A. A. Hall and the following privates: John H. Carson, Robin D. Day, Ralph D. Moore, Charles Z. Randall and Arthur J. Reinhardt.

Dr. H. L. Deimel of San Francisco, who is interested in the development of the flax industry in the valley, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. William P. Lord. He will return to Eugene this evening. This afternoon he was in conference with Theodore Roth, director of the industrial department of the Commercial club. The interest of Dr. Deimel in the flax industry comes from the fact that he is interested in knitting mills in different parts of the country.

Along with the other weeping and sorrowful folks at the Southern Pacific depot this morning when the boys left for the front at Clackamas, was Eddie Hansen, the mascot and bugler of the company. Eddie had a good right to weep which he did along with the others from the fact that he was obliged to stay at home while the rest of the boys of Company M were leaving. Unfortunately for Eddie, the army regulations make no provision for mascots.

The police department today is host to three men who were picked up on the streets of the business district. Byron Tigerstrand and R. Wagner are charged with vagrancy, while Fred Brown is booked on a charge of drunkenness.

H. Steinbock is today trying to reach an estimate of the loss caused him in the burning of the old N. Commercial street church on the banks of the mill creek. Flames last night irreparably damaged the building and a large stock of rags stored in it. Steinbock has used the structure as a store house for woolen rags which he is collecting for shipment east.

The ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps and other patriotic organizations who have undertaken to make comfort bags or "housewives" for every member of Company M, are today making the rounds of the stores completing their purchases of materials. Tomorrow they will assemble in the company rooms at the armory and will meet daily until the full number of bags is completed.

Strangely silent the armory seems now in comparison with the noise incidental to the mobilization activities of the soldier boys. The big drill hall resembles a battle field with the unnecessary articles left behind by the boys. Upstairs the quartermaster's department is denuded of clothing and other supplies while in the locker rooms the gun racks are empty and the lockers are without uniforms.

That patriotism is not dead was made patent during the recruiting for Company M shortly before it entrained this morning. A man fifty years old pleaded to be allowed to go with the boys to Clackamas but was turned down. Thinking that expense might have something to do with the refusal the applicant offered to foot every bill himself if Uncle Sam would only take him and feed him while with the colors. Until the reserve is called out recruiting will be confined to the younger men.

Hal Hibbard camp, Spanish-American War veterans, and the Hal Hibbard auxiliary have taken notice of the prompt and effective manner in which Company M was mobilized following the call to the colors Sunday. O. H. Carson, L. B. Davis and Harvey Wells were the resolutions committee of Hal Hibbard camp while the committee representing the auxiliary was composed of Mrs. F. H. Southwick, Mrs. Ruth Brant and Mrs. J. R. Chenoweth.

Salem business men are courteous and generous with their window space according to the "back-up" man of the Ellison-White chautauqua who is in the city putting out advertising. Word has been received by Mr. Herbsman that in many localities their advance advertisers had not been accorded much space from business houses, but it seems that in Salem he was not only courteously received, but merchants were glad to assist in advancing the interests of the summer chautauqua.

GUM—THE ATHLETE'S HOPE
Friends of the renowned baseball player, Christy Mathewson, assert that at least some measure of his uneasy imperturbability in the pitcher's box is due to his steady use of chewing gum while playing, says the Chicago Herald. His poise and calmness under all conditions have attracted the attention of all observers who have beheld him at work. Throughout his fifteen years of service he has been hailed times without number as the greatest of pitchers and as the man who had more control of the ball than any other hurler before him or during his reign.

Those who know him best believe that he relies a great deal for his self-command when the pinch comes upon chewing gum. Certain it is that when the exciting moments come and the fate of one thrown ball may decide the whole issue his jaws can be seen to crush the chewing gum steadily and resolutely. And a glance at the records of the "old master" for the long stretch of his service will show that he has not usually chewed in vain.

Verily, little things oftentimes mean much, and the humble stick of chewing gum doeth a great work.

Busick & Sons Sell Business at Donald

During the past few days at least two business changes of considerable importance have been made, each of which will have more or less influence upon the commercial activity of Donald and vicinity.

The first of these changes was the purchase of the J. L. Busick & Sons store by Pilscock Bros., recent arrivals from Vancouver, Wash. The sale was made several days ago, but it was not until the first of last week that Mr. Pilscock took possession of his new purchase.

G. A. Pilscock will be in charge of the business, and he moved his family here several days ago. J. L. Busick has been manager of the establishment ever since it started. He has moved his family to Salem and will give his entire time to the mercantile business there. This is a most estimable family and the people of Donald are loath to give them up, but what is our loss is Salem's gain.—Donald Record.

50,000 HORSES AND MULES TO BE BOUGHT

Quartermaster Ordered to Purchase This Number at Once

San Antonio Texas June 20.—General Funston announced today that the quartermaster's department at Fort Sam Houston has been ordered by the war department to purchase 50,000 horses and mules for the national guard.

They will be assembled in various stations throughout the country. Bids will be advertised for at once.

Funston was asked by the war department to indicate how many horses and mules he wants at once. He said he wired a request for a certain number but declined to state the exact figures. It is believed however he has asked for at least 60,000, perhaps more. The troops will be distributed from the Gulf of Mexico to California—a brigade here and there, the remainder at other points.

No indication is given as to what militia will be called here first, but it is believed the New York and Illinois contingents will receive the initial orders.
