By ALINE THOMPSON

Of marked interest to Salem society will be the wedding of Miss Harriet Ethel Hargrove and William S. Walton, which will take place tomorrow in Corvallis at the Episcopal church.

The bride's sister, Miss Vivian Hargrove will be bride's maid and Paul Wallace will be best man. The wedding will be a small simple affair, only relatives and a few close friends being asked.

Although Miss Hargrove and Mr. Walton have been engaged for some time, the news of their marriage Tuesday will no doubt be a great surprise to their many friends.

The bride who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. M. Smith in Corvallis for several months is the daughter of Mrs. T. L. Hargrove. She is an attractive and accomplished girl with a charming manner that has endeared her to a host of friends.

Mr. Walton is of an old and well-known Salem family, a son of Mrs. Mary E. Walton. He holds one of the most responsible positions in Ladd and Bush's bank, having through his business ability attained his present position as cashier.

After a months wedding trip to California the young couple will be at home to their friends in the Court apartments.

Miss Winifred Byrd has recently returned to her Salem home after a year's musical study in New York.

THOUSANDS OF SICK WOMEN

Helped Every Year by Common Sense Suggestions Given Free by The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

For forty years women suffering from all kinds of female ills have been writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Thus they receive common sense suggestions drawn from a vast world of experience, and thousands of sick women have been saved from untold suffering, as letters like the following clearly show:

Newark, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman. Your Sanative Wash is just the thing to overcome female weakness. I have told young mothers as well as older ones about your remedies, and what they have done for me. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, as my health was very bad when I wrote you, but now I can do my own work and have not had a sick day since I began taking your remedies. I keep the Compound and Liver Pills on hand all the time."—Mrs. GEO. THOMPSON, 24 Sherwood Court, Newark, Ohio.

Why don't you write for free advice? Address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

San Francisco, June 26.—Striking longshoremen and water front employees will meet here today with Henry M. White, federal arbitrator, in another effort to settle the labor trouble which crippled commerce along the coast and caused two deaths in shooting affairs.

It was reported that the employers were ready to offer the strikers a compromise. The longshoremen demanded 55 cents an hour straight time and $1 an hour overtime. Employers are said to offer 55 cents an hour and 82 cents for over time. This, it was understood, will not be satisfactory to the stevedores.

The Toyo Kisen Kaisha company may withdraw from the Waterfront Employers Union so it can escape being affected by a strike directed against that organization. Authority from Tokio for the withdrawal is being awaited. The Toyo lines are under Japanese government subsidy and must run on schedule time. An independent settlement with the strikers may be made by the oriental line. This would be considered a smashing victory.

Until the trouble is settled the Great Northern Pacific and Great Northern will not carry freight between here and Portland, conveying passengers only.

Philomath Saturday to attend the round-up.

Those included in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vick and E. T. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Fleming was the week end guest of her mother, Mrs. Frank Vergen of Donald.

Miss Mary Fischer was the week end guest of friends in Eugene. Miss Fischer expects to leave soon for Ann Arbor, Mich., where she will enter the university in the fall. She will be accompanied by her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Richard F. Fischer.

A group of Eugene folks motored to Salem yesterday. They were en route to Clackamas, but on account of the inclement weather remained here over night.

The party included Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Miss Maude Morris and Miss Lucile Dunn.

About a dozen Salem folks made up a party Sunday and motored to Jordan valley for an all day picnic, but the dampness made it necessary for them to return to the home of Mrs. R. K. Page for dinner.

Those composing the party were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Staley, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shand, Mrs. L. K. Page, Mrs. Mary Hofer, Miss Florence McKenzie, Paul Staley and his guest Harry Roberts of Hood River.

An informal Kensington will be given on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles McIntire, in Fairmont for the Aid society of the Leslie M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burtges of Ashland, California, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Burtges. Mr. and Mrs. Burtges are en route home from an extended trip through the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rowe and small daughter Katherine returned today from Philomath where they attended the round-up. They were the guests of Mrs. Rowe's mother, Mrs. W. H. Bowles.

At the residence of Mrs. L. K. Page the members of the order of the Eastern Star will be entertained with an informal afternoon Tuesday. The affair was originally planned to take place on the lawn, but owing to the inclemency of the weather the hostesses have arranged to have it indoors.

The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Page, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. O. N. Derby, Mrs. N. C. Petrus, Mrs. O. B. Schmalzrieder and Miss Mabelte Page.

All guests of members are asked for the affair.

Word was received in the city this afternoon of the death of A. G. Newsum at the St. Vincent's hospital, Portland. He had been ill for several days, although the immediate cause of his death was a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Newsum was well known in Salem, having been in the drug business until about four years ago. He had recently been married to Miss Hazel Taylor, former cashier of the Oregon theatre and they were making their home in Portland. The body will arrive tomorrow, in care of Bigdon & Richardson. No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

The Commercial club will show considerable signs of activity this evening. A meeting has been called by president Joseph H. Albert for a discussion of the proposed petition limiting the taxing powers of all taxing bodies, a measure supported by the State Taxpayers' League. The Salem Floral society will also hold its semi-monthly meeting, making arrangements for decorating the armory, and the Roth memory class will meet for the first time. Other affairs in the city include the called meeting of the city council and the regular meeting of the school board of directors.

"Cerezo" the substitute for coffee, manufactured in Salem, will be handled in a wholesale way and as general agents by a large Portland concern. This company had "Cerezo" thoroughly tested and chemically analyzed before entering into a contract to push its sale. The officers of the home company are Dr. F. C. Hagel, president; M. Hillister, secretary and treasurer, and Wilson Mann acting as one of the board of directors.

On account of the damp weather, the municipal playgrounds in the Albert pasture for the children was not officially opened today. Several boys were on the grounds cleaning up the underbrush and getting things in shape. The grounds will not be officially opened until better weather arrives.

The public service commission is today mailing notices and blanks to the various utility companies of the state on which the annual reports are to be made. These are due before August 1, and are for the year ending June 30.

the twenty-third Illinois district in congress. He had resided in Oregon since 1888 when he settled in Dayton. He moved to Monmouth in 1906. Mr. Foster lacked five months of being 90 years old, having been born in Clark county, Indiana, November 18, 1826. His father was of English parentage and his mother of Kentucky stock, emigrating to that state in the days of Boone.

The Fosters moved to Edwards county, Illinois, in 1844. He soon after made the acquaintance of Mr. Lincoln and supported him in his campaign for congress. In 1873 Mr. Foster followed the Greeley movement out of the Republican party and was an unsuccessful candidate for the Illinois state senate. Since that time he posed as an independent Republican.

For more than 70 years Mr. Foster was a member of the Christian church and for 50 years he was a member of the Masonic lodge.

Pershing's main command, on retirement toward El Valle was attacked and not taken seriously. This movement north conforms with Carranza's order to General Trevino to oppose any advance, south, east or west.

The consensus of opinion by high military officers, government reporters, representatives and other authorities here is Carranza cannot yield to President Wilson's virtual ultimatum without being deposed by the de-facto army chiefs. Should Carranza concede the demands, he will meet Francisco Madero's fate, in the opinion of those familiar with the situation.

General George Bell, Jr., has pitched several camps in El Paso to protect the city from surprise attack on any quarter. There are fewer than 600 armed soldiers in Junaco but 1000 Mexican civilians doing picket duty in the boundary line.

Dickson of San Luis Potosi called on Punston for a short conference shortly before noon.

The idea that Captain Boyd was at least partly as the aggressive was voiced by a cabinet officer today. He said, however, he felt the crux of the situation was in the demands on Carranza's action regarding the holding of American prisoners and his future attitude toward the United States.

The American demand made yesterday upon Carranza for release of the prisoners at Chihuahua City and definition of Carranza's attitude is now in Mexico City.

Cousin Rodgers reported he was making efforts last night to deliver it, but probably would have to defer delivery until today. Rodgers indicated he had received no indications of Carranza's attitude toward the last two notes.

Found in Ranch House.
Columbus, N. M., June 26.—Hiding in the ranch house of an American named McCabe, nine miles from Carrizal, Captain Lewis S. Morey, wounded, was found by Major Jenkins and a cavalry relief column, according to official advices received here today.

Morey and the remnants of his Troop K took refuge in an adobe house almost within the Carrizal lines at Carrizal.

The Americans left in small groups to increase their chances of escaping safely. Morey and four troopers remained until night when they started out to reach the American lines. Morey lost so much blood that he was forced to give up and ordered his men to leave him. Later Morey rallied and made his way to McCabe's house.

According to the latest official estimates, the Americans lost 23 killed in the Carrizal fight.

Waiting for the Word
El Paso, Texas, June 26.—The border today awaited the last diplomatic moves before war with Mexico is formally begun. Convinced that war is inevitable, immediate interest centered in the removal of the American expedition advanced base from Namiquis to El Valle and in Carranza's reply to President Wilson's latest demands.

Private advices stated that General

Twenty in Hospital
Several wounded American soldiers, taken to Fort Bliss last night from Columbus, brought the total number now in the fort hospital as the result of Mexican sniping to 20. The wounded state that organized bands of snipers were encountered all along the communication lines. Their fire has always been returned, but with what effect was not learned.

The base hospital of the United States armies in Mexico and along the border will be established at Marfa, Texas, it was learned here today. The 5th cavalry is stationed there as present, but Marfa probably will be made the principal base of the American forces, if intervention comes.

The military hospital at Fort Bliss is being enlarged to accommodate 175 patients.

El Paso expects 20,000 militiamen to be stationed in the vicinity of the city. The Illinois national guard is mentioned among the militia forces coming here.

COMPANY H MUSTERED IN THIS MORNING

Lieutenant Spaulding Will Go With Battalion As Its Quartermaster

Camp Withycombe, Clackamas, Or., June 26.—Company H of the Third Regiment, Captain Leo A. J. Pironi, was mustered into the federal service shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. The oath was administered by Captain K. H. Williams, mustering-in officer. Governor Withycombe and members of his party witnessed the ceremony. A total of 81 men, including officers, was mustered in.

Governor Withycombe, with several members of his family, paid a visit to the camp and lunched at the officers' mess.

"I simply came down to see the program of the mobilization," said the governor.

Second Lieutenant Walter L. Spaulding of Salem, quartermaster of the Third battalion, will be permitted to accompany his battalion, although at first rejected by the examining surgeons for defective eyesight. Captain Williams took up Spaulding's case with the war department at Washington and was informed that Lieutenant Spaulding could be accepted. He is a son of C. K. Spaulding, well known lumberman of Salem. Captain C. L. Hotchkies, regimental adjutant, Captain Henry Hoskenoy, quartermaster, and Major M. B. Marcellus, medical corps, have been mustered into the federal service.
