Rural Carriers and Mail Clerks Meet

Oregon City, Or., June 26.—Two hundred delegates of the Oregon branches of the United National Association of Postal Clerks, the National Association of Letter Carriers and the Association of Rural Carriers gathered in Oregon City today for the annual convention. Many were accompanied by their wives, and the total number was about 400. Mayor Hackett welcomed the visitors. The day was a busy one, each association holding a separate convention. Two met in the Commercial Club building, while the city carriers convened in the Oddfellows' Hall.

Albany was selected as the next meeting place for the associations, and the conventions will be held on the last Saturday in June, 1917. The mail clerks re-elected Carl Joehake, of this city, president. Other officers named were: P. T. Harris, of Portland, vice-president; J. H. Butler, of Portland, secretary-treasurer; S. B. Dodge, of Newberg, state organizer; E. R. Lemmonson, of The Dalles, sergeant; W. H. Worrell, of Albany, member of the state executive board; Carl Joehake, of Oregon City, delegate to the Washington state convention, to be held at Anacortes July 3, 4 and 5.

Oregon City Carrier Elected. The letter carriers, too, re-elected an Oregon City man president of their association. John L. Etchison, D. R. Grish, of Astoria, was elected vice-president, and Fred P. Palm, of Portland, was named secretary-treasurer to serve another term. Officers for the coming year of the rural carriers' association were elected as follows: President, L. H. Peak, of Monroe; first vice-president, E. E. Selek, of Boyl; second vice-president, L. D. Howard, of Portland; secretary-treasurer, M. E. Willis, of Yamhill; member of executive committee, E. B. Cornett, of Albany; delegate to the National convention at Chicago in August, R. W. Smith, of Springfield.

The rural carriers had about 60 delegates, and the clerks' and city carriers' associations had about 70 each. A notable feature of the meeting of the rural carriers was the purchase of a beautiful American flag which will be displayed at all meetings of the association. The flag was bought and presented by E. E. Chittman, of Gresham, an old soldier, who delivered a stirring patriotic address as he passed the National banner to the president.

Ferdinand F. Schultz, pastor of the Church of Christ, Disciples, Chillicothe, Ohio—a practical engineer as well as minister. In offering his services the Rev. Schultz expressed willingness to serve in the fire room of a battleship, or as chaplain of marines in the field. The patriotic and versatile Ohio pastor is 57 years of age, but says he is hale and hearty and ready to respond to a call to serve "Old Glory" at any time.

COMPANY M TO START IN MIDDLE OF WEEK

Ordered To Go Today. But This Is Countermanded, —Thursday Probably

Captain Max Gehlhar of Company M spent the morning in the city returning to Clackamas on the 1:27 train this afternoon. The troops, from the time they leave camp until they arrive at San Diego, will make their home on the special train, doing their cooking and eating on board.

At Salem the train will probably stop long enough for the ovation which it is planned to give the boys. Every man is in excellent spirits, says Gehlhar, and eager to get where they are things doing. A few of the lads are in Salem today having their teeth attended to before they leave for the border.

The troops will not pass through Salem today. It is not considered probable that they will do so before Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

Captain Kenneth P. Williams, mustering officer at Camp Withycombe, received word yesterday from Washington that the Third battalion of infantry equipped at Camp M, I, I and K were to entrain not later than noon today for San Diego, Cal., there to await disposition on the border.

Captain Williams asked for further time as needed equipment had not yet arrived. Salem people had planned to be at the Southern Pacific depot in numbers to welcome the soldiers. All the lads who left with Company M as guardsmen last week are now federal soldiers with the exception of six who could not quite satisfy the examining physician.

For some days past the S. P. has anticipated orders from Washington to get ready to handle large bodies of men on short notice. Yesterday 20 or more coaches went through this city on the way to Clackamas. The order to move, coming from Washington, found the railroad entirely prepared to handle or accept all demands upon it.

A good sized demonstration had been planned at the depot. The various civic bodies of the city were stirring themselves in the matter and were planning on giving the soldier boys a welcome as they passed through Salem that would keep their thoughts here long after they are across the border.

Postponement of the departure of the Third battalion will allow the Commercial club and other bodies time to perfect their plans and there is going to be a rousing sendoff when the hour that the troop train goes through is definitely known.

'Loganberry Jim' Works in Minneapolis, Minn.

"Did you ever hear of 'Loganberry Jim' Fullerton?" is the opening sentence of a new story in the Minneapolis Morning Tribune on June 14, concerning Eugene's most ardent loganberry booster, who is traveling in the middle west for a Salem firm that makes the loganberry juice and ships the evaporated berries.

The story continues: "Well, he climbed off a train in Minneapolis yesterday and gradually unburdened himself of his several claims to fame. "His first announcement was that he is the original 'anti-Roosevelt' man."

"Loganberry Jim" says he had quite a hot session with Mr. Roosevelt these many years ago when he called at the White House to protest against the sale of liquor in Yellowstone park. It seems that at the time a friend of the president's was in charge of the park, and the president didn't like the way 'Loganberry Jim' talked about that friend, and 'Loganberry Jim' did not like the way the president stuck up for his friend.

"Following that Mr. Fullerton wrote a book entitled 'The Autobiography of Roosevelt's Adversary,' and had Roosevelt been nominated by the republicans at Chicago last week, 'Loganberry Jim' says he would have cashed in heavily on the sale of this book.

"Furthermore," says 'Loganberry Jim,' it was he, and no other, who stopped the slaughter of elk and buffalo in Yellowstone park. The elk, he says, were being slain in wholesale for their teeth and the buffaloes for their hides and steaks.

ESTELLE WILSON IS

Lodge to Celebrate

Too much credit cannot be given to the energetic and bustling queen committee of which the Rev. James Elvin is chairman, acting with George H. Watson, J. H. Lauterman, Miss Mattie F. Boaty and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton. This committee showed signs of having real life in it the first day of its appointment, and since then it has been working so energetically that today it brought to close the most successful voting contest ever held in Salem. After defraying the expenses of printing and the purchase of proper recognition goods for the queen and entertainment for the day, the remainder of the fund will be placed at the disposal of the publicity department of the Commercial club, having the Cherry fair in charge.

The Moose and lodges associated with it in naming the queen, the United Artisans, Woodmen of the World and Modern Woodmen will hold a jubilee tomorrow evening at the Moose lodge in the way of an open house affair to which all are invited.

And for the next few days, the queen-elect will be devoting part of her time to the selection of the proper reinment for the Queen of the Cherry fair.

Germans Take Prisoners

Berlin, June 26.—In most stubborn fighting west of Sokul, the Germans have inflicted defeats on the Russians. The war office announced this afternoon. In the fighting since June 15, the Germans have taken 61 Russian officers, 11,097 men, two cannon and 54 machine guns.

Harder Words Spelled By Many Contestants

Rickreall, Ore., June 26.—The results of the annual Polk county spelling contest, announced last week by Superintendent W. I. Reynolds, show a big gain over last year for accuracy in word structure. The lists of 50 words which were sent out at regular intervals four times during the year contained more difficult words. Comparison with early contests shows that sixth grade pupils this year spelled harder words than did eighth grade pupils three years ago.

For class A schools having more than six rooms Dallas is winner with a mark of 98.4; Monmouth is second with 98.1; Independence third with 97.3.

Results for class B schools with two to five rooms: First place, Buena Vista, 99.4; second place, Smithfield, Ballston, 98.9; third, Perrydale, 96.8.

Onk Point winner in class C, one-room schools, had an average of 100 per cent. Crowley had 99.7 for second place and Goooseuck 97.9 for third place.

The contest was not limited to certain county schools where conditions were most favorable. All pupils above the second grade in all Polk county schools participated. With the rise of the country pupils in spelling the town pupils have struggled to keep their own averages high.

Onk Point winner in class C, one-room schools, had an average of 100 per cent. Crowley had 99.7 for second place and Goooseuck 97.9 for third place.

The U. S. department of agriculture, through its weather bureau, will issue fire weather warnings, which will be posted in all postoffices. These warnings are especially for those camping out in the forests and contain suggestions as to the proper way to camp as well as fight forest fires.
