American movement, the present crisis between the United States and Mexico is regarded as a vital test of the principles for which the powers of the American have been atriving.

Strife between nations of the American would be regarded by them as virtual civil war. They point out that every treaty negotiated between European powers has fallen apart. With all the rest of the world divided, they contend that the American must present a united front, the nations of the two continents must join interests—diplomatically, commercially and industrial ly. War between any two of the American nutions would mean an immediate division into groups, thus weakening the

The reports and quick movement of troops from the Columbus base camp caused the greatest excitement early today. Rumors that the field relegraph line south had been cut proved unfounded.

An aeroplane at General Pershing's headquarters is expected to make a reconnaisance flight around Guzman to investigate the reports.

Guzman is only 20 miles from the resent American communication lines. Believing rumors that war was in progress between Mexico and the United States, 50 Mexican laborers in zinc mines north of Columbus quit and returned to Mexico.
