NOT LIKE HUGHES

"It is impossible to imagine Mr. Hughes as president writing a message to congress demanding a great war credit and instant moval and military preparation for a war with Ger-many because of the invasion of Belgium or the destruction of the Lusi tania. The utmost stretch of fancy does not amble us to see him asking congress to declare war on Mexico. The picture would be wholly imaginary false to the man and the occasion. "Yet the republicans have absolute ly no other issue upon which with any degree of force and consistency they can demand of the people a with-drawal of their confidence in President Wilson. That issue they dare not raise. They condemn, they denounce, they use freely the adjectives of the inngonge, but their nours and verbs
