Bethel News

(Capital Journal Special Service)
Bethel, Or., June 30.—The party in Mr. Nichols new barn Thursday night was well attended, there being seventy guests present. Party games and two steps were the feature of the evening. Ed Schulz furnished the music, playing his accordion. Lunch was served at twelve and the party broke up at about two o'clock.
The dance Saturday night was a swell affair. There were twenty-eight couples on the floor at one time and the total number present must have been close to one hundred fifty. The game Sunday between Geer and West Stayton was a punk affair. West Stayton got the long end of the score. The game next Sunday will be with South Salem at South Salem on the Fairmount grounds.
Charles Nelson of Canada has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Page.

Some of the neighbors are in the midst of the cherry harvest and they as well as the haymakers are duly thankful (?) for this cool moist weather.
There is a move on foot to get a new school house for Bethel. The school board recently received a petition asking them to call a bond election for that purpose. Accordingly notices have been posted and the bond election will be held Thursday July 13 between the hours of 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. It is estimated that the new school house can be built for about $2500, but part of the work may have to be donated. A thorough canvass of the situation has convinced us that the effort to get a new school house has a good chance to be successful. It certainly deserves to be, for the old house is in a bad state of disrepair and no amount of patching would ever make it anything more than just an old shack. It is to be hoped that every loyal citizen of Bethel will be a booster for his own community to the extent of helping to secure this much needed improvement.
Albert Vanderbeck passed the recent eighth grade examinations. Although the Vanderbecks live in district No. 59 they have been attending our school for the past two years.

Under the terms of the contract $13,000 was to have been paid within a period that has just expired. Moore asked the state if he could still protect his contract even though the time limit had been passed. The board decided that if the payment is made at once it will consider the contract still binding. Should the money not be forthcoming and the contract becomes void a first payment of $10,000 is forfeited to the state.
On the evening of July 8 the state desert land board will leave Salem for a tour of inspection embracing eastern Oregon, the Harney valley and other sections. The purpose is to inspect the nitrate deposits, and various irrigation and drainage projects.
From Salem the board goes direct to Ontario and Burns. In this section are found the nitrate beds. Eastern capitalists have become interested in these and have made offers to the state for the privilege of working them. The board feels that it needs first hand information before entering into any contracts.

The irrigation and drainage projects in the Harney valley will receive attention next. On the return trip the board will look over the Central Oregon project, visiting Alkali Lake and Bend. The trip, it is expected, will require a week.
