

WAGS-THE DOG THAT ADOPTED A MAN

International Cartoon Co., N. Y.

Willamette Valley News

Silverton Items

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
 Silverton, Ore., July 1.—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lytle enjoyed a visit from their daughter Mrs. Steve Dale and baby who left for their home at Hood River Wednesday.
 Mrs. Frank Howell came from Hood River to visit her sister Mrs. Reveal at the Silverton Lumber company's camp.
 T. J. Coste and family of Grand Valley, Ore., spent Friday and Saturday at the home of the former's sisters, Mrs. C. C. Amos and Mrs. Al. Nick.
 Mrs. C. C. Amos is a prominent rancher of Sherman county and made the trip overland via the Columbia highway.
 The Loyal Woman and Loyal Women's classes of the Christian church are to hold a joint meeting in the park on Thursday afternoon of this week. The weather permitting, but if it is raining they will meet in the parlors of the church where a business session followed by a social time will be held.
 At six o'clock a luncheon will be served at which the husbands are all invited. A good time is being planned.
 Rev. William Kaffman departed for Utah the first of the week where he will be in attendance at a church conference.
 Miss Adella Hollinger of Portland who has been the guest of Miss Sophia Mendenhall the past two weeks left for home last Saturday.
 Miss Sarah Kaser spent the past week with friends in Portland.
 Mrs. George Morley and daughter Miss Alva were quite ill the first of the week with a severe case of tonsillitis.
 The intermediate boys of the Christian church have a party Tuesday night in honor of the girls of the intermediate class. Many games were played and an ice cream supper was served for these merry maids. Miss Tallman and E. E. Webb their teachers were chaperones on this happy occasion.
 The Moses Dorn and Louise Henriksen of Portland are spending a month at the K. Jensen home.
 The young ladies Serving Society of the second church were entertained by Mrs. A. B. White at her home last Saturday. Refreshments were served and a pleasant and profitable afternoon passed.
 Morton Hicks is reported very ill at the home of his father P. Hicks on N. Water street.
 Miss Jessie Hartley went to Mouth to attend the summer school at the state normal.
 George Moley is up around again after a very serious illness the past week.
 Henry Word returned Monday from Albany where he has been visiting his daughter since the O. A. R. encampment.

Elbert Wray and Claude Slade motored down to Clatskanie Monday.
 The Alex Kuntson and O. E. Selva families motored to Portland Sunday and enjoyed a trip up the Columbia highway.
 Miss Nina Smith accompanied by her nephew Eugene Thomas left for Spokane, Washington, the past week where they will spend the summer with relatives.
 Johnny Mader spent the week end at the Storts home in Brownsville, going upon his motorcycle Friday and returning Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lipson delightfully entertained the young people of the neighborhood at their pleasant home west of this city last Saturday evening. Games and music was enjoyed until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Everyone had a good time. Those present were: Sophia Mader, Frances Burdman, Marcel Dahl, Veretta Kaser, Elsie, Irene and Mrs. Lipson, Ted Finley, Johnny Mader, Russell Thompson, Carl Hubbard, Emil Lign, Ludwig Moo, Harold Hoop and Max Hubbs.
 W. E. Robinson returned home from Clatskanie Saturday. Mr. Robinson was one of the Woodburn militia who were called to report for service but on account of his business interests here he received an honorable discharge.
 A letter from Mrs. Digness, who left for a visit with relatives in South Dakota the past week, tells of the safe arrival at Sioux Falls and a pleasant journey enroute.
 Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Miss Nellie Bushkin and Fred Cavender among the Silvertonites to motor to Clatskanie Tuesday to see the boys who were to leave for the Mexican border.
 James Bonner has been duly chosen as superintendent of the Christian Sunday school to succeed Garden McCull. James is a boy with much experience in bible school work and just the right man for the place.
 Ben Hofstetter is building a beautiful new home in the Porter hills for Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lorenz.
 Mrs. Fanny Bowers of the Ros restaurant went to Woodburn Saturday where she was the guest at the Rev. Lewis' home. From there she went to Clatskanie to see her son Harvey who left for Mexico Wednesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Service who have been visiting relatives in Kennesaw, Washington, returned home the last of the week.
 Mrs. W. R. Robinson entertained her friend Miss Opal Anderson of Woodburn for the week end.
 Miss Etta Lang came from Sublimity the first of the week to visit Silverton friends.
 P. C. Verasen is head salesman at the Nola Degerness store, while Otto Leonard is away on a vacation. Mr. Iverson is a dry goods salesman of wide experience.

 Mr. and Mrs. John Egginson, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Egginson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fuller, Miss Emma Egginson, and Miss Helen Parsonson motored up from Portland Sunday to spend the day at the home of the Egginson brothers sister, Mrs. Sam Kaser, west of this city. This event was in the form of a reunion, the other guests being Albert and Robt Egginson also A. W. Farnsworth and daughter Miss Rita. A very enjoyable day was passed and a bounteous dinner was boned justice to by these hungry travelers.
PICNIC AT WOLFER'S GROVE
 The Sunday school picnic held last Friday by the Monitor, Smyrna and Hubbard schools at Wolfer's park was just one long day of joy and good time for all those who participated. Coming with well filled baskets and tremendous appetites, but they had plenty for all and the noon hour passed merrily and all too quick. The afternoon was spent first with games and some ball playing after which a short program was rendered, all participants doing exceptionally fine work. The program was as follows:
 Song, "America."
 Recitation, "She Stood at the Bar of Justice," William Hoffman, of Smyrna.
 Song, Alma Kenner of Smyrna.
 Recitation, Anita Stevens.
 Vocal duet, "Little Rosebuds," by Carmine Scholl, Anitta Stevens.
 Recitation, "Resignation," by Mae Greenlee.
 Song, "Soldiers of the King," by the Junior Choir.
 Address by Rev. J. M. Price, of Monitor.
 Recitation, by Ernest Stoepfer, of Smyrna.
 Song, "Blest Be the Tie."
 After the program there was a ball game between a mixed bunch of boys and girls, most of the girls proving strong and able ball players. It is planned to hold another picnic later in the summer or early fall at Monitor or Smyrna.—Hubbard Enterprise.

VISITED THE FALLS
 Mrs. O. P. Overton and her Sunday school class returned on the Elst from having a real jolly time at Silver Creek Falls, having left here the Monday before. They hiked it to the falls from Silverton, a distance of 15 miles, and back again. It poured rain, but that didn't dampen their spirits in the least. The caught fish and had them cooked almost before the fish got over their wiggles. Everybody was their own cook and there were funny incidents galore. The members of the class were Ofa Boyles, Jessie Hicks, Ida Schermer, Gertrude Brown, Esther Doud and Vera Christie, Glenn Gilbert and Alva Simmons hailed the provisions by team to the camp.—Woodburn Independent.

Dallas Items

Dallas, July 1.—Charles Canfield, a resident of this county living on Dallas R. P. D. No. 1, filed his application for citizenship papers with the county clerk this week. Mr. Canfield is a native of England and came to this country in 1871.
Club Donates $150
 At a meeting of the board of directors of the Dallas Commercial club Wednesday evening a telegram was ordered sent to Captain Conrad Starlin, commander of the Dallas militia company authorizing him to draw on the club for the amount of $50 for a big feed for the boys as soon as possible after their arrival at San Diego. A sum of $100 was also ordered drawn in favor of the company for the fund that is being raised in the county for militia.
To Organize Rifle Club
 A meeting is on foot among the business men of this city to form a rifle club and any citizen of the community who is interested in rifle shooting is asked to join. These clubs are becoming very popular throughout the country. They are in no way connected with the national guard or regular army but afford an opportunity for the business men to become acquainted with the use of the army rifle. Arms and ammunition are furnished by the government and all target practice is done under the rules of the National Rifle association. In Salem an association has been formed with a membership of 150.
Big Picnic July Fourth
 The Polk county Grangers and the Farmers' Union will hold a big picnic at the Rickreall grove on July 4. An excellent program has been prepared. Several speakers of prominence will address the assembly. The afternoon will be devoted to sports with a ball game between two county teams.
Patriotic Concert
 The Dallas band will give a patriotic concert tomorrow evening on the court house lawn at which time committees will circulate petitions among the crowd for signers for the fund being raised for them. Rev. McConnell of the Christian church will be in charge of Camp Fire girls who will take in contributions. A large crowd of Independence and Monthmouth people have signified their intention of coming over to the concert and helping with the fund. The local militia company is composed of boys from every city in the county and the citizens of all communities are asked to contribute as much as possible to the fund being raised for them. Rev. McConnell of the Christian church will address the assembly before the concert telling the purpose of the fund.
 J. C. Talbot of Polk City, chairman of the republican county central committee was a Dallas business visitor Thursday.
 Fred E. Keast, a representative of the Ellison-White chautauque system is in the city looking after business for his concern.

 Judge H. H. Belt held a short session of the circuit court in McMinnville this week. L. D. Brown who is acting court reporter during the absence of Miss Blanche Barrett, who is visiting in Chicago, accompanied him.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill have returned to their home in Portland after a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Campbell on Washington street.
 Marshal Blessing has returned to his home in Portland after a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Blessing.
 Mrs. Winnie Braden was called to Portland Wednesday by the death of her father.
 Rev. George H. Bennett of the Methodist church is in Yamhill this week attending a district conference of the Methodist church.
 Miss Alice Tanscott left this week for a visit with relatives in Chicago and Philadelphia. She expects to be gone most of the summer.
 Dr. E. M. Hollworth of Polk City was a Dallas visitor Wednesday.
 Miss Gertrude Robinson of Salem was a guest this week of Miss Georgia Shaw.
 Mrs. Stella Butler of Seattle is a guest this week at the home of relatives on Washington street.
 The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will hold a social this evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. McKenzie on Jefferson street.
 Oscar Riekle, an employee of the local Southern Pacific office has been promoted to night operator at Hugo. Mr. Riekle took the examination for operator last week and passed successfully.
WOODBURN GIRL MARRIED.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKee and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKee attended the wedding of the former's daughter in Portland Wednesday afternoon. The wedding was at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ada Hill, 20 E. 10th street north, the ceremony being at 1 o'clock. The happy couple took the Shasta Limited in the afternoon and will spend their two months honeymoon at Los Angeles. The bride formerly resided in Woodburn and is a lovely girl. The fortunate man is a rail road mail clerk on the O. V. R. & N. run between Portland and Spokane. He is a man of good principles and it is a match of a well matched couple. The Independent joins in felicitations. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKee will make their home in Portland.—Woodburn Independent.

"COMFORTS" FOR THE BOYS.
 Yesterday the members of St. Mary's Episcopal Guild purchased material and are making bonnie's for all the members of Company L now on the border. Contributions of money, a dime or more, for furnishing these little bonnie's with needles, buttons and thread, will be thankfully received, all money at the Independent office for the president of the Guild, Mrs. Frank Wolf.—Woodburn Independent.

Stayton Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
 Stayton, Ore., July 1.—Miss Mabel Gardner took to the road up at Philomath.
 Flowers, Gardner, from Forest Grove, Ore., and nephew of Councilman J. K. Gardner, have been visiting here.
 Mrs. Katharine Davis, of Victoria, B. C., is expected shortly to visit Stayton friends.
 Walter Bright is home in Stayton after several weeks spent in the Tillamook country.
 E. D. Alexander, the newly appointed postmaster here, has returned from a visit to Junction City relatives. He is the recipient of many congratulations upon his securing of the government position.
 Grandma Van Fleet will visit Salem relatives for the Fourth of July.
 Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leffler will spend the Fourth at Mill City where they have relatives.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilbur will go to Divley's Grove near West Stayton for the celebration of the nation's birthday. Mr. Wilbur delivers the oration at that place.
 Rev. E. B. Lockhart will go to Mill City for the Fourth and root for the Stayton baseball team which organization plays a "rubber" with the Mill City bunch of ball tossers.
 Mrs. Ethel Grace is camping near Mohana.
 Rev. E. T. Lawrence, of McMinnville, preached in the Baptist church last Sunday.
 Mrs. V. J. Phillips, of Kingston, was in Stayton this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nipple and their son, Melvin, were in Stayton recently.
 Leslie Dunn, of Silverton, was a recent Stayton visitor.
 Mrs. A. R. Brewer, of Linn county, will spend next week in Portland visiting her mother. Her sister from Peabody, is also expected to visit the Rose City parental home.
 Miss Ruth Fuson is taking teachers' examinations at Albany.
 The W. C. T. U. met this week and heard good suggestions in a speech delivered to them by Rev. E. L. Putnam.
 Mrs. Norma Lau, of Lyons, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gardner, of this city.
 Mrs. F. F. Foster will spend Sunday in Salem.
 Master Kenneth Irwin, of Salem, was a Stayton visitor this week.
 Methodist people had a basket dinner following their last Sunday morning service, in the church, and so successful was in that they then voted to have these gatherings once a month during the summer. Attorney S. H. Helms, a brother of the Salem lawyer, will deliver an Independence day address in the M. E. church next Sunday night.

HUBBARD NEWS

I. A. Bonney, formerly of Hubbard, now living at Centralia, Wash., has made a complete recovery from a recent operation for abscess.
 Mrs. Outbott is at the hospital very low with atomic poisoning and death is hourly expected. Her family has been at her bedside since Tuesday.

 Wallace Bros. finished some cement work for E. S. Miller this week. Cement walks about his residence and cement floor and walls in the cellar.
 Mr. and Mrs. S. Sholes and son went to Silverton last Thursday on account of the illness of Mrs. Sholes' brother, ill with pneumonia. Mr. Sholes returned to Hubbard Tuesday.
 O. K. Yoder arrived in Hubbard from Colorado last Friday evening. Mrs. Yoder and the children and Miss Mae Puley having arrived on Tuesday of the same week. Mr. Yoder will occupy the J. C. Overton residence, taking possession Tuesday.
 Mrs. Frank Coleman Tuesday let a contract to Thos. Johnston for the construction of an eight room two story house, bungalow style, modern except heat. Construction will begin in a few days on the Jackson place opposite the residence of W. B. McKee.
 John Glantz left Hubbard Friday afternoon on the first part of his 6,000 mile walk, pulling his canvas covered cart of equipment. He was due in Portland at 1 o'clock Saturday. He had as part of his equipment 200 post cards with a picture of his cart and slogans taken in front of the residence of Mayor C. W. Marger. His start was made under very favorable circumstances.
 At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moomaw last Friday evening the Middy girls had a good time. The evening was spent in the Moomaw park, which is noted for its swings and merry-go-rounds, and the bonfires where wienies, bread and marshmallows were roasted to stay the appetites of 13 jolly girls. Those present were: Mary and Ruby Critchfield, Merrill Dunick, Lois Simms, Helen Phillips, Alice Bennett, Thomas France, Enalike Braden, Erna Price, Lizzie Miller, Nora Welty, Ruth Calvert and Gladys Moomaw.
 T. E. Wilson, superintendent of Hubbard schools, and family, arrived in Hubbard Friday of last week, from Turner. Their goods were brought in on a large truck and taken at once to the W. S. Turst property, previously leased. Monday in company with E. S. Miller, Mr. Wilson inspected the old building regarding its disposition. Mr. Wilson is skilled in the use of tools and feels at home in a pair of overalls and will spend the remaining weeks of the summer in work at home and about the school building.
 Two weeks ago when Salem E. Parker of Los Angeles, concluded his singing class work, with 25 in the class, a temporary organization was formed to continue instructions in vocal music. Committees were appointed to draw up a constitution and by-laws and select books from which to continue study. Tuesday night was chosen for meeting and the club will meet in the Methodist church at 8 o'clock. Last Tuesday night a constitution and by-laws were adopted and an entertainment committee to serve three months appointed. The club will be known as the Harmonic club and its meetings will have literary features sufficient that the club will not be a strictly musical organization.—Enterprise.