By ALINE THOMPSON

Miss Ellen Thielson, charming member of the younger set, whose engagement to Carl Washburne of Eugene was announced today.

WITH the latest bit of excitement created in exclusive society is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ellen Thielson to Carl Washburne of Eugene. The happy news was first made known this afternoon at an informal tea for which Miss Thielson was hostess to honor her house guest, Miss Helen Whitney, of Portland.

Only a few of the closest friends of Miss Thielson were asked to the affair. The tea table which was centered with lovely pink roses and ferns was presided over by Mrs. Frank Spens.

Miss Thielson is one of the most charming belles in Salem society. She received her earlier education in Salem, later graduating from St. Helens Hall in Portland. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielson, a sister of William H. and Frederick B. Thielson of this city and Edward Thielson of San Francisco.

Mr. Washburne is a son of Mrs. Minnie Washburne, a leading society matron of Eugene. She is also an active club woman. Mr. Washburne has one brother, Chester Washburne, a prominent geologist in New York. He is the junior member of the firm of McCormick and Washburne.

Although there have been various rumors of Miss Thielson's engagement the secret has been guarded so carefully by the families that but few of the bride-elect's closest friends were sure as to the truth of the accusations.

As yet Miss Thielson and Mr. Washburne have made no definite plans for the wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Conriss of Mexico City, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Olinger, left Wednesday for New York. The Conriss' formerly lived in Salem and were showered with numerous social courtesies from their many friends.

One of the most delightful affairs was the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyers were hosts Tuesday evening. The table which was artistically adorned with snapdragons had covers for seven.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson entertained the visitors at their attractive country residence and Tuesday Mrs. R. D. Gilbert presided over a small luncheon in honor of Mrs. Conriss. During the week there were also several other small informal affairs given in their honor.

Society will miss for a number of months Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, who with small son David expects to leave the first of the week for Sound Beach, Conn., where they will visit at the summer home of Mrs. Putnam's mother, Mrs. Edwin Binney.

Owing to the uncertain moves of Company M, the length of Mrs. Putnam's sojourn East is quite indefinite. She plans however to be away all summer.

Mrs. L. K. Page was hostess Tuesday afternoon for a charming Kensington. The affair was given to honor Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Sr., of Los Angeles, Cal., who entertained Mrs. Page during her sojourn in that city last season.

An artistic arrangement of garden flowers decked the rooms. Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. E. B. Houston and Miss Maybelle Page assisted the hostess.

The guests asked to greet Mrs. Smith were: Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. A. L. Brown, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. E. B. Houston, Mrs. A. Klein, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. L. M. Boggs, Mrs. David Wagner, Mrs.

THE annual Cherry Fair festivities will be in full swing Monday and Salem's gates will be thrown wide open to welcome the throng of visitors. In the morning the festival will be auspiciously opened with the crowning of Queen Estella, by Governor Withycombe, after which there will be various floral parades and a round of gayeries for every pleasure seeker. Veing with these features, will be the large dance in the evening at the armory, which the Cherrians will give in honor of the Queen and her court.

Informality will be the keynote of the affair. It will start at nine o'clock with a grand march, led by King Bing and Queen Estella, followed by the royal party, the Cherrians, and the throng of merry makers, who will bring another cherry fair to a gay and happy closing.

Again society is grateful to brides and visitors for all the social gayeries bestowed upon them the past week. Aside from several weddings and small informal affairs the calendar has been exceptionally uninteresting.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Cannon and children of Portland are visiting at "Lash Meadows", the country residence of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones.

The Cannons motored to Salem and are en route to Albany, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rockley Mason, and Miss Flora Mason, until after the Fourth of July.

About 40 members of the order of the Eastern Star enjoyed an informal afternoon at the residence of Mrs. L. K. Page Tuesday.

The hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Page, Mrs. U. G. Boyer, Mrs. F. N. Derby, Mrs. N. C. Pettys, Mrs. O. D. Schmalzried and Miss Maybelle Page.

The Page residence was bright with the lodge colors, made manifest in bachelor buttons, sweet William, candy tuff, corksops and ferns, all arranged effectively in the various rooms. The afternoon was devoted to chatting and a guessing contest. Mrs.

Within a fragrant setting of blossoms, Miss Elva Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith became the bride of Dr. R. W. Walton, Friday evening at the Smith residence at eight o'clock. Rev. Richard N. Avison of the First Methodist church performed the ceremony.

Garden flowers in artistic profusion decked the rooms. An altar banked with Caroline Testout roses, honeysuckle and ocean spray against a latticed background of the same blossoms made a pretty setting for the bridal party.

Following the ceremony a reception was held and a supper was served. The prettily appointed table was centered with pink and white sweet peas and presided over by Miss Lucile Bennett and Miss Edith Carter Kueley.

A group of young girls assisted in the serving. Dr. and Mrs. Walton left on a short wedding trip and will be at home to their friends after the first of August at 1620 Court street.

The church was a bower of Caroline Testout roses and greens. The bride a charming girl wore a chic suit of cream wool jersey, with a smart hat, white shoes and a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses and lace ferns.

It was a charming affair yet very simple, only relatives and a few friends being asked.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. M. Smith. Here again a general color scheme of pink and green, was developed with masses of beautiful roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton left for a month's sojourn in California. On their return they will be at home to their many friends in the Court apartments.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clay will be missed from the gayeries of the next few weeks, as they are leaving Wednesday for a sojourn in San Francisco.

The beaches are calling a number of Salem families and from now on parties will be leaving every day for Newport and Agate Beach, where they have taken cottages for the summer. Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith and daughters, Margaret and Ruth left for Newport Friday, and next week Mrs. W. A letter was read from Lawrence Green, secretary to the republican nominee Hughes in answer to the congratulatory telegram sent by the club on June 12.

The University chapel, Waller hall, was the scene of a pleasing and successful recital Thursday night when the violin and piano pupils of Miss Joy Turner and vocal pupils of Dr. Frank Wilbur Chace of the W. U. department of music were presented in an interesting and varied program. Much interest was manifested by the large audience and the players received many compliments and words of encouragement.

The chapel was uniquely decorated in the national colors, red rambler roses, white lilies, ocean spray, and blue cantberry bells making a picturesque setting for the performers, supplying the elements of color and fragrance to the harmony of sound. Art baskets filled with syringa and red rambler roses were suspended from the arches on the platform, and flags supplied the remaining color scheme. The electric lights were hooded with red, white and blue shades which cast a soft glow over the hall.

Several of the pupils made their first public appearance at this time, among them being little Elizabeth Thompson, a very talented little 6 year old violinist, Paul Purvine an other young violin student and clever little Maude Engstrom who surprised all by her work on the piano; Ruth Wechter although only a young girl of 12 played two long difficult piano selections entirely from memory and was most enthusiastically received.

A distinct feature of the program were the two violin ensemble numbers, which were exceedingly well rendered. On of the violin ensemble numbers, "Devotion" was played by five students all under the age of nine years and judging from the applause this was easily the "hit" of the evening.

The vocal pupils, Misses McInturf and McCaddam, under Dr. Chace's direction pleased all with the artistic rendition of their selections, both students showing decided talent.

The recital was not restricted to either the older or younger pupils. The program was presented as follows: Ensemble, Telling Fanny Stories (Greenwald), first violin, Edna Deunson, Pearl George, Glyde Gardner, Marian Emmans, second violin, Winifred Eyre, Mary Findley, Paul Doney, Floyd Siegmund, piano, Lorraine Ross; violin, in the Canoe (Greenberg), Elizabeth Thompson; violin, A May Song (C.
