Former Salem Residents Picnic In Portland

Portland, Or., July 3.—Nearly 100 former residents of Salem, who now live in Portland, undaunted by a down-pour of rain, gathered at the Oaks Amusement park Saturday for the third annual reunion. Because of the inclemency of the weather it was impossible to spread the basket luncheon in the open but adjournment was taken to the dancing pavilion where the picnicers and the speech-makers were entirely immune from the weather.

Among the speakers were the retiring president of the association, ex-Governor Geer; Colonel Robert A. Miller, who recited Samuel L. Simpson's famous poem "Beautiful Willamette"; Mrs. Aurora Watt Bowman, F. E. Hodgkin, A. P. Wheeler, J. D. Lee, Mrs. J. L. Carter, Charles B. Moore, J. C. Moreland, Mrs. Lulu G. Herten, W. C. The president-elect appointed J. D. Lee, Mrs. T. T. Geer and Mrs. D. A. Watters members of the executive committee.

J. D. Lee, who first resided in Salem in 1848, proved to be the oldest Salemite at yesterday's reunion. A vote of thanks was tendered E. E. Mallory for collecting the list of old Salemites published recently in the Sunday Oregonian.

FIRE COMPANY SHOT TO PIECES

It was a pretty blue fire company that met at the quarters Tuesday night as many of its members having gone with Company 1 and one, Ivan Dimick, having moved away.

A resolution was passed to take no part in a Fourth of July celebration in this or any other city. There were not enough left to take much part even if the remainder were so inclined, and they were not in the humor.

The meeting was called to order by Vice-President E. J. Standard. This being the meeting for the annual election of officers, the following were chosen:

Chief, E. J. Standard.
President, Frank Wright.
Vice-President, Lloyd Flenor.
Secretary, Willard Cole.
The company has lost Chief D. C. Cowles. President Ivan Dimick, Secretary Brune, Captain H. M. Austin, Al Beck, Eugene Riches, Glenn Parr and Corrie Richards.

An effort will be made to fill the ranks and bring the company up to 15 members.—Woodburn Independent.

Say Instructors Were "Sign Board" Patriots

Portland, Or., July 3.—Mothers of high school boys who went to the Mexican border with the Oregon militia will hold an indignation meeting today. They want to know why instructors who told the youths to enlist in the militia, and then did not enlist themselves.

Mrs. J. L. May, wife of lieutenant colonel J. L. May, of the Third Oregon Infantry, will preside over the indignation meeting.

Many boys from Jefferson high school enlisted and were assigned to a battery to the machine gun corps of the Third regiment. Samuel May, track and field coach, and Frank Mangold, a teacher at Jefferson high, urged the lads to go in for military training. The mothers allege that Mangold and May, learning that they could not secure the training without formally enlisting in the militia, did not enlist themselves after the boys had joined. Because the boys were subject to call, May and Mangold even tried to secure discharges for some of them.

Say French Made No Gains

Berlin, July 3.—British and French attacks east of the Somme last night were without advantage, the enemy being repulsed with bloody losses, the war office announced this afternoon. South of the Somme the Germans withdrew from their second line under heavy French attacks.

German Advance Unchecked.

Berlin, July 3.—The Russians made unsuccessful attempts to stop the German advance in Volhynia by attacking last night east and southeast of the Fortress Lutsk, the war office announced today. The attacks were repulsed.

Italians Advancing.

Rome, July 3.—Italian troops have occupied the town northwest of Monte Trachia, Molise and Scutari, the war office announced today. The Italians are heavily bombarding Austrian positions in the Adig valley.

More Defences Captured.

London, July 3.—Capture of more German defences was announced in an official report from General Haig, commander in chief of the British forces, at 8:30 o'clock tonight.

"Heavy fighting at LaBoiselle, east of Albert, is proceeding satisfactorily to us," Haig reported. "The remnants of the garrison have surrendered."

"On other parts of the battle front we have made further progress, capturing additional hostile defences."

A number of aerial battles have occurred. Along the front, six German machines were brought down and five damaged. Seven British aeroplanes are missing.

"South of the Aisne, the battle continues hotly contested," added General Haig. "Our gains of yesterday were maintained in today's fight."

"Fighting around Villiers (probably Ovillers, northeast of Albert) continues with varying success. In one attack this morning we gained a portion of hostile defences and took 400 prisoners."

Program for Movable School at Chemawa

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore., July 3.—The program of the movable school to be held at the Salem Indian Training school at Chemawa, August 1 to 5, by the O. A. C. extension service, has been completed and shows some remarkably strong and attractive features. The unusual degree of completeness with which each important subject taken up is treated and the helpful character of the phases of each subject that has been selected are especially notable. These features are exemplified in the list of subjects for poultry day, Tuesday, August 1, as follows:

Hatching and rearing chicks; poultry breeding and record keeping; Boys' and Girls' club work; types and breeds of poultry; lecture and demonstration; opportunities for club work in the Indian training school; housing of poultry; lecture and demonstration; and feeding for eggs, lecture and demonstration. It will be seen that these subjects include types of breeds, hatching, breeding of poultry and keeping records; housing and management of poultry; and feeding for eggs; factors which if properly understood and carefully followed, would greatly increase the profits of poultry keeping in Oregon. The most important factors of successful overhauling will be treated on Wednesday, horticultural day, in a like complete manner. Thursday will be economy day; Friday, animal husbandry day; and Saturday, dairy day.

The work of home economics will likewise be concise and comprehensive. Altering commercial patterns to suit individual needs will open the work Wednesday morning. Cooking equipment with the question of fuels, stove construction and regulation, lecture and demonstration, will follow. The remainder of the week practical work in domestic art will alternate with work in domestic science.

Columbia Back Water Bothing Portland

Portland, Or., July 3.—Swollen by melting snow and continued heavy rains in eastern Oregon, the Columbia river was at the highest stage of the year today. The Willamette river at Portland, backed up by the Columbia, reached a stage of 23.7 feet early today, and was still rising slowly.

Up river points report the Columbia falling slowly. Practically no damage has been reported.

Backwater has filled sewers in Portland and flooded many basements. Several diners in a downtown grill were out scurrying when the floor of the grill was suddenly covered with several inches of water.

Justice Benson's Address On the Flag

Justice Henry L. Benson of the Oregon supreme court, delivered the address last evening at the First Methodist church at the independence day exercises.

In the present warlike condition of Europe, the justice believes the flag of an European country means nothing in the way of protection, and that just at present, the stars and stripes offer the strongest political shelter of any people on earth.

"When I think of our boys on the border and how cheerfully they volunteered," said Justice Benson, "I feel sure they will carry the flag as a sanctuary and symbol of liberty."

Rev. Robert Gill Has Surgical Operation

While in Portland attending the annual session of the Episcopal summer school, the Rev. Robert S. Gill, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, became ill suddenly Saturday afternoon and was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital for an operation. Although he outlasted the shock of the operation and is reported today to be slightly better, he will not be out of danger for several days and even then, he will be under the doctor's care at the hospital for several months. The immediate cause of his illness was intestinal troubles, resulting from an operation for appendicitis four years ago.

Mrs. Gill and Mrs. W. T. Slater are at his bedside. Mr. Slater, who returned from Portland this morning, said that the condition of Mr. Gill was critical and that it would probably be three days before he would be out of danger, all depending whether he had sufficient strength to recover from the effects of the operation.

A SALEM INTERVIEW

Mr. Brown Tells His Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with a Salem man over two years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

P. W. Brown, retired farmer, 1499 State street, Salem, says: "Hard work weakened my kidneys and I often felt the effect in lameness and soreness across the small of my back. Finally, my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some from Dr. Stoney's drug store. The backache and soreness entirely left me." (Statement given January 31, 1906.)

On April 11, 1916, Mr. Brown said: "I am ready to confirm any time what I said in my former statement regarding my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I still consider them a medicine of merit and they always do good work whenever I take them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the name that Mr. Brown has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
