

DO YOU KNOW THAT
 Better wages make better health?
 Better health makes better citizens?
 Better citizens make a better nation?
 The U. S. Public Health Service found 78 per cent of the rural houses in a certain county unprovided with sanitary conveniences of any kind?
 Cholera is spread in the same manner as typhoid?
 Scarlet fever kills over 10,000 Americans each year?
 Hookworm enters through the skin?
 He who builds up health lays up treasure in the Bank of Nature?
 —U. S. Public Health Service.

SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

DR. AND MRS. J. N. SMITH have returned from a several weeks sojourn in the east. They arrived home early last week and have had a delightful trip.
 While east they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Francis Powers (Mabel Smith) in Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. Rollin K. Page has as her house guest Mrs. F. L. Fuller of Portland.

Mrs. Ralph Watson of Portland is visiting Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and will be the inspiration for several little social attentions planned by her friends.

Thomas T. Bennett of Marshfield is the guest of Laurence Hofer, Mr. Bennett and Mr. Hofer are Sigma Chi Fraternity brothers; both being members of the chapter at Stanford University.

One of the most delightful affairs of last week was the informal dancing party for which Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Harding were hosts at their home on Summer street.

An array of Caroline Testout roses, sweet peas and other garden flowers, were arranged effectively in the various rooms. Late in the evening refreshments closed the gayeties.

Mr. and Mrs. Harding's guests included: Mr. and Mrs. William McKelchist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kazmarek, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Galloway, Miss Ermine Harding, Miss Louise Benson, and C. B. Webb and H. C. Marvin.

Mrs. Zadoo Riggs is entertaining as her house guests for several days Miss Cornelius and Miss Maybelle Cole of Portland.

Miss Hazel Erickson returned Sunday from Portland, where she has been the guest of Mrs. Norman Courtney (Emaline Klein) for about a week.

Mrs. Robert Kinney (Althea Moores) of Astoria is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores.

Bryan Wants School Training That Makes For Peace with Honor

New York, July 4.—A day at Coney Island, school athletics in the stadium of the University of the City of New York and an address by William Jennings Bryan advocating "school training that makes for peace with honor," are the features of the Fourth of July celebration of the National Education Association here today.
 Many delegates are spending the day at Coney and the stadium where four thousand children of the New York schools entertain them with military drill, setting up exercises, a preparedness program, folk dances, games, park fetes and pageants. This evening Mr. Bryan will address the teachers on "New Meanings of the Peace Movement." He advocates training in the schools which makes for peace with honor. His address is strictly educational and wholly without political significance.
 Other speakers on the general program are Ella Flagg Young former superintendent of the Chicago schools; Charles R. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin and John R. Kirk, president of the State Normal School of Kirksville, Mo. Secretary Durand W. Springer estimates an enrollment of thirty thousand delegates.

EUREKA PARADES

Eureka, Cal., July 4.—Several thousand men, women and children representing fraternal lodges, schools, public organizations and business houses as well as hundreds of private citizens marched today in a patriotic combination Independence day and preparedness parade. The procession was the second day feature of the sweet pea carnival, which has attracted thousands of visitors. After the parade many of the marchers proceeded to a grove where the municipal picnic takes place this afternoon.

Miss M. E. Cole of Portland is visiting in the city for the day, the guest of Mrs. Z. J. Riggs.

R. P. Nye and family of Ankeny bottoms were in the city yesterday for the annual cherry fair.

Mrs. A. M. Wilson of Lebanon is celebrating the Fourth in Salem, the guest of her son W. B. Gilson.

Orville Baldwin of the Frank S. Ward drug store was in Portland yesterday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pilcher and a party of friends are in the city for the day visiting at the home of Mrs. C. J. Brown.

R. T. Richardson returned this morning from a two weeks' visit in southern California, including Los Angeles, Riverside and a few days at Fresno.

Gress Sheldon and family of Amity attended the annual Cherry fair yesterday and today is celebrating at the fair grounds.
 Miss Frances Byram, a teacher in the Jefferson schools, is visiting in Salem the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beers, 1695 North Liberty street.

BELL-ANS Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

A Callot Model on Gorgeous Lines

STATUESQUE BEAUTY

Gold lace and satin stripes, combined by Callot, give this wonderful frock. The quite Frenchy effect is achieved by the treatment of sleeves, the absence of a left one contrasting with the shawl drape of lace on the right. This veritable "creation" has a motif of gold and king's blue.

NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION MEETS

Militarism Will Be Cut From Histories—Military Training in Issue

New York, July 3.—Whether "Ben-y" and "skinny" and millions of other American school boys shall sacrifice part of the time at the old swimmin' hole in learning to be soldiers, is being discussed today by "teach." Endorsement of military training in public schools is one of the big issues before the National Education Association when into session here today. Thirty thousand teachers are attending.

It's all in the hands of the female of the species, too. Led by Mrs. Cora G. Lewis, of the Kansas board of educational administration, the school mamas control 76 per cent of the votes in the convention. In the first clash today the pacifists won out when the text books endorsed by the American School Peace League were adopted by the committee on text books. All war maps and details of battlefields are eliminated from the history text books endorsed. Only the causes, spirit and result of wars will be treated.

Business sessions of the convention will not be held until Friday. This afternoon ex-President Taft, an honorable president of the American School Peace League, will address the convention. At a meeting of the national council today menus of removing politics from teachers' pension funds were discussed. Before the session on rural agricultural education, Kary C. Davis, of Nashville, urged that agriculture be kept a practical study.

Of greater importance than the question of the high cost of living is that of the high cost of wasting but of greater importance than both of these is the high cost of ignorance," said David Baneroff Johnson, president of the National Education Association, in his address convening the general session.

The Liberty Bell

The Liberty Bell rang out across the roof of old Philadelphia announcing to the listeners that the Declaration of Independence had been signed. Charles Brocton Brown has recorded the dramatic incident in a poem that many a school boy orator has struggled with. Andrew McNair rang the bell when the declaration was signed, as he had done through the entire revolutionary period from 1759 to 1776. The legend tells how the old man sat by the bell in the tower of the assembly hall waiting for his grandson below to give him the signal. The poem follows:

There was a tumult in the city,
 In the quaint old Quaker town,
 And the streets were rife with people
 Pacing restless up and down—
 People gathered at the corners
 Where they whispered each to each,
 And the sweet stood on their temples
 With the earnestness of speech.

As the bleak Atlantic currents
 Lash the wild Newfoundland shore,
 So they beat against the state house,
 So they surged against the door,
 And the mingling of their voices
 Made a harmony profound,
 'Till the quiet street of Chestnut
 Was all turbulent with sound.

"Will they do it?" "Dare they do it?"
 "Who is speaking?" "What's the news?"
 "What of Adams?" "What of Sherman?"
 "Oh God grant they won't refuse!"
 "Make some way there!" "Let me narrow!"
 "I am stifling!" "Stifle them!"
 When a nation's life's at hazard
 We've no time to think of men!

So they surged against the state house
 While all solemnly inside
 Sat the "Continental Congress,"
 Truth and reason for their guide,
 O'er a simple scroll debating
 Which, the simple it might be,
 Yet should shake the cliffs of England
 With the thunders of the free.

Far aloft in that high steeple
 Sat the bellman, old and gray;
 He was weary of the tyrant
 And his iron-sceptered sway,
 So he sat, with one hand ready
 On the clapper of the bell
 When his eye should catch the signal
 The long expected news to tell.

See! See! The dense crowd quivers
 Taru all its lengthy line
 As the boy beside the portal
 Hastens forth to give the sign;
 With his little hands uplifted,
 Breezes jangling with his hair,
 Hark! with deep, clear intonation
 Breaks his young voice on the air.

Hushed the people's swelling murmur
 Whilst the boy cries joyously
 "Ring," he shouts, "Ring! grandpa,
 Ring; oh ring for Liberty!"
 Quickly at the given signal
 The old bellman lifts his hand,
 Forth he sends the good news, making
 Iron music thru the land.

How they shouted! What rejoicing!
 How the old bell shook the air
 'Till the clang of freedom ruffled
 The calmly gliding Delaware.
 How the bon-fires and the torches
 Lighted up the night's repose,
 And from the flames, like fabled Phoenix,
 Our glorious liberty arose.

That old State House bell is silent,
 Hushed now its clamorous tongue,
 But the spirit it awakened,
 Still is living—ever young;
 And when we greet the smiling sunlight
 On the Fourth of each July,
 We will ne'er forget the bellman
 Who, 'twixt the earth and sky,
 Rang out loudly, "Independence!"
 Which, please God, shall never die!

The New York Herald is doing a lot of worrying about the make-up of Mr. Hughes' cabinet.

An Economical, Delightful, Light Place to Trade

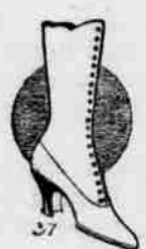

There are no other inexpensive Waists like the Wirthmore. They have character, charm, refinement and style, and withal they cost just

$1.00

New Models on Sale Tomorrow

The Latest

Ladies' all Ivory Kid Shoes. Welt soft as a glove. Stylish last, 8 1-2 inch straight top. Plain toe. Regular $8 Special Price $6.00

KAFOURY BROS.

416 STATE STREET

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE

Mail Orders Given Prompt Attention.

We Pay Postage on Mail Orders

ROBERT PARKER MILES HAS TRAVELED ALL OVER GLOBE

Served on Hearst Newspapers as Religious Editor and Travels Over World in Search of News

ROBERT PARKER MILES, who is brought to the Chautauqua this year, was the confere of Gladstone, Pope Leo XIII, and many other of the great characters of modern times, both in this country and Europe. As reformer, traveler and "uplift" editor of the greatest chain of newspapers in the world, Dr. Miles is equipped with a fund of first hand information seldom experienced in one man's career. As an orator Dr. Miles is distinguished for his dramatic power to visualize the famous characters and events of the past generation, with which he is so thoroughly familiar.

SALEM'S CHAUTAUQUA OPENS JULY 12TH

Capital Journal

Want Ads Pay

Capital Journal Want Ads Will Get You What You Want

Krumbles

The New Whole Wheat Food with the Delicious Flavor originated by the Kellogg Toasted Corn-Flake Co.

Children like Krumbles and it builds them up

THE dainty little miss of the household knows how good KRUMBLES is—the new all-wheat food with the delicious flavor.

Krumbles is the whole of the Wheat, cooked, "krumbled," and delicately toasted—and as everyone knows, there is nothing more nourishing and wholesome than whole wheat, especially when the Krumbles method makes it a joy to eat.

In the WAXTITE package—10c. Look for this signature.

Kellogg

LANE DENIES HE IS IN FAVOR OF AMENDMENT

Says No Danger of Navy Being Short of Oil—Favors Leasing Oil Lands

Washington, July 3.—Secretary Lane this afternoon issued a statement denying he favors the Phelan amendment to the oil leasing bill now before congress and answering recent attacks upon him in the matter.

"Where the warrant comes for such a statement," he said, "I do not know. The only time that anything like that ever was presented to me was when Lieutenant Governor Eshleman, of California, brought a similar proposal to me, and I told him I would not stand for it. The Phelan amendment never has been referred to me by congress, nor does any person who ever talked with me labor under the delusion that I favor it.

"I am in favor of passing an oil leasing bill, however, along the lines of the one passed by the house twice in the last two years, known as the Ferris bill. The difference between the bills is in liberality of treatment of claimants.
 "There is no danger of the navy being short of oil, for there are nearly 3,000,000 acres of public lands now withdrawn. Included therein are two special naval reserves which are practically free from adverse claims. These contain approximately 130,000,000 barrels of oil. And more of this area can be withdrawn for the navy at any time by the president whenever he desires to do so.

"I have tried to deal with these propositions without regard to politics and have had the support of such eminent conservatives as Mr. Lenroot and Mr. Kent, whose views have always been the same as mine; that to keep 3,000,000 acres of oil land locked up indefinitely, while gasoline is climbing higher, is not good sense and plays right into the hands of monopoly.
 "The only difference that has arisen between Mr. Gregory, Mr. Daniels and myself has been over the soundness of the legal decision (the Honolulu case) rendered by the commissioner of the land office touching a private claim certain in yesterday's game with the White Sox, when he threw his bat into the grandstand. The amount of the fine was not announced.
 Cobb was angered when called out in the seventh by Empire Nallin.
 The suspension put on Manager Clark Griffith and other players suspended for the riot at Washington in the Red Sox game last Friday has not been lifted, Johnson announced.

TY COBB SUSPENDED

Chicago, July 3.—President Johnson of the American league this afternoon suspended Ty Cobb for three days and fined him as the result of Cobb's outburst in yesterday's game with the White Sox, when he threw his bat into the grandstand. The amount of the fine was not announced.
 Cobb was angered when called out in the seventh by Empire Nallin.
 The suspension put on Manager Clark Griffith and other players suspended for the riot at Washington in the Red Sox game last Friday has not been lifted, Johnson announced.