SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

FOR the past few days society has been kept abuzz with the gayeties of the Cherry Fair and carrying for visitors and relatives who have been numerous in the city this week. Luncheons interspersed with teas and small informal gatherings in honor of visitors will enliven the remainder of the week. One of the most delightful of these affairs will be the tea for which Miss Elizabeth Lord will be hostess Thursday in honor of her house guest Miss Elsa Deimel of San Francisco. About 40 maids and matrons of the smart set will be guests.

Another charming affair of tomorrow will be the luncheon for which Mrs. William H. Boot will be hostess at her attractive suburban residence in Fairmount Heights.

Mrs. W. S. Mott is entertaining as her guest for several days Mrs. Thomas Sims of Portland.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cox, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. McDougall motored to Falls City, where they enjoyed the day at the Bungalow club house.

Mrs. Roma Hunter will be hostess tonight for a small informal dinner in honor of Mrs. Lewis Sheldon and her house guest Miss Marion Anderson, a popular Albany girl. Mrs. Sheldon plans to leave soon for a sojourn in North Yakima.

Mrs. Frank Frickey and children returned last week from a six months' visit with Mrs. Frickey's mother, Mrs. Adam Schantt of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Winslow have had as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Arnold of Portland, who motored to Salem Sunday. They returned home today.

Among the visitors who were here for the Cherry fair festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Dorr, Mrs. E. L. Hedlund, Miss Nona Lawler and Clarence Brazell of Portland. The party made the trip in Mr. and Mrs. Dorr's yacht the "Sea Wolf" and were joined by Dr. Hedlund and Edward Brazell, who motored to Salem. They returned to Portland today.

Mrs. Elmer Ludden and small son, Bennett, left today for a month's visit in Newport. They will be the guests of Mrs. Ludden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ragan.

The members of the Woman's Relief Corps will meet Thursday (tomorrow) afternoon for their regular sewing bee.

MILITIA STEADILY MOVING TO BORDER

Heavy Rains Greet Arrival of Suckers--New Yorkers Are Numerous

San Antonio, Texas, July 5.—The big movement of national guardsmen to the border continued today and General Funston and his staff disposed the state troops on a tactical basis as fast as they arrived.

The exact destinations of other units are not given out here but it is known that about 2,000 New York guardsmen will be stationed in the Brownsville district. The first cavalry squadron and the second artillery company of that state passed through here late yesterday.

Four of the 45 new trucks ordered are expected to be delivered this week. They comprise 33 trucks to the company. From a half to two dozen carloads of horses are arriving daily and it is estimated that 10,000 horses will be here by the end of this week.

Major Blanton Winship, judge advocate, who came here from Fort Leavenworth to try the "slackers" in the Texas national guard, is finding it hard to locate anybody to try. Among the recruits who arrived here yesterday were 25 of those listed for court-martial for failing to respond when the Texas militia was called out.

Rain Greet Suckers.

San Antonio, Texas, July 5.—The Third and Fourth Illinois infantry felt like Old Man Noah today when they were driven at Port San Houston, in a driving rain. The downpour ceased only after the company streets had been converted into miniature rivers with beds of oozy mud several inches deep.

A battery and a troop of cavalry of Wisconsin militia also arrived today. The First Illinois infantry enroute for the Brownsville district. The New York national guardsmen in that region will number 18,000, according to General Funston.

Funston said he had received no reports today from General Pershing or others of his commanders.

La Prensa, an anti-Carranza paper published here, predicts the punitive expedition will be withdrawn and that there will be no war between the United States and Mexico.

SALEM'S CHAUTAUQUA BEGINS NEXT WEEK

Tickets On Sale Tomorrow, $2.50 for Week's Course --Students $1.50

One week from today the Salem 1916 Chautauqua will hold its first session in the chautauqua tent on the Willamette University baseball grounds, the location of one year ago. The attraction for the evening is the reading of scenes from Shakespeare and the Comus Players.

On account of the Cherry fair and the observance of the Fourth and also the general interest taken in military affairs, the committee in charge of the sale of tickets thought best not to begin their sale until tomorrow.

Now that the opening is but one week off, the committee will rush the sale of tickets already subscribed for and as the time is short, has requested subscribers to be ready when those in charge of tickets call. The number is so large that it will be impossible for this committee to make several calls.

Tomorrow morning tickets will be placed on sale at the Commercial book store, Patton's book store, Will's music store, Wiley B. Allen and Cherrington and St. Helen's. An advance man for Ellison-White will arrive tomorrow to assist in the sale, and in placing the final advertising.

Tickets for the entire week's course will sell for $2.50 with a special $1.50 student price and $1 for children. General information regarding the course will be given by C. E. Knowland, secretary.

After conferring with Mr. Ellison, arrangements were made whereby only a sacred program will be given Sunday, July 16. It was on the nature of the Sunday evening show there was some difference of opinion between the ministers. But with the assurance of a sacred concert Sunday night, no objections will be made, although it is possible that in future, contracts with Ellison-White, the Sunday night entertainments will be eliminated.

The attractions include several unique features, such as the Kaffir Boy Chorus in its first tour of the west. The big musical event will be Saturday night July 15, when the New York City Marine band gives an afternoon and evening concert.

Three Petitions Filed for Proposed Laws

Three initiative petitions for laws and amendments to be submitted to the voters of the state in November were received today by Secretary of State Olcott.

E. J. Stack, of Portland, in behalf of the Oregon State Federation of Labor and the Central Labor Council of Portland, sent in a petition purporting to contain 24,653 names. This asks the submission of the People's Land and Loan Law amendment.

An act to prohibit compulsory vaccination and medical treatment is sought by Lora C. Little, of Portland, who today filed a petition containing 25,126 names.

Metolius made a bid for consideration as the county seat of Jefferson county in a petition containing 425 signatures and submitted to the department of state by M. A. Canning, acting for the Metolius Commercial club. This petition seeks a law with reference to Jefferson county only. Madras has already entered the lists as a contender for the honor of being the county seat. Tomorrow is the last day on which initiative petitions may be filed, according to law.

REFUGEES TELL OF HARDSHIPS ENDURED

Many Arrive In Destitute Condition Though of Well-to-Do Class

San Diego, Cal., July 5.—Stories of persecutions, imprisonment, privation and suffering at the hands of Carranza soldiers were related today by the 539 refugees from the Mexican west coast who arrived in San Diego on the naval transport Buffalo.

Forced to leave home and every possession, escaping with only their clothes and a few dollars, and more than 100 without even money to go to a hotel, the destitute travelers are being cared for by the local branch of the Red Cross society.

Many of the able to defray their own living expenses here for a few days had to appeal for aid in purchasing railroad tickets to former homes in other parts of the country.

The capture of the American steamer Sonora by blue jackets from the cruiser Cleveland was one of the most daring feats related by the refugees. The little steamer, recently allowed provisional American registry, was seized about six months ago by the military authorities, and was held by a guard of Carranza soldiers in the inner harbor at Guaymas. At 11 p. m. of June 21, a steam launch, with a party of sailors from the Cleveland, entered the inner harbor, boarded the Sonora, and, overpowering the Carranza men, threw them into the sea. The anchor chain was slipped, and a tow line passed to the launch. In a few minutes, without casualty to the Americans, the Sonora was alongside the Cleveland, where she was made a dormitory for the refugees. The vessel is the property of the American-Mexican Steamship and Trading company.

Gunboat Run a Bluff.
The pursuit of the gunboat Annapolis by a Mexican gunboat, when she was forced to steam from Mazatlan, was related by John W. Sargent, of Boston, who witnessed the Mazatlan fight of June 18. Governor Flores, it is related, ordered the Annapolis out of the harbor, following the attack of the Mexican soldiers on the steam launch, when I. M. Laughter, a sailor, was killed and a number of Mexicans fell under the fire returned by the blue jackets. With a large number of women and children on board, the commander of the Annapolis was forced to obey the Mexican orders to safeguard the lives of his civilian passengers. A Mexican gunboat followed the Annapolis to enforce the demands of Governor Flores.

British and Germans, said Sargent, are being used fairly well by the Mexicans, but Americans and Spanish are hated and persecuted. The epithet "chino-blanco," or white Chinaman, being applied to citizens of the United States.

Refugees from Salina Cruz, Mazatlan and other southern ports will arrive early next week on the supply steamer Glacier.

RED CROSS WILL AID IN SENDING SUPPLIES

If You Have Any Packages to Send Boys Address Them As Here Suggested

Washington, July 5.—Red Cross officials today promised to co-operate with persons who desire to send supplies to troops on the Mexican border if they will forward packages to Red Cross supply depots at:

- Chicago for Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and northern Illinois.
- Kansas City, care Montgomery Ward & Co., for the Dakotas, Nebraska, Iowa, northern Missouri and northeastern Kansas.
- Denver, for Montana, Wyoming, Utah and northern Colorado.
- San Francisco, care A. B. C. Dehermann, for Washington, Oregon, Nevada and northern California.
- Douglas, Ariz., care Mayor Adamson for Arizona and southern California.
- El Paso, Texas, No. 516 San Francisco street, for all territory west of Kansas not otherwise specified.
- San Antonio, Texas, Avenue E and Fourth street, for all southern states situated to the east of the western boundary of Kansas.

Any further information as to the shipping supplies may be obtained from Red Cross chapters in various towns and cities.

RETIRED FROM SERVICE

San Francisco, July 5.—As he is suffering from injuries received at the army aviation school, San Diego, Lieutenant Lewis E. Goodier, Jr., son of Lieutenant Colonel Lewis E. Goodier, was retired by the war department today with the rank of captain. He fell while flying at North Island. Both legs were broken. Although he has recovered, his legs are not sufficiently strong to stand hard field service.

Wage Dispute Settled

Washington, July 5.—A final settlement has been reached in the Rock Island arsenal wage dispute, it was learned at the war department today. Chicago has been included, with the three cities in the determining scale, and an increase of about 25 cents per day per man has been granted.

Gather to Discuss Fads

New York, July 5.—The "big drive" of the suffragists in the National Education association convention is under way today, but the fight for "woman's rights" is overshadowed by protests against "woman's wrongs."

"Down with displays of fine silken hose, down with rice powder all over the nose"—this is the battle cry heard in every nook of the McAlpin, Waldorf, Astoria and Astor, where the teachers have gathered.

Two days in New York have thoroughly disgusted the visiting school teachers with the "mush hose, few clothes" styles of New York women, and they feel that the gay little high school girls of the United States must be saved from these fashions. Suffrage and modesty in dress will be urged upon the convention.

Anna H. Shaw will speak tomorrow night and will have some pertinent things to say about feminine vices. Mrs. Cora G. Lewis, Kansas' most illustrious women, is leading the fight for modesty and suffrage.

Rural school teachers feel that city school boys spend too much time in athletics and ten dances. The back to the soil movement is the only salvation of the country, they claim.

Hence the department of agriculture education under the leadership of W. F. Lutak, of the University of Minnesota, is urging a resolution to make compulsory agriculture for students in city high schools.

Major General Leonard Wood wound up the fight for military training in the schools with an address to the physical training section today at Dewitt Clinton high school. The committee on military training is meeting this afternoon and will report tomorrow.

Next to the suffrage and dress question, the problem of defective children occupied the greatest interest today. Sectional meetings to discuss the problem of training defectives were held.

The unanimous nomination of Robert J. Aley, president of the University of Maine, for president of the association is expected when the nominating committee makes its report late this afternoon.

Plans for revolt against "machine" school systems for a scheme of teaching which would instruct boys and girls how to work was made today by John A. Mills, superintendent of schools of Ogden, Utah.

"A sentiment should be developed in every community," he said, "that a boy who graduates from high school and does not know how to make a living should consider himself not only uneducated, but disgraced."

The library section of the convention heard appeals for comprehensive library auxiliaries to teaching by Charles Hughes Johnson of the University of Illinois.

Have you made a CRISCO CAKE?

Try this recipe; or make your own favorite cake, using Crisco in place of butter. Use one-fifth less Crisco than butter and add salt.

If you will merely use Crisco properly there will be no need to mix any butter with it. Your Crisco cake will be as nice as the more expensive cake you formerly made with butter. Crisco cake stays fresh and moist longer.

(Clip this Recipe)

Eggless-Butterless-Milkless Cake 25c

- 1/2 cupful Crisco
- 2 cupfuls brown sugar
- 2 cupfuls water
- 1 cupful seeded raisins
- 1 teaspoonful salt
- 2 teaspoonfuls powdered cinnamon
- 1 teaspoonful powdered cloves
- 1/2 teaspoonful nutmeg
- 2 teaspoonfuls powdered mace
- 2 teaspoonfuls baking soda
- 4 cupfuls flour
- 1 teaspoonful baking powder
- 3/4 cupful chopped nut meats
- 3 tablespoonfuls warm water

Put the Crisco into a saucepan, add sugar, water, raisins, salt and spices and boil for three minutes. Cool and when cold add the flour, baking powder, soda dissolved in the warm water and the nut meats. Mix and turn into a Criscoed and floured cake tin and bake in a slow oven for one and a half hours.

"New Post Toasties"

From House to House the Good News Spreads

Many housewives have found a happy solution of the breakfast problem in New Post Toasties.

These new corn flakes are distinctive in that they bear a self-developed flavor all their own—the delicate, fascinating flavor of choice, white Indian corn. Unlike other flakes, they do not depend on cream and sugar to make them palatable.

Try a handful without cream and sugar—note the fine flavor and new form; also the tiny "bubbles" on each flake. These bubbles are a distinguishing characteristic and are produced by the quick, intense heat of the new process of making, which also brings out the wonderful flavor.

Although the New Post Toasties are a great improvement in flavor and form, they cost no more than ordinary flakes. Have a package delivered for tomorrow's breakfast.
