Milo Wheeler, received from Washington county in July, 1915, for statutory offense.
Thomas Conners, received from Multnomah county in July, 1914, for obtaining money by false pretenses.
James Hoender, received from Umatilla county in April, 1914, for statutory offense.

Much Damage Done by Big Storm

Jacksonville, Florida, July 6.—Reports from Mobile, coming from round about telegraph and telephone wires, say there has been loss of life there and considerable property damage.
Other points along the west gulf of Florida have reported to have suffered heavy damage. From Milton, which is 20 miles from Panama and the nearest point to be heard from, came reports late this afternoon saying Pensacola's railway system is badly damaged and that the city is cut off from the rest of the state by rail as well as by wire.
From Salem to the county line, the "Valley Loop" will soon become a reality. This loop of 128 miles begins at Portland and passes through McMinnville and Dallas on to Salem, returning to Portland on the Pacific Highway. Co-operating with the commercial clubs of McMinnville and Dallas, literature will be distributed, suggesting to automobile parties especially in Portland, the advantages and the good roads of the one day's drive.
It has been suggested that arrangements be made for the regulation sight seeing cars to leave Portland in the mornings, making Salem a stop over for a few hours for the viewing of the state institutions, returning to Portland in the evening.
The sum of $42,895.74 has been paid in the vicinity of Salem in the purchase of live stock during the past six months by George W. Eyre. During this time, Mr. Eyre has bought and shipped 392 sheep, 28 cattle and 2851 hogs. Late last fall, at the suggestion of members of the Commercial club, Mr. Eyre began the shipping of live stock from this part of the valley.
Another buyer during the same time shipped 2900 sheep and lambs. These figures show the increases in the shipping business so far this year, compared with the shipment of 290 hogs, 54 cattle and 2900 sheep for the entire year of 1915.
At the meeting July 4 on the state fair grounds, the Epworth League near Salem numbering 11, formed an association to be known as the Salem sub district Epworth League, with the election of the following officers: president Murray Keeter, rural route 8; secretary, Miss Norma Harper. The general local committee is composed of: Dr. O. G. Woodfin, Miss Helen Ingrey and Miss Mina Scheffe. The district president is J. Stanford Moore of Willamina. The League will meet in Salem July 17 for a general school of instruction.
Sergeant John Hayden one of the recruiting officers at the Keith hotel building just returned from seven years' service in the Philippine Islands and has been in the army eight years. Sergeant W. D. Schuster has seen 18 years' service in New York, Ohio and Philippine Islands.

PROHIBITION DISCUSS CHANGING OF NAME

Some Think Name Indicates Party Is Against Everything

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, Minn., July 6.—A widespread move within the ranks of the prohibition party to change the name threatens to cause at least one hot scrap when the prohibition national convention meets here July 17 to 21, it was learned today.
The younger element especially favors renaming the party in order, they say, to do away with a name "not broad enough to encompass all policies of the party," a name which is "against, rather than for something."
"The prohibition party is for a good many things and not always against something as the name sometimes leads people to believe," one in favor of renaming the party, declared today. The names American, Liberal, Federal and others have been suggested.
But not all prohibitionists want to do away with the name which they say signifies their stand on "the greatest issue before the American people—the liquor traffic." The party name has come to be looked upon with honor and respect and it would be folly to change it now, they say.
Those favoring renaming the party admit that one of their purposes is to catch votes, to take over the new women's party vote body, to adopt the progressive party, and to draw votes from any and all other parties.
Re-christening of the prohibition party will come in for a share of the discussion at the St. Paul convention when on Tuesday, July 17, a giant "get-together" meeting of men and women representing every reform movement in the United States will meet to talk over "consolidation."
The trend of the debate will be:
1. That the liquor question is the greatest issue before the American people, requiring immediate settlement.
2. That the issue can be settled only by electing to power a political party in favor of nation-wide prohibition. Only in this way can nation-wide prohibition be enacted and enforced.
3. That it is impossible to expect a solution of the issue through the "republican elephant, the democratic donkey, or the deceptively bull moose."
4. What political party then shall be put in power to settle the issue, the prohibition party as such, or a thorough new party similar to the prohibition party but seeking votes under a different name.
To this get-together meeting the prohibitionists have invited the progressive national committee and other party leaders and 15,000 other reform workers, both men and women, throughout the United States.

ALIENATION SUIT ON BEFORE JUDGE KELLY

Mrs. Scott Sues Husband's Parents for $25,000 for Separating Them

Examination of witnesses continued today before Circuit Judge Kelly in the $25,000 alienation suit brought by Mrs. Gertrude L. Scott against Charles Scott and Lulu Scott, of Scotts Mills, parents of her husband. Mrs. Scott charges that the parents are largely responsible for a divorce complaint filed against her by her husband and also that they were the cause of her losing his affection.
In the morning Mrs. Scott, a striking blond, took the stand and told of her associations with Merle, her husband, before their marriage. Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, the girl's mother, was also called. Mrs. Hyde related that she had heard Charles Scott make remarks derogatory to her daughter.
One witness called during the morning session testified that the greatest of affection was evidenced between the Scotts. In fact, the witness declared, people used to refer to them as "Mr. and Mrs. Dearie."
This afternoon Mrs. Hart, who conducted a lodging house at Corvallis in which the young couple made their home for a time, admitted that Gertrude had a habit of flirting with her. She also testified that the girl had told her she was intimate with Merle prior to their marriage.
Dr. Ong of Portland, attendant on Merle Scott when the latter was ill, was called and denied the older Scotts had ever ordered him to refuse Merle permission to see his wife.
Robert Davis, formerly a student at O. A. C. told of a conversation between Merle and his father in Corvallis concerning the condition of Mrs. Scott, then Miss Hyde. Davis testified that he heard Merle declare that it was his intention to marry the girl. This met with the approval of Scott's father, witness averred, and added that the elder Scott said it was proper thing for the boy to do was to stand by Miss Hyde in her predicament.
The case is expected to go to the jury late this afternoon or this evening. John C. Shillock of Portland and C. L. McNary of this city represent Mrs. Gertrude Scott and W. A. Dineck of Oregon City and John A. Carson appear for the defense.

GREATEST PETITION EVER FILED IN STATE

42,064 Would Have State Grant Permission to Make Beer

The proposed amendment to the state constitution permitting the manufacture of a limited amount of beer within the state, is meeting with favor, according to the results of the initiative petition filed today with the secretary of state. C. T. Hans, representing the "Equal Rights for Home Industry" association, of which he is secretary, brought the petition to Salem today.
The petition purports to contain a total of 42,064 names making it the largest petition in the number of signatures ever filed in Oregon. It bears by approximately 7000 names the prohibition petition filed some years ago and which, until today, held the record.
In connection with the matter Mr. Hans states that a number of leading Portlanders got out on the streets and solicited names for the petition. Among those he mentioned were Theodore B. Wilcox, Rabbi Jonah Wise, Ben Selling, Fred V. Holmes, William Albers and A. L. Mills.
Nothing daunted, the prohibition advocates are on the way to Salem now with a petition making more stringent the dry law now in effect. It would forbid the importation of all liquors for beverage purposes.
Ex-Governor Oswald West is in the city in connection with filing the petition.
Dan Kellaher, former state senator, on behalf of the Independent Retailers association of Portland filed a petition to place on the ballot a measure abolishing the Sunday closing law. This contained 24,500 names.
A local law applying to Crook county is sought by Ross Parham, acting for others. Parham's petition contained 827 names and seeks a law removing the county seat of Crook county from Prineville, where it is now located, to Bend.
The Cherrian band is now taking under consideration the adoption of the beautiful words, "If at first you don't succeed, etc." Having been rained out three concert nights in Salem and one night at Moonmouth, the band is once again willing to tempt the weather man, and announces the regular concert for Friday evening, at 8 o'clock in Willson park.
The feature of the concert, besides the singing of Tom Orlemann, will be the playing of "Home, Sweet Home" as interpreted by the bands of foreign countries.
Manager Graber also announces a concert to be given in Marion square next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
The program for tomorrow evening in Willson park is as follows:
March, "Free Lance" Sousa
Overture "Beautiful Galatea" Suppe
Waltz (new) "Annette" Baxter
Comic opera selection "Algeria" Herbert
Vocal solo "Memories" Tom Orlemann
Intermezzo "Eleanor" Tom Orlemann
Ballad music "Flight of the Bird" Grand opera selection "Carmen" Bizet
Descriptive "Home, Sweet Home" World Over" arr. by Lampe.
This number depicts the manner in which foreign bands interpret Home Sweet Home.
March "All America" Zamocnic

TWO OF THE THREE AUTO THIEVES CAUGHT

Picked Up This Afternoon at Roseburg—May Be Brought Here for Trial

Two of the three boys who left Salem Tuesday in a Ford stolen from F. H. Barker, a Polk county farmer, were taken into custody at 12:30 today at Roseburg. The third escaped afoot and the authorities are now pursuing him.
The trail was plain from the time the boys left this city and led through Independence, Albany, Lane and Douglas counties.
At the time of the capture the trio was riding in a Ford bearing a Washington license tag, through which they were traced south. The Baker machine was found yesterday three miles west of this city, stripped of practically everything movable.
Yesterday the lads broke into a farm house 10 miles south of Albany. Evidently they traveled fast for last night the store at Conestock was entered and considerable property removed.
At Albany the lads had stolen another Ford and this was found today south of that city with its fittings gone and the power plant practically destroyed.
It is thought probable that the Douglas and Lane county authorities will prosecute the lads. Later they may be brought here to stand trial for the larceny of Barker's automobile.

Privates Have Chance To Go To West Point

The man who now enters the army as a private will soon have the same chances for promotion as the man who is appointed to a cadetship at West Point. The law going into effect November 1, provides that after one year's service, the private may be examined for the privilege of entering West Point and after three years, receiving a commission in the regular army as lieutenant. Schools will also be established in the regular army and young men given the opportunity of advancement.
Sergeants W. D. Schuster and John Hayden are now in charge of the recruiting office in the Keith hotel. The office has been established here permanently, and any young men who feel a disposition to enter the service, now that promotions are part of the army plan, will be given a physical examination, and if successful, sent into the regular army.
After two years' of service, if examinations are passed, the young soldier may become a commissioned officer, beginning with second lieutenant.
Since Sunday, 13 recruits have been forwarded from the Salem recruiting office, seven going yesterday. Today those accepted were Oren McElmurry of Independence, Harold Marian of Portland and Ellis Harlan McMillan, age 18, of Salem.
Young men between the ages of 15 and 18 years, will be required to receive the sanction of their parents before allowed to enlist. Over the age of 18 years, parents consent is not necessary.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

TO SEND BODY HOME
Portland, Ore., July 6.—The family of Lieutenant Henry R. Adair today telegraphed to military authorities at El Paso asking that his body be sent here as soon as possible.
Lieutenant Adair's father, who died last night without learning of his son's fate, will be buried Sunday.
