EDUCATORS DODGED MILITARY TRAINING

Enemies to Training In Majority But Disappeared Before Vote Was Taken

New York, July 7.—The National Education association "puseyfooted" today when it came down to a vote on the question of military training in the schools. After picturesque and oft times lurid debate, the association finally adopted a resolution, which, while neither favoring or disapproving of compulsory training, "recognizes" the right of state and municipalities to order such training, and concludes:

"The organization believes that such training should be strictly educational in its aim and organization, and that the military end should not be permitted to pervert the education purposes and practices of the school."

Although the women delegates—from whom most of the opposition to military preparedness has heretofore been marked—were vastly in the majority at previous sessions, for some mysterious reason today they were absent from the hall and the men, nearly all of whom were against pacifism, were in control.

The question pacifism vs. preparedness was threshed out in Madison Square Garden.

"I am willing to give my life for my country," passionately declared Mrs. Katherine Devereux Blake, one of Ford's peace pilgrims, "but I insist if I make the sacrifice that it shall be a constructive one and not a destructive one. Let us honor the heroes of war of the past, or of the future."

J. H. Cattell, of New York, attacked boys' training camps, like that now in operation near New York.

"I believe these camps," he said, "are institutes of intoxication and prostitution."

Miss Galt, of Virginia, was one of the few women who stood out firmly for complete preparedness. She made an appeal for adequate preparedness.

"I thank God," she said, "that there are men in America to protect us women, but I do not want them to be unprepared."

"I think it is cowardly for us to place the burden of military training and education on the soldiers of the little school children," declared Miss Howe, of California. "If you must have preparedness, let the men and women over 18 prepare."

One other resolution adopted provides for appointment of a committee of five to see President Wilson and urge appointment of a commission to devise means of "taking the yoke off the neck of the farm woman," and to make rural homes more liveable. Another resolution urged appropriation of $60,000 for training of immigrants.

Just one solitary masculine "no" was registered against a resolution endorsing woman suffrage. The anti-suffragist had a seat directly beside Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, of Chicago, an ardent votes for women advocate and she favored him with a withering glare.

Before adjournment, the convention elected Robert J. Aley, of the University of Maine, president and Thomas E. Finegan, New York, treasurer.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from any good druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footpads become lighter, your work seem easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.

The Schmidt-Taylor case was continued today until Monday, July 17. The jury was selected and will sit in the case at that time.

Suit to collect $228.80 and interest and attorney's fees of $25 was begun against J. H. Humphreys by J. H. Blanford. The money is alleged due today in the filing of a complaint on a promissory note given in September of last year.

Governor Johnson to Speak at Conference

Sacramento, Cal., July 7.—Governor Johnson will have a hot message for progressives at the state-wide conference in San Francisco Saturday afternoon, it was stated by his friends today.

The governor declined to give a line on what he will speak about, though stating that "the main purpose of the conference is maintaining progressive principles of government in California and nationally."

It is considered probable that Johnson will, during the course of his speech make known whether he will run for United States senator. He is also expected to speak on national affairs. It is said by persons close to the governor that he will not actively campaign for Candidate Hughes, though he has selected Hughes as his personal choice.

It would not be surprising if the governor should, at the conference, indicate his choice for lieutenant governor.
