Gonzales at Border. Eagle Pass, Texas, July 7.—General Pablo Gonzales was reported today to be en route to the border to assume command of the Carranza garrison at Piedras Negras, which was augmented last night by the arrival of two troop trains bearing a force estimated from 500 to 2,000, including a number of Yaqui Indians.

The Americans remaining in Piedras Negras feared an attack was pending and crossed to the side of the Rio Grande. General Green doubled the previously heavy night guard. The newly arrived Carranza troops were reported to be unruly and the civilian inhabitants of the Mexican town extinguished all lights early last night.

The Yaquis have pitched camp near an old ice plant on the outskirts of the city within sight of Eagle Pass.

Saunders Shoot at Them. Douglas, Ariz., July 7.—California troops were under fire from the Mexican side of the border shortly after 1 a. m. today.

In the midst of a thunder and lightning storm which threatened to break into a deluge downpour any minute, the crack and flash of a rifle report rang out and a lone bullet sang past the ears of Troop D cavalrymen, who were patrolling near the customs house. Owing to the darkness no figures could be seen on the Mexican side. A call was sent to the officer of the day, informing him of the incident. Two companies of the Second Infantry, few members of which were able to sleep owing to the pounding thunder, were quickly formed in line and were stationed as a reserve to the southern California cavalrymen.

Biggest Military Camp. San Antonio, Texas, July 7.—The arrival of additional troops and the organization of four new regiments of regulars will make Fort Sam Houston the largest military camp in the United States since the Civil war. There will be between 16,000 and 17,000 soldiers here, including 11,000 national guardsmen. The combined strength of the militia alone will be greater than that of the maneuver division of 1911.

Teamsters May Start Sympathetic Strike San Francisco, July 7.—If the bay and river boatmen's strike is not settled by Monday, members of the Brotherhood of Teamsters will walk out in sympathy. This was the plan today, following a meeting of the local lodge, at which the river strike situation was discussed. The longshoremen's strike has nothing to do with this move, it was declared. Michael Case, president of the union, in announcing the plan declared that the bay and river boatmen had been refused arbitration, although their demands were justified. If the teamsters quit, Casey said, the produce business in San Francisco may be seriously affected, as a great portion of the fruits and vegetables used here are brought to the wharves in river vessels and handled on the docks by the teamsters union. Marine firemen vote next week on the proposition of a strike in sympathy with the bay and river boatmen. Such a move would seriously affect river commerce. The waterfront workers' federation is considering the longshoremen's request for a sympathetic strike.

FAILED TO CATCH BANDIT Fresno, Cal., July 7.—Posses returned discouraged and weary today after vainly searching the hills near Yosemite day—smelling music. Each kind of music has a distinctive smell, Stevens said. The Sousa march has a piercing sharp odor, "Sampson" smells like onions, and rag time like hash, for instance.

SAN DOMINGO WAR OVER Washington, July 7.—United States marines expected to enter Santiago, San Domingo, last night or this morning without opposition, a radio message to the navy department today from Admiral Caperton said. Dominican were reported quiet. The navy department believes there will be no more fighting.
