

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

Quite the smartest and most delightful affair of the week was the garden party for which Mrs. W. P. Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord were hostesses Thursday to honor their charming house guest, Miss Elsie Deibel of San Francisco.

The Lord gardens with its shrubs, and riotous array of beautiful flowers made an artistic foil for the chic summer apparel of the maids and matrons who gathered under the trees, where chairs and benches were arranged for tea.

The tea table was particularly lovely with an artistic arrangement of blue delphinium, pink anemone snap dragon, yellow roses, sweet William and huge airy blue tulle bows. Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley, Mrs. Ben O. Schucking, Miss Winifred Byrd and Miss Aline Thompson presided at the table and, Miss Ellen Thielson, Miss Veda Cross, Miss Hazel Downing, Miss Jennie Fry, Miss Grace Bean assisted.

Calling during the afternoon were: Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mrs. George William Gray, Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson, Mrs. Frederic D. Thielson, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. Clyde Grauman, Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Ruben Boise, Mrs. William H. Root, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Mrs. William C. Knighton, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Ed S. Stewart, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. William Connell Dyer, Mrs. Elmer T. Ludden, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. Harry Olinger, Mrs. Henry B. Thielson, Mrs. William H. Dancy, Mrs. Walter McDougal, Mrs. Carlton W. Smith, Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. George Waters, Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Mrs. Edward Weller, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. N. J. Haas, Mrs. John W. Harbison, Mrs. J. W. Lauterman, Mrs. R. N. Minto, Mrs. Zadoc Biggs, Mrs. R. N. Gilbert, Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Watson of Portland, Mrs. William Galloway, Miss Lillian Root, Miss Greta Looney of Jefferson, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Cornelius, and Miss Cole of Portland, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Esther Carson, Miss Florence Cleveland, Miss Catherine Carson, Miss Aabel Witaycombe.

Charming in every detail was the lovely luncheon for which Mrs. William H. Root was hostess Thursday at her attractive suburban residence in Fairmount Heights.

The Root residence, which is situated in a bowery of shrubs and flowers, was aglow with beautiful yellow and pink garden flowers, similar blossoms also adorning the small luncheon tables.

The afternoon was devoted to bridge and the high score honors were won by Mrs. Thomas B. Kay. Mrs. Root was assisted by Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton and Mrs. Asahel Bush.

The guests including the members of the Thursday Bridge club and several additional matrons were: Mrs. Fred S. Stewart, Mrs. Wm. C. Knighton, Mrs. Charles Dick, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. Rollin K. Page, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. Edgar Hartley and Mrs. H. J. Shulderman.

The visit of Mrs. Ralph Watson of Portland brought many of the latter's friends together at small informal affairs. While in Salem Mrs. Watson was the guest of Mrs. Edwin L. Baker. She returned to Portland today.

Mrs. Robert Kinney (Althea Moores) who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores, returned Thursday to West Port, Oregon, where she will join Mr. Kinney who is summering at one of his lumber camps.

One of the gayest and most delightful affairs of the week was the supper for which Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thielson were hosts Friday evening at the Thielson country place "Derry Orchard." Wild flowers in artistic profusion adorned the rooms and the supper table which was placed on the broad vine-covered veranda was decked with red geraniums and ferns.

Later the guests played bridge, and the informality of the affair combined with the graciousness of the hosts made it one of the merriest parties given this season for the Oaks Bridge club.

Mrs. Thielson was assisted by Miss Ellen Thielson and Miss Edna Smington.

The guests motored out early in the evening and included, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deekbach, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Siecke, Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlin, Mrs. Lovelace, Mr. and Mrs. Merlina Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gurrie.

Mrs. George J. Pearce and daughters the Misses Helen and Dorothy Pearce, who have been spending the winter in Boston, Mass., arrived in Albany, Wednesday, where Mrs. Pearce and Miss Helen Pearce remained for a several days visit with the former's sister, Mrs. T. G. Hopkins. Miss Dorothy Pearce accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. E. C. Small, who has been the guest of Mrs. Hopkins returned Thursday. While in Boston Miss Helen Pearce attended Radcliff college at Cambridge, and Miss Dorothy studied music at the conservatory of music.

One of the prettiest of the week's luncheons was that given Friday by Mrs. Edward Smyth, honoring her house guest Miss Elizabeth McGaw of Portland.

An artistic array of pink sweet peas and lily ferns centered the table around which were seated the honor guest, Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mrs. Ralph Jackson (Maude Durbin), Miss Grace Bean, Miss Florence Cleveland and the hostess.

This afternoon Mrs. Smyth entertained with a charming Kensington in honor of her guest.

Mrs. James Witaycombe and Miss Mabel Witaycombe have gone to Corvallis, where they will visit until Monday.

Mrs. George Palmer Putnam and small son, David Binney Putnam, left Wednesday for the east where they will remain during Mr. Putnam's absence at the border. They will visit Mrs. Putnam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Binney, at their summer place in Sound Beach, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Cross and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graham will leave this evening on the boat for a trip up the river. The Cross' will take their car and the party will motor home late Sunday night.

The latter part of the week has been brimful of farewell attentions honoring the T. C. Smith's Sr., of Los Angeles, California, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., for several weeks. Dr. and Mrs. Smith left today, and will go to New York for a sojourn before their return to California. They formerly lived in Salem and have a host of old friends here, who made their visit delightful with countless teas, luncheons, dinners and motor trips.

Miss Isabelle McGilchrist, bride-elect, was the honor guest this afternoon at a delightful miscellaneous shower given by Miss Irma Botsford.

About 18 girls were asked for the affair and the honoree was showered with charming gifts. An artistic array of pink and white Dorothy Perkins roses were used about the rooms. Tables were arranged for the guests, and part of the afternoon was devoted to preparing bits of advice for a "guide book to matrimony," which the hostess is going to have bound for the bride-elect.

Favors, attractive pictures of Miss McGilchrist were given each guest.

Assisting in the serving were Miss Lyra Miles and Miss Virginia Holt. Those enjoying the afternoon were: Miss Marie Churchill, Miss Edith Shaw, Miss Agnes Driscoll, Miss Byrd Holt, Miss Adelta Nye, Miss Lucile Kuntz, Miss Mae Steufels, Miss Jennie Pearce, Miss Olive Beckley, Miss Marie Holcomb, Miss Constance Cartwright, Miss Ermine Harding, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Lyra Miles, Miss Hazel Keeler, Miss Ada Ross and Miss Lela Slater.

The beaches are calling many society folk and from now on through the month there will be a scarcity of gayeties, the center of social activity being transferred to Newport and Agate Beach, where most of Salem spends the summer season.

Several families left this week to open their cottages and to prepare for week end house parties and summer guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic D. Thielson and small children left this morning for Agate Beach and will open their cottage for the summer.

Mrs. Elmer T. Ludden and small son Bennet went to Newport Wednesday, and will visit Mrs. Ludden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ragan, for several weeks.

Mrs. W. Connell Dyer and small son "Billy" left Friday and are enjoying the sea breezes at Agate Beach, having taken the Mack Hofer cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joan J. Roberts and children who also belong to the Salem colony at Agate Beach will leave Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley and small children expect to go Wednesday and will open their attractive new cottage, which is just being completed.

A small informal supper was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graham, who entertained a coterie of the younger married set at their apartments in the Court.

Mrs. Rudolf Prael of Portland is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Brown.

French Modiste Uses Shoe Button Trimming

None but a Frenchwoman could have so piquantly used brownish pearl shoe buttons parading from throat to toe tips in this costume. The fabric is brown taffeta contrasted with buff, the buttons being applied in close pairs. Please study the picturesque effect.

Miss Junia Todd entertained Wednesday afternoon with a charming Kensington for Mrs. Mae Harris and Miss Elsie Evans of Columbus, Ohio. About forty five guests were asked to meet the visitors, who are the guests of Mrs. Carl G. Doney. Garden flowers in brilliant array adorned the rooms. In the dining room where the small serving tables were arranged, the decorations and appointments were all carried out in an effective red, white and blue color scheme. During the afternoon Miss Lela McCaddam charmingly sang several patriotic solos.

Mrs. J. O. Hall and Mrs. Florian Von Eschen assisted in the rooms and the Misses Ola Clark, Beryl Holt, Esther Taylor, Mary Findley and Carrie Cooksey in the serving.

Miss Todd's guests included: Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. Mae Harris, Miss Elsie Evans, Mrs. Minerva Todd, Mrs. J. O. Hall, Mrs. G. Ebsen, Mrs. J. C. Mathews, Mrs. J. H. Alden, Mrs. Burgess Ford, Mrs. F. Von Eschen, Mrs. Stauffer, Mrs. Frank W. Chase, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. Henry J. Talbott, Mrs. Blodgett and Miss Blodgett of Idaho, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. F. Selee, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Swafford, Mrs. M. C. Smiley, Mrs. E. Underhill, Mrs. F. R. Cooksey, Mrs. R. N. Avison, Mrs. Laban Steeves, Mrs. Cloyd Rauch, Miss Carrie Cooksey, Miss Mary Pndley, Miss Young, Miss Luu Poole, Miss Ella Poole, Miss Ola Clark, Miss Genevieve Avison, Miss Alice Page of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Miss Esther Taylor, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Harriett Henry and Miss Lela McCaddam.

Another delightful affair honoring Mrs. Mae Harris and Miss Elsie Evans of Columbus, Ohio, was the Kensington for which Mrs. Henry J. Talbott was hostess Thursday. The affair was informal yet very charming. An artistic arrangement of red carnations, red roses, snap dragon and coral plant decked the living room and the dining room, and prettily adorned with pink rambler roses and fernery.

About 30 guests were asked for the affair. Mrs. Talbott was assisted by Mrs. Gustave Ebsen.

Close to sixty members of the Woman's Relief Corps and Sedgwick Post attended the attractive afternoon affair given Thursday at the residence of Mrs. L. K. Page. The affair was planned to honor Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Sr., of Los Angeles, Calif., Dr. Smith being the organizer of the corps.

Sharing the honors as hostesses were Mrs. Page, Mrs. Gideon Stolz, Mrs. A. E. Dismore, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham and Mrs. Ida Babcock.

The Page residence had red, white and blue, as a color note made many of the centerpieces and roses, all effectively arranged in the various rooms. Flags and bunting were also used to drape the doors and windows.

In the dining room the pretty table was centered with a huge basket of red, white and blue garden flowers. Mrs. T. C. Smith, Sr., of Los Angeles cut the ices, and Mrs. L. L. McCaddam presided over the samovar.

A delightful feature of the affair was the solo by Mrs. C. M. Lockwood, the reading by Mrs. Ronald Glover, and the interesting talk by Dr. T. C. Smith of Los Angeles.

Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Denison, Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Stolz, Mrs. E. C. Raue, Miss Vera Wright, Mrs. H. P. Blodgett, Mrs. Florence E. Shipp, Mrs. E. J. Dorsey, Mrs. Ruth Denison, Mrs. Gertrude Remington, Mrs. Maria Thompson, Mrs. Hattie Skelton, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, Mrs. Myra Dotson, Mrs. Emma Roberts, Mrs. Amy Ellis, Mrs. C. C. Pascoe, Mrs. A. Lewis, Mrs. Sarah E. Drager, Mrs. Elizabeth Bullock, Mrs. Mary E. Cook, Mrs. Florence Spencer, Mrs. William H. Byars, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. Helen Southwick, Mrs. Margaret Cox, Mrs. Helen Cox, Mrs. F. A. Thompson, Mrs. Laura McAdams, James Lisle, Mrs. E. J. Remington, Mrs. Hattie B. Cameron, Mrs. Mary Kafoury, Mrs. A. L. Clearwater, Mrs. Norma Terwilliger, Mrs. May Smith, Mrs. L. W. Ackerman, Mrs. Mary A. Briggs, Mrs. Alice D. Ralston, Mrs. G. Windell, Mrs. Frank R. Welles, Mrs. Benjamin S. Via, Mrs. Elizabeth Adley, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. Alice Caldwell.

Miss Katherine McClelland entertained on Wednesday evening with an informal "500" party at her home on Court street. Three tables of the game were arranged for the guests, who were members of the Quince Jours club.

The rooms were gaily adorned with Caroline Testout roses and nasturtiums.

An informal supper party was given Friday evening at the home of General and Mrs. William H. Byars, in celebration of Mr. Byars' birthday anniversary. The table which was prettily adorned with garden flowers had covers for eight.

As a fitting close to the gayeties of the Cherry Fair the Cherrians entertained the Queen and her court with a large dance on Monday night at the armory.

Informality was the keynote of the evening and everyone revelled in it. A huge throng attended the affair and never has there been a more colorful, a happier assemblage of dancers than came to whirl through the evening and bring a happy end to the reign of Queen Estella.

Mrs. Mauley R. Coates (Orpha Elliott) of Vandalia, Montana, is expected next week for a several months visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Elliot, and her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Elliott.

Much interest centers in the Company M boys who are at the Mexican border and social affairs are being planned to aid them and their families. One of these functions already planned is the patriotic programme and informal dance for which the members of the Patriotic League will be sponsors Monday evening at the armory. Solos and interesting speeches will be part of the delightful programme and will include numbers by Mrs. Hallie Parrish Hinges, Tom Ordeman, Rev. Harry E. Marshall and others. The programme which is free will precede the dance and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone who is interested in the soldiers. For the dance the meager sum of 25 cents will be charged.

One of the informal and gay little parties of the week was the motor picnic given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Zadoc J. Riggs. The affair was planned as a little courtesy to their house guests Miss Tibble Cornelius and Miss Mabel Cole of Portland and the party motored to the Polk county hills for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Riggs guests included about 12 of the married set.

Wednesday, Mrs. D. Howard presided at a small informal luncheon in honor of the visitors, covers being placed for four.

The matrons of the Agenda club motored out to the suburban home of H. E. Vorbies recently, to share in the pleasures of a sewing bee for which Mrs. Vorbies and Mrs. H. H. Vandervert were joint hostesses. The rooms were prettily decorated with Caroline Testout roses. Late in the afternoon the hostesses served refreshments.

The guests included, Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mrs. U. G. Holt, Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mrs. J. A. Mills, Mrs. R. B. Jones, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. W. E. Vincent, Mrs. A. E. Hunt, Mrs. F. C. DeLong. The additional guests were: Mrs. W. C. Young, Mrs. E. A. Kuntz and Mrs. W. B. Birr.

Mrs. F. I. Fuller who was the guest of Mrs. Rollin K. Page for a few days returned to Portland Tuesday night.

The members of the Three Link Needle club enjoyed an afternoon of sewing recently at the home of Mrs. J. A. Anderson. Jars and bowls of fragrant roses were used about the rooms and Mrs. L. D. Denison and Mrs. L. C. Denison assisted Mrs. Anderson in serving dainty refreshments.

Monday evening the Rebekah lodge will hold an installation meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall. The officers to be installed are: Mrs. W. A. Cummings N. G.; Mrs. David Wright, V. G.; Mrs. W. Simeral, secretary; Mrs. J. A. Patterson, treasurer; Mrs. Clara Simeral, warden; Mrs. C. O. Engstrom, conductor; Mrs. Anna Miller, captain; Mrs. Ruth Denison, L. S. to noble grand; Mrs. J. A. D. president; Mrs. I. W. Simeral, marshal.

Mrs. Henderson of Chemawa, Mrs. George Vesko, Miss Marie Bennett and Mrs. Roth attendants.

A delightful studio recital was given Thursday by the pupils of Mrs. Cora Hendry. The pupils gave the program in grade form, beginning with the first grade pupils up to the fifth grade. All rendered their pieces most creditably and impressed their listeners with their skill and progress.

Mrs. Hendry sang "O Dry Those Tears" by Teresa Del Riego, also "Doan Ye Cry Ma Honey" by Nell, Miss Isola Smith accompanist, Miss Smith is a graduate of Miss Weller's. The rooms were beautifully decorated with ocean spray. Mrs. Geo. Koehler, Mrs. Batty Capper and Mrs. Budlong assisted in the serving.

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

By Margaret Mason.

Oh she is a rain dear
In oil silk chapeau
And slick coat of oil silk
From neck to her toe.

These desirable rainday outfits that are as serviceable as they are charming come in all decorative colorings of vivid green, Mediterranean blue, amber, cerise, purple and white as well as sober black and grey—both pearl and Oxford.

When you once glimpse the new umbrellas you'll spend all your time prying for rain. They are chunky and stubby and adorable and also dear.

They are called sun umbrellas and can be carried equally well in rain or shine but they really are more rainy looking.

They come in black, purple, green, red and blue and all have sticky little clubby handles with either a loop of braided leather like a cowhide whip to slip over your wrist or else they have stunning white ivory rings for the same purpose.

Those with the white bracelet effects have their little blunt stub ferns tipped with the white and also the ends of their ribs.

Others not quite so stubby but most attractive have handles of amber and tortoise and there are also some with handles of white capped in green or blue and some with handles of black and white stripes.

Truly the rain is a blessing to bring out not only nature's flowers but all the fair Roses, Pansies, Myrtles, Daisies and Ivys so smartly hatted, coated and umbrellaed.

New York, July 8.—Ducks aren't the only creatures that love to take a promenade on rainy days. All the deal feminine creatures of the human race are just crazy about summer showers now that the swagger new rainy day sets of oilskin coat and hat are for sale. No wonder, for they are awfully ducky, too.

Each sweetheart, wife and mother finds she is a little rain dear in these slick new outfits, but alas, every husband and father finds the rain a little dear for him also.

He disagrees with the soothsayers who advise you to put a little away for a rainy day. Father finds it wise to put away a lot against the coming of this 1916 rainy season.

These new transparent raincoats of brilliant hued oil—silk that look like singlass we had with us in limited quantities last season, but this summer they have burst forth in profusion and variety and are topped off with the most perky of little slouch hats to match.

These hats come in two models, one fashioned solely of the oilskin with a stitched brim and a fold and pump bow of the same around the soft crown. The other is a little soft shaped affair of the oilskin lined throughout with the same shade of taffeta that pulls down snug on the head and allows the floppy brim to turn up or down or every-
