Geo. Beban Star In Great Production

"Pasquale" the Morosco Photoplay Co's new production that stars Geo. Beban, the great portrayor of Italian characters in the composition of Mr. Beban in collaboration with Lawrence McCloskey.

The picture play shows Pasquale as a quiet, honest endeavoring small grocer into whose life at a very critical time the shadow of the great war casts its ominous influence. The pathetic appeal of his rendering so stirs the heart to the relief of his final happiness, all the range of the emotions is played upon.

Laughter, tears, estrangements and suffering, hilarity and joyousness, happiness and tragedy are wonderfully and fascinatingly blended to make a masterpiece of this very unusual film story. At Ye Liberty Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

BILL TO PROVIDE FOR TAXING EXPATRIATES

Senate to Remodel Revenue Bill— Would Make Men Like Astor Pay

Washington, July 11.—Receiving the revenue bill which the house passed late yesterday, the senate today planned a complete redraft of the measure. Sessions of the finance committee will begin at once, Chairman Simmons declared.

Though the general outline of the bill is not to be fundamentally altered, since it is drafted in accordance with administration desires, the provisions for the income and inheritance taxes and a tariff commission all will be altered in detail.

A plan, for instance, to tax expatriate Americans on their American securities is most popular among senators.

Several leaders have collected figures on the amount of war tax which Americans who have been connected with British enterprises are obliged to pay on their American properties. It is claimed the British government collects nearly $5,000,000 a year on the rentals which the Astors, one of whom has been given a title, levy on New York real estate.

Senate leaders say it will be possible to tax expatriates despite their British citizenship by levying on their incomes at the sources.

This measure, however, is one of those on which republicans plan a filibuster, as a part of their frank purpose to delay or defeat the shipping bill. When debate shall have been finished, however, democratic leaders expect several republican votes for the measure because of its tariff commission proposal and other semi-protective clauses. Thirty-nine republicans and one independent—Kent, of California—joined the solid democratic house majority in passing the bill. The house draft jumped rates on incomes, creating inheritance and munitions taxes and a tariff commission.

Two Are Arrested On Bench Warrants

Sheriff Each today arrested Flora A. Brewster on a bench warrant issued as a result of a secret indictment by the grand jury. She is charged with attempting to practice chiropractic without a license.

Dr. Brewster has offices in the Hubbard building. This afternoon she appeared before Judge Kelly and, through her counsel W. C. Winslow, pleaded not guilty.

Attorney Norman S. Richards of Portland was served with a bench warrant at Portland this morning. He is charged with assault and battery against Grant Corby, an attorney of this city. Richards appeared before Judge W. N. Gates at Portland today and was released on his own recognizance.

It is understood that witnesses appeared before the grand jury and asked that action be taken in this matter. Mr. Corby had nothing to do with filing the charge.

The alleged assault occurred during the trial of a case in Judge Galloway's court on June 26. Richards is said to have leaped on Corby unawares and struck the Salem man who later defended himself. Spectators and court attaches separated the two. A fine imposed by the court at that time was remitted when Richards made an apology.

CHAUTAQUA PARADE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Which Is Much More Than Can Be Said of the Ticket Selling

The Salein Chautauqua boosters, occupying 75 automobiles were out in force last evening, parading in the business and close in resident sections of the city. Walter Hicks, the advance man for Ellison-White said that it was the largest parade of the kind he had ever seen, all of which is going some for Salem.

But while the parade was entirely successful, the ticket committee today is having its troubles, as a final report must be made by tomorrow noon. Although the number of tickets pledged would have brought in enough money for the Chautauqua, so many are out of the city, and others have attempted to renege on their pledges, that serious doubt has been entertained as to whether the committee will have the necessary funds. The committee will continue its work this evening and tomorrow, hoping those who have signed pledges will not go back on their obligations.

The tent crew will arrive tomorrow and the first session of the Chautauqua will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

With the exception of but one, the pastors of all churches in the city have agreed to dismiss for the services of next Sunday evening. Vesper services will be held at Wilson park at 6:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in which the members and congregations of all churches are asked to participate. Dr. Frank Brainard, pastor of the First Congregational church of Ogden will conduct the services.

Charles Zubelin, the man who talks of civic pride and what cities should do, is on the program for Friday evening. According to the present plans, he will be entertained at a dinner Friday evening by the members of the Commercial club and others and be given an opportunity to say a few things from a city business standpoint.

WANT MORE MONKEYS FOR EXPERIMENTING

Embargo Shuts Off Supply— May Appeal to Zoos for Material

New York, July 11.—Hampered by lack of monkeys for experimental purposes, with the possibility that such lack may postpone any solution of the mystery of infantile paralysis, a general appeal for apes to all zoos throughout the country was being considered today.

Existence of a quarantine of several months standing has prevented any new shipments of monkeys during that period. Secretary of Agriculture Houston has raised the embargo on a big shipment of apes now held at Manila, but a month must elapse before they can be received here. In the meantime a strenuous effort is being made to hurry along a shipment from Central America.

The fruits of the city's gigantic cleanup were apparent today in fines assessed against nearly 1,000 citizens for infractions of sanitary laws.

Health Commissioner Emerson reported his satisfaction with the progress of the fight against the epidemic even though the latest figures showed a big increase in number of cases and deaths.

Health officials announced today they had sufficient hospital room to accommodate all cases and plenty of nurses and physicians. Their greatest difficulty is in convincing almost frantic parents of children found infected that their baby has its best chance of being cured in a hospital.

Christian Women's Board of Missions

The program at the Turner state convention yesterday was under the auspices of the C. W. B. M. and was a most interesting session, the day being full from 8 a. m. to nine p. m. The platform was beautiful in lavender and white the C. W. B. M. colors. Mrs. E. L. Cunningham the national secretary and Missionary Tidings editor, gave inspirational and instructive address reviewing the general aspects of the work and present needs.

Mrs. Madden who has served for over twenty years as a missionary in Japan, dressed in Japanese costume and kept the convention convulsed by the recitals of experiences with language and customs or moved them to tears with the tragic events they had witnessed. These proved Japan a fruitful mission field. Mrs. Madden's little son and daughter sang a song in Japanese. They were in Japanese costume.

The Chinese situation was presented by Lee Tong of the Portland Chinese mission and was full of interest. All parts of the program were pleasing and educational.

Mrs. Davis Errett who was to be on the program disappointed Salem friends by not being present.

The following was the program of the day:

8—State and local officers' devotional, Mrs. E. L. Cunningham, leader.
8:30—Devotional Bible study, J. A. Lord.
9—Song service
9:10—Devotional, Mrs. Ella Humbert, Eugene.
9:20—Reports: Treasurer, Mrs. E. S. Muckley, Field workers, Mrs. F. E. Jones and Mrs. M. H. Kendall. Supt.

SHRINE SPECTACLE PRESENTED TODAY

More Than 100 Temples Take Part In Ceremonies at Opening

Buffalo, N. Y., July 11.—The first of the great Shrine Spectacles was presented today when members of more than 100 temples, representing every section of the United States in their gaily adorned patrols and skilled bands, marched as an escort to J. Putnam Stevens of Portland, Maine, the imperial potentate.

With the opening of the session of the Imperial council in the Majestic theatre at noon, the serious business of the forty second annual meeting began.

No suggestion is heard that there will be any new timber introduced into the Imperial council edifice, except in the case of the lowest office. The present imperial potentate will be succeeded by the present imperial potentate, H. F. Neidringbaum, Jr., of St. Louis. All other officers will advance one station leaving vacant the position of outer guard, William Paschen of Troy, N. Y., David W. Crossman, Montgomery, Ala., and George W. Staples of Buffalo, are candidates to fill the place.

San Antonio, Texas, wants a shrine and has made up its mind to get it. It has picked the name of Alzarar. It is to be pronounced "Hell's-a-fire," so the members of Ben Hur temple, who live at San Antonio say.

Several cities, besides Minneapolis have entered the race to secure the convention of nobles in 1917. They are Portland, Or., Portland, Maine, Atlantic City, N. J., and Atlanta, Ga.
