SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Graber left Thursday for Neakowin.

The members of the Round Dozen club were entertained at an informal afternoon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. W. Potter, on the Pringle road.

Proceeding an enjoyable afternoon of games and music a business session was held and presided over by the new officers. Later refreshments closed the afternoon.

The hostess was assisted in the serving by Miss Edith Ballinger and Miss Effie Mull.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry have returned home for a several days sojourn at Seaside.

Mrs. Percy Young and Miss Isabelle Young who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop for a few days, returned to Albany late last night. They accompanied Mr. Young who motored up early in the evening to join in the gayeties of a picnic given at the golf links. Besides the honor guests the party numbered ten.

Mrs. W. A. Morris (Mina Huelett) of Berkeley, California, who was a recent visitor in Salem, passed through here today en route home from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Southwick have as their guest for the summer their daughter, Mrs. J. A. H. Baird of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bailey have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. E. Wagner of Newport. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner motored to Salem from Hillsboro, where they have been visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bailey of Forest Grove, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Volk of "Volkland," returned home Wednesday.

Governor to Make Salem His Residence

Governor Withycombe will hereafter be a resident of this city. He is to reside at 993 Court street and Mrs. Withycombe has been here for some time arranging the details of her domestic establishment.

Formerly the governor made his home in Corvallis, having been connected with the Oregon Agricultural college before his election to the position he now holds.

Since entering the capitol Governor Withycombe has been in the habit of traveling between this city and Corvallis, frequently making several trips a week.

WILSON ASKED IF HE WILL LEAD THE MOOSE

Replies That His Party Stands for Progress and Wants Moose with Them

Washington, July 14.—Expressing belief that his party represents a larger part of the progressive power and thought of the country than any other party, President Wilson today made a formal bid for the progressive vote at the coming election.

In a letter to J. C. Parker, progressive of Philadelphia, who had written, asking the president if he would accept the leadership of progressives of all parties, President Wilson wrote:

"My dear Mr. Parker: I have read your letter of July 10 with a great deal of attention and with very serious interest, and realize as keenly as you do the anomalous conditions by which many of the progressive voters of the country are being confused and misled as well as the old, inveterate attractions which seem to control the choice of many of them in matters political.

In answer to the question contained in your letter, I will say that, for my part, I have no jealousy whatever of independent organizations intended to keep the independent voters of the country reminded as to parties and the conditions under which votes are being solicited.

"For myself I sincerely desire and have tried to deserve the support of all progressive, forward looking men. I believe and I think that recent experience has confirmed that the democratic party represents a larger part of the progressive power and thought of the country than any other party, and that it can be made the instrument, and is being made the instrument of leadership in the direction which all men who love justice and progress must wish to walk. It is for that reason that I am proud to be the nominee and to have the opportunity to lead it."

Cordially and sincerely yours, (Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

$16,666 Damage Suit Up Before Judge Kelly

This afternoon sees the opening of the $16,666 damage suit of S. F. Anderson of the Great Western garage against Dr. W. H. Byrd in Judge Kelly's court.

The incident of which the present litigation is an outcome occurred last August. Dr. Byrd, while attempting to drive his motor car through the doorway of the garage, opposite the court house on High street, collided with a post which fell. Anderson, who was sitting in a chair near the doorway, was struck by falling debris.

He claims that a leg was broken and that his hip and back were injured. The injuries, Anderson avers, confined him to the bed for three months and necessitated an outlay of some hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills and for nurse hire.

Byrd alleges that Anderson occupied a dangerous position in sitting in the doorway reading and that he failed to keep a watchful lookout for approaching cars. Further, it is asserted, the post that fell bringing down with it a sash and other material, was constructed in a flimsy manner and not properly secured in place.

A. A. Hall of this city and J. G. Arnold of Portland represent Anderson and George Bingham and John A. Carson appear for Dr. Byrd.

House Passes Bill for Leasing Power Sites

Washington, July 14.—The Adamson bill, providing for the leasing of power dam sites on navigable rivers, was passed by the house today by a vote of 51 to 17. It permits the government to reclaim the sites at the expiration of 50 year franchises by purchasing the dam, locks and generating plants. This bill was passed as a substitute of the Shields water power bill which went through the senate against opposition of the conservationists.

IS YOUR HEALTH WORTH $5.00?

Woman Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Lima, Ohio.—"I was all broken down in health from a displacement. One of my lady friends came to see me and she advised me to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I began taking your remedies and took $5.00 worth and in two months was a well woman after three doctors said I never would stand up straight again. I was a midwife for seven years and I recommended the Vegetable Compound to every woman to take before birth and afterwards, and they all got along so nicely that it surely is a godsend to suffering women. If women wish to write to me I will be delighted to answer them."

—Mrs. JENNIE MOYER, 342 E. North St., Lima, Ohio.

Women who suffer from displacements, weakness, irregularities, nervousness, headache or bearing-down pains, need the tonic-strengthening properties of the roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

ORPET CASE WILL GO TO JURY TODAY

Joslyn Expects to End Final Argument for State by Six o'Clock

Courtroom, Waukegan, Ill., July 14.—Will Orpet's fate may rest with the jury late today.

At the opening of today's session of Orpet's trial for Marion Lambert's murder, Judge Charles H. Donnelly urged lawyers for the defense and state to hasten their final pleas.

James H. Wilkerson, chief of Orpet's counsel, the last to speak for the youth, planned to complete his statement shortly after noon, giving way to Special Prosecutor Joslyn for the state.

"If I finish my plea by six p. m., today, I shall ask the court to charge the jury immediately afterward," Joslyn announced.

The conflicting theories of murder and suicide were flung again and again at the jurors in arguments today. Wilkerson's closing plea was to be dramatic. States Attorney Dady announced definitely that the state will not demand the death penalty.

"All we want is a conviction," he declared.

The state was ready today in event of Orpet's acquittal on the murder charge to ask several indictments for perjury in connection with the case. One witness, Mrs. Edwin Taylor, at whose home in Madison, Wis., Orpet roomed has already been summoned before the October grand jury to testify in this connection.

Orpet Is a Menagerie
Courtroom, Waukegan, Ill., July 14.—Will Orpet was painted in the blackest hue this afternoon in Special Prosecutor Joslyn's final plea to the jury, which will have Orpet's fate in its hands tonight.

In bitter tones Joslyn excoriated the character of Orpet pleading for a conviction on the charge that the youth murdered Marion Lambert.

"When Mr. Dady got in Madison to see Orpet the first time," Joslyn began, "Orpet told him that Marion had suffered until her chastity was gone. Her body was destroyed. He admitted he had seduced her."

"Were you and I to go to hell for it, we would have upheld her honor. All but skunks and cowards would have gone to hell before they would have dragged her name into the mire or scandal."

In turn Joslyn branded Orpet as "skunk, coward, louse, and murderer."

Canfield Is Guilty of Perjury Says Jury

After deliberating but half an hour the jury in the case of the state against Bert Canfield, charged with perjury, in connection with buying alcohol at the Capital Drug store in this city, returned a verdict of guilty. Judge Kelly will pronounce sentence at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Canfield admitted that he was a floater and at the time of the alleged crime had been in the county less than a week. He had worked for W. C. Winkler at Quinby training hops. Because of a cold and to combat which he declared he wanted the alcohol, he had refused a job cutting wood.

Chief of Police Welch testified that since 1913 he has seen very little of Canfield. On numerous occasions prior to that time he had arrested the defendant for intoxication and had warned him to leave town.

The case decided today is the first in this county for perjury as a violation of the prohibition law, according to District Attorney Hingo. The penalty for perjury is from two to five years.
