

MONKEYS EXPECTED TO HELP IN SAVING BABIES IN FIGHT ON INFANTILE PARALYSIS

ROCKEFELLER INSTITUTE—MONKEY MAY SAVE CHILD

Thoroughly alarmed by the spread of infantile paralysis among the children of New York city and the peril of its attacking the children of other communities (there have already been affected) the federal authorities offered to the city the aid of the federal health service. Dr. Haven Emerson, city health commissioner, asked the acting surgeon general to obtain, if possible, the release for shipment to the United States of 100 monkeys in the Philippines. In its efforts to solve the all-important problem of how infantile paralysis is "carried," the department of health and co-operating research agencies are seriously embarrassed by a shortage of monkeys. The monkey is the only animal upon which tests to identify the mediums of communication of the disease can be made. The Rockefeller institute, however, which was established by John D. Rockefeller to fight infantile paralysis after his young grandson died of the disease, has 100 monkeys collected in the Philippines, ready for shipment. Because of disease among animals on the islands there has been an embargo on their exportation. This is why the monkeys have not come to New York. If the efforts of the public health service are successful in having the embargo raised, so far as the monkeys are concerned, although the animals will not arrive for some weeks, Dr. Emerson believes that the scientists of the federal government, of the Rockefeller institute and of other research bodies will be able to make great headway in solving the problem of who and what are the most dangerous "carriers" of infantile paralysis.

ARRANGING PLANS FOR COOS BAY TRIP

Cherrians to Meet Friday Evening to Perfect Details of Visit

King Bing has issued a command for all Cherrians to meet at the Commercial club Friday evening to arrange in detail the great Cherrian excursion to the Coos Bay country, August 25, 26 and 27. This trip to Marshfield will be the biggest thing that has ever happened to the Cherrians. It is a three day trip, leaving Salem on a special at 9 o'clock Friday morning of August 25 and returning late Sunday evening. The Cherrians and their friends will travel "de luxe," which signifies that for a consideration of $16.50 each person will be given transportation to Marshfield and return, including meals and berths. While the excursion is primarily for the Cherrians and will be known as a Cherrian excursion, it is open for any who wish to go and avail themselves of the unusual opportunities of seeing the Coos Bay country and of being entertained by the good citizens of Marshfield. The governor signified his intention of joining the party and to add to the joy of the occasion, the Cherrian band will discourse sweet music from time to time.

HE ENLISTED C. E. Crim, aged about 25, an employe at the state tuberculosis hospital, was arrested yesterday on complaint of a patient at that institution charging him with the theft of a watch, which he is alleged to have brought to town and sold. Crim was held in the city jail over night, and this morning on being arraigned in police court was informed that his case would be continued indefinitely provided he would enlist at once for service in the army. He gladly accepted the terms.

ELKUS GETS TURKEY Washington, July 18.—President Wilson today nominated Abram Elkus, New York, to be United States ambassador to Turkey. The nomination was decided upon several weeks ago but sending it to the senate was delayed pending inquiries as to the acceptability of Elkus to the Turkish government.

AUTO EMPLOYEES STRIKE Milwaukee, Wis., July 18.—When their demands for an eight hour day were refused, 1,200 machinists at the Allis Chalmers plant walked out at 10 o'clock this morning. Members of the Metal Trades unions in other shops in the city are expected to follow.

THE NAVAL PROGRAM Washington, July 18.—The senate today adopted the naval program urged by President Wilson. Eight capital ships this year and 10 in three years. Passage of the whole naval bill is near.

FLOUR JUMPED 20 CENTS Portland, Ore., July 18.—An advance of 20 cents a barrel in the price of all brands of patent flour was announced here today. The new price, which is effective here and also at Puget Sound points, is $5.20 a barrel.

AGREE ON POSTOFFICE BILL Washington, July 18.—The house this afternoon adopted the conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill carrying a total of $322,206,570.

The teacher wanted some plums in order to give an object lesson during school hours, and, calling one of the small boys, she gave him 10 cents and dispatched him to a fruit store down on the corner. "Before you buy the plums, Willie," she cautioned, "you had better pinch one or two to make sure they are ripe." Little Willie flitted away. Soon he came back and smilingly pinched one of the teacher's cheeks. "Oh, thank you, Willie," said the teacher, taking up the bag. "Did you pinch one or two as I told you to do?" "Did I?" was the gleeful response. I pinched the whole bagful and here is your ten cents."

Reports Show Strike Compromise Is Rejected

San Francisco, July 18.—J. J. Foley, president of the San Francisco local of Longshoremen's association this afternoon announced that returns from locals in virtually all ports on the Pacific coast indicated that the proposed compromise of the strike had been rejected by a vote of nearly 2 to 1. The San Francisco Longshoremen, he said, were the only ones who accepted the compromise. This is taken to mean that the longshoremen will not resume work as had been expected. Both the Northern and Southern locals, according to figures received late today by Foley defeated the proposition, overwhelmingly. Some late today by Foley, defeated the locals are still balloting, but judging from the vote of nearby locals, it is believed the total ballot will only add to the majority rejecting the terms.

Boilers Are Smaller But Statements Not

Sacramento, Cal., July 18.—A new fraud at the expense of the public was unearthed today by Superintendent C. G. Johnson, of the state department of weights and measures. The department found that a number of manufacturers of range boilers, as a result of severe competition, yielded to a demand for a cheaper price by decreasing the size of the boilers, but in so doing have not changed their method of indicating contents or capacity which forms the basis of the selling price of the boilers. In most cases it was found that boilers represented as holding 30 gallons would not hold over 25 gallons. He directed all city and county sealers to prosecute all cases of this kind arising in their districts.

Each Wanted Money Neither Wanted Stock

San Francisco, July 18.—United States District Judge Frank Dietrich today sustained a demurrer to the complaint filed by the Southern Pacific company against John D. and A. B. Spreckels. The action affects the claims of the Spreckels brothers and the railroad company to $2,000,000 for breach of contract in the proposed railroad from San Diego to Yuma, Ariz. The road was never built and the contract afterwards was declared invalid. Both parties to the contract claimed the money which has been impounded at 4 1/2 per cent. Judge Dietrich held that as both parties wanted the money and neither wanted the stock of the road which the Southern Pacific company now holds, the contract, whose clauses were unfair, was invalid.

Mediation Board to Volunteer Services

Washington, July 18.—The United states board of mediation and conciliation considers the situation which has arisen in the dispute between the railroads and engineers and firemen so serious that it has made plans to volunteer its services "in the event of trouble" it became known here today. Heretofore the board always has intervened only after being called on by consent of both parties. Commissioner Chalmers said because the situation, in event of a strike, would be "a serious detriment to public good," the board would immediately proffer its services.

The Result of a Drink

Such a slight circumstance as a glass of wine changed the history of France for nearly twenty years. Louis Philippe, king of the French, had a son, the Duke of Orleans and heir to the throne, who always drank only a certain number of glasses of wine, because even one more made him tipsy. On a memorable morning he forgot to count the number of his glasses and took one more than usual. When entering his carriage he stumbled, frightening the horses and causing them to run. In attempting to leap from the carriage his head struck the pavement, and he soon died. That glass of wine overthrew the Orleans rule, confiscated their property of $100,000,000 and sent the whole family into exile.

Camels

Unless camels have been especially trained to abstain they cannot go as long as is commonly supposed without water. When marching near rivers they drink twice a day. They feed largely on the tough, scrubby verdure known locally as camel thorn, which grows throughout Mesopotamia, except on the extreme desert wastes. Their habits are peculiar. Unlike horses, they seem to feel no fondness for their human associates, though they will seldom wander far from the caravan tents even if left untied overnight.

UNCLE SAM FEEDS HIS SOLDIERS WELL; MILITIA GET SAME RATIONS AS REGULARS

Foreign observers, especially the officers detailed to watch military affairs in this country, comment frequently on the liberality and variety of the United States army rations as compared with those of other nations. The average daily food each American soldier, regular or militia, is as follows: 14 ounces of fish or eighteen ounces of salt beef or sixteen ounces of fresh beef, one egg, one ounce coffee, one ounce rice, one ounce potatoes, two ounces beans, two ounces butter, three ounces sugar, fourteen ounces cornmeal bread. No. 1 militiamen cutting up beef; Nos. 2 and 3 in line for rations; No. 4 preparing food.

NO CLEW TO MURDERER Marysville, Cal., July 17.—With no clues to the murderers, the sheriff and his deputies today renewed their efforts to locate the two men who strangled Ed Ryan of Wheatland, in an orchard near here and robbed him of $60.

Surrounded by evidences of a desperate struggle, Ryan's body was found half a mile from Marysville. There were eleven knife wounds in the body, and a handkerchief had been knotted around the man's neck and he had been choked to death. Forty feet from the body Ryan's hat lay and the ground in the vicinity was stained with blood.

The murderer's victim was last seen alive Friday midnight. He was with two men and had $60 and his watch in his pockets.

Gathering Up the Gold. Gold imports from Canada within little more than a month exceed $71,000,000, or what would formerly have been considered an extraordinary movement for a whole year all the world. Net gold imports since the European war began reach the stupendous total of around $600,000,000, or more than the country's total monetary stock of gold no longer than 20 years ago.
