Famous Correspondent to Write of Mexico

San Antonio, Texas, July 19.—William G. Shepherd, United Press war reporter who has been on every battle front in Europe during the last two years, arrived here today to start a tour of the militia camps.

He will write a series of stories for United Press papers comparing the American militiamen of the various states with the fighting soldiers in Europe. Shepherd went through the dero campaign in Mexico. He was in Mexico during the Huerta regime and was with Funston at Vera Cruz, being intimately familiar with Mexican war conditions.

The parties to whom the following letters were directed will not receive them unless there happens to be something on the inside of the envelope to aid the dead letter office at Washington. A little return notice on the upper left hand corner of the envelope would have solved the problem to the extent of at least returning the letter to the writer. At the Salem post office are the following, misdirected: Mr. C. P. Kroch, near Loganville on the Oregon Electric; Mrs. Cliff Wade, Joyce Road, South Vane; Gilbert Graham, Champion Alpha; H. B. Hollenbeck, 21 Brood avenue.

An open air meeting and picnic will be held Friday afternoon at the fair grounds by the members of the W. C. T. U. Addresses will be made by Will S. Hale, superintendent of the Oregon State Training school, and the Rev. Josephine Hockett, of the Friends church.

Don't Forget Friday But Help Clean Beaches

Workmen are busy removing logs and old stumps and everything is getting in shape for the great clean-up day, which will be Friday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock. At this hour the Cherrians and others good citizens who are interested in a public bathing beach will be asked to give an hour or two of their

CITY NEWS

The river fell five inches yesterday and now is 4.7 feet above the low water mark gauge, which is higher than it has been for July 19 during the past 20 years.

Perhaps the most interesting director's report at the monthly meeting of the Commercial club this evening will come from Benjamin Brick of the tourist and publicity department. His report will include an itemized list of receipts and expenditures for the Cherry fair.

Automobiling is just a little too prosaic for the ambitious young lady of the present day, when it comes to spending a few days vacation. Hiking is the proper thing now and the latest to enjoy the beauties of nature along the roadside are Miss Eva McLagan and Miss Mary Dunnigan, who left Monday morning on a genuine hike to Tillamook.

Owing to high water, which in places has covered the road to a depth of six inches, the trip to Seaside has not been attempted by any automobile parties from Salem this season, and none from Portland made the attempt until a few days ago. It is probable that A. H. Moore will be the first Salemite to make the trip. He proposes to leave here Sunday morning with his family for a stay of several days at the popular beach resort.

Hiking is now the proper method of exercise and the boys who have been camping at Cascade via the Y. M. C. A. state camp demonstrated their ability to hit the trail. Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock they left the Cascade camp and walked 20 miles to Sweet Home at 6 o'clock in the morning, they made a march to Lebanon, a distance of 16 miles, arriving there at 11:15. After a rest at Lebanon, they came home by rail arriving in the city at 8:15 last evening.

Recruiting for soldiers in the regular U. S. army is progressing favorably at the station in the Kieta hotel. Cecil Crim of Albany, age 23, was accepted yesterday and will leave this evening for Portland, to be sent with a squad to the training station near San Francisco. Delbert O. Dunlop of 444 North Winter street was today rejected on account of defective vision.

A special order recently issued makes a call for pharmacists and cooks. The man who enlists as a private and can demonstrate his ability to cook, is given the pay of sergeant, $30 a month and found.

To encourage swimmers to attend the opening day of the new bathing beach and also to demonstrate just how many expert swimmers there are in Salem, the Meyers department store is offering bathing suits for the winners of the following contests: first race, 75 feet, for girls under 16 years; second race, 75 feet, for boys under 16 years; third race, 50 yards, for women or misses; fourth race, 100 yards for men and boys over 16 years of age. The opening evening will be one day early next week, giving the contestants ample time to prepare.

Shark Hunters Quit to Watch for the Bremen

Bridgeport, Conn., July 19.—Shark hunters abandoned their harpoons and guns today and started out on a new sport—submarine searching.

A New York newspaper's assertion that the Deutschland's sister ship Bremen was about to enter Bridgeport harbor after a trip from Germany, was responsible. Not a single Bridgeporter wanted to work—everybody wanted to hang around the waterfront and be on hand in case the submarine put in an appearance.

The Lake Submarine Boat company, pioneers in the manufacture of undersea boats, put out a special motorboat patrol, hoping to get first glimpse of the expected visitor.

nounced when the ministers prayed or the hymns were sung.

Gets Down to Work. Auditorium, St. Paul, Minn., July 19.—The prohibition national convention got down to real politics at its opening session today. The fight between J. Frank Hanley of Indiana, and William Sulzer of New York, for the party's presidential nomination, developed some old style wire pulling and rough and tumble negotiations.

Sulzer was speeding to St. Paul, it was stated, hoping to arrive here in time to prevent Hanley adherents from nominating their candidate one day ahead of the scheduled time for nomination.

Sulzer men cautioned prior to opening the convention today, and after counting noses, said there were enough supporters present to give Hanley a fight.

If Hanley is nominated, Virgil Hinshaw will remain as chairman of the national committee.

Religious bitterness was mixed into the convention again today.

The American Federation of Patriotic societies, an anti-Catholic organization which is supporting Sulzer, had many representatives on the ground. Prohibition, woman suffrage and government ownership of munitions plants were advocated today in Daniel E. Poling's keynote speech opening the convention.

"Green backers, populists and bull moose may perish from the earth, but we go on forever," Chairman Hinshaw said in opening the convention. "Our cause is at its height. Our slogan was 'a saloonless nation in 1920'; now it's 'a saloonless nation in 1916.'"

Blame War on Booze. The convention staged a five minute demonstration for former Governor John P. St. John, of Kansas. St. John made a brief speech against the plan to change the party's name.

Poling, the temporary chairman, seemed the youngest man in the convention. The delegates cheered him roundly.

Robert Patton, Springfield, Ill., was today selected permanent chairman with Howard Kerahner, Topeka, Kan., permanent secretary of the prohibition convention.

Resolutions asking for the Susan B. Anthony amendment be made a party issue of the prohibitionists, was passed by the woman's national federation today. The federation said booze is responsible for Europe's war.

Mayer Irwin, of St. Paul; W. G. Calderwood, of Minneapolis; and Frank W. Emerson, of California, spoke briefly before the noon recess.

The platform committee is to complete its organization this afternoon. A hot fight on the preparedness plank is expected to be the only contest. The ardent pacifists want to go on record with their sentiments, while those

Splendid Cast of Principals for "The Mikado"

The cast of principals for the "The Mikado" which follows is an exceptionally good one, so Director Wilson says, and although some of them may be new to Salem audiences every one will give good account of himself, or herself, when the opera is presented on the evenings of July 31 and August 1.

They have been selected for their special fitness for the parts assigned, to bring out the beauty of Sullivan's music and Gilbert's humor, not only on account of the singing voice but also in reference to stature and action. A great measure of the success of a successful play is in having it cast with people who are suited to the parts. Theatrical producers of all classes have been more and more exacting in this respect as the seasons pass. When Gilbert wrote his librettos he created types common to all climes and people, and a suitable cast for one of his operas might be entirely unsuitable for another. This is one of the reasons why "The Mikado" for instance, first produced in London in 1885, has lived and retained its hold on the public for 31 years.

time, assisting in putting the park and beach in proper condition.

For the weary workers, a committee of ladies has agreed to pass around coffee and lunches and later a picnic dinner will be served.

The grounds will be enclosed by a wire fence and arrangements made for parking automobiles just north of the railroad bridge. Arthur R. Wilson will be in general charge of the beach after the opening day and arrangements made for checking facilities in each of the bath houses. Piles for the life lines were driven today. With the cleaning up of the grounds Friday afternoon, everything will be ready for the opening evening with swimming contests, canoe races and the first appearance of the latest thing in bathing suits.

The committee in charge will announce the opening day later.

The oldest state bank in New York, the Bank of New York, which recently celebrated its one-hundred-and-thirty-second anniversary, and which was founded in 1784, by a group of business men headed by Alexander Hamilton, the first secretary of the treasury of the United States, occupies a site it bought in 1797.

Foods fried in Crisco absorb less, because they fry so fast and brown so readily.

The same Crisco may be used for all frying. You can fry fish, onions, doughnuts, etc., all in the same Crisco. Merely strain out food particles after each frying. This is a further saving.
