CHAUTAQUA PROVIDES ENTERTAINMENT FOR MANY BEACH VISITORS

By LAMAR TOOZE. Newport, Ore., July 19.—(Special to the Capital Journal.)—Beach folks have foregone the pleasures of the seaside for the pleasures of the Chautauqua. Ellison-White's big, white, canvas auditorium is the center of attraction this week for Newporters and visitors alike. Commencing Sunday, the Chautauqua continues until day after tomorrow. The program is excellent. Victor Murdock, the Kansas ex-congressman, and the near-nominee for the presidency this year by the progressives, following Roosevelt's declination, drew an appreciative audience Monday evening to hear his lecture "Uncle Sam's Tomorrow." Mr. Murdock recently returned from Europe and is now on his way to the Orient. Many people from the valley have arrived during the week, most of them drawn by the double attraction of beach and Chautauqua.

One of the most pleasant parties of the season thus far was given by Miss Paula Linn, of Salem, at the Linn cottage, "Stormfield," Tuesday evening of last week. The evening was passed delightfully in dancing. The guests were: The Misses Katharine Schnabel and Helen Minsinger, of Portland; Janet Dawson and Annette Dawson, of Albany; Walter S. Fisher, of Roseburg; Russell Parthenier and W. F. Daugherty, of Newport; Leslie Tonne and Lamar Tooze, of Salem; Miss Linn's mother, Mrs. James Linn, and Mrs. Charles J. Schnabel, of Portland, presided at the serving table.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Steiner and children, of Salem, reached the beach during the week. Mr. Steiner returned home Saturday but his family will remain for the rest of the season. Franklin Staiger, of Portland, stopped in Newport the forepart of the week on his way home from an extended trip to Washington, D. C. and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Austin, of Woodburn, are enjoying a vacation at Nye Beach as guests of the Kellys. Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Guiss arrived during the week and are established in their cottage at Nye Beach for a season's stay. They are regular summer residents of this resort.

The Misses Frankie and Alice Crider, of Dallas, are the guests of Mrs. Frank J. Coad, also of Dallas. Mr. and Mrs. W. Hudkins and daughter, of Albany, are among the week's registrations at the Kellys. Harry D. Sollars, of Salem, is enjoying an outing at the seaside and is at the Copeland.

Starker, of Jennings Lodge, are enjoying the hospitality of the Damon, Nye Beach. Mrs. W. L. Phillips, of Independence, joined the Polk county contingent in Newport during the week and is at Tent City.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Chase, of Portland, are listed among the guests of the Damon, arriving during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudkins, of Albany, arrived in Newport Saturday and stopped at the Kellys. T. G. Bligh and Claude Beebe, of Salem, arrived at the seashore by automobile during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pearson and nephew, Virgil Surfus, of Portland, are enjoying an outing at Nye Beach and are located in one of the Sea Crest cottages. Miss Fern Daily and Master Oris

A Cough May Lead to Tuberculosis

Distressing and dangerous complications may follow if you neglect it. Even when so serious a stage is reached, Eckman's Alternative may bring relief. For more than twenty years it has been widely used in such cases with beneficial results. As with any medication employed in this trouble, the best results are obtained when the patient pays strict attention to diet and gets plenty of rest and fresh air. Because of its easily assimilable content of calcium chlorid, this preparation is effective where a tonic up-builer is indicated. As a corrective of night sweats it has proved most useful. It may be tried with absolute safety, since it contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs of any sort. At your druggist's. Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

Daily, of Medford, are the guests of Mrs. Stanley Taylor, of Scio, at the Casa Bonita cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Smythe, of Portland, are enjoying the beauties of this coast line and are located at Sea Crest for an indefinite stay.
