Bethel News

(Capital Journal Special Service) Bethel, Or., July 20.—The ball game next Sunday will be played with the Silverton nine at Silverton. The Geer team and their friends will go to Silverton in a motor truck. The truck will leave Bethel at 12:30 and there will be room for all who care to go. The fare is fifty cents for the round trip. The game last Sunday was postponed on account of rain. Clifford Johnston has installed his phone and his number is 96P14. He will be on the 96 line until a new line is built which may not be done for several years yet. Arthur Schulz is in Spokane, Washington, where he went to try his luck in the land lottery. He expects to be gone for about a week. Three of the neighbors having put up silos have invested in an ensilage cutter and a seven horse power gasoline engine. They also have a wood saw and with their big engine they should be able to wade through the wood piles in big shape. The Bahnsen boys were filling their silos yesterday. G. L. Johnston will erect a silo next month. It will be the same size and kind as the three recently put up in this neighborhood. The bond election is over to the relief of every one concerned. Of the eleven men who signed the petition calling the election only two voted for the bonds. Out of a total of twenty seven votes cast there was a majority of nineteen against the bond issue. Some of the neighbors felt that someone was trying to "slip something over" as the saying is. This unjust suspicion was due to the frantic haste that was made in the effort to get the building done in time for school this winter. After the election had been called it was found that the start had been made too late and that the haste had been all in vain regardless of how the election might go. Most of those who voted this time were persons who never go to a school meeting except to vote down a proposed tax. Even the excitement of the bond election failed to bring out more than 70 per cent of the legal voters. But this is better than the usual attendance which is about 15 per cent. It seems that there has been considerable dissatisfaction at the logan berry yards because there were too many pickers. This condition led to a strike at one of the yards. Those who remained are now able to work a full day. This is another case where one sows and another reaps. "But it was ever thus."

Mr. and Mrs. Evans are back in Bethel. They came out to the farm this forenoon. They came from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, here. The weather lately has been about the same there as here. And crops are looking fine.

Macleay News Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service) Macleay, Or., July 20.—It is reported that Mrs. Clara H. Waldo will construct an enormous barn on her place here. It will be large enough to contain all the crops of her 1100 acre farm and will be up to date in every respect. The recent rains, while destroying much in the way of hay was a boon to the logan berries as the yield since the rain is at least 1-3 greater than before. However the grain in this section has been beaten so flat by the rain that much will necessarily be cut for hay which otherwise would be threshed and a grain shortage is feared. D. A. Kingsley was a visitor at the H. E. Martin home Sunday and Monday. Dan Miller and son William were Salem visitors Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Taylor were Salem visitors Monday. The H. E. Martin family dined at the Terwilliger home in Salem Sunday. J. F. C. Tekenburg assisted H. E. Martin in the hay Thursday last. Miss Russell, Alma, Russell, Carl Lentz and Frank Niewander attended the Fruitland Y. P. A. Sunday evening. Miss Hilma Lentz was a guest of Homer Russell Sunday evening.

West Woodburn News

(Capital Journal Special Service) West Woodburn, July 20.—Mrs. Chas. Vincent, who is in one of the hospitals in Portland receiving medical treatment, has improved so much that she is expected home in about a week. She left home about two weeks ago expecting to have to go through an operation but upon arriving in Portland found an operation unnecessary. Mayor John McCormick has been confined to the house for the past few days account sickness, but is better now and is able to be out and around and direct the affairs of the city of West Woodburn. T. A. Martz left for Portland Wednesday morning. He is on his way to the harvest fields around Walla Walla, Wash., where he expects to work during the threshing season. He will visit his son, Cloyd Martz, at Camas, Wash., while on his way to Walla Walla. Hugh Murphey and daughter, Alice, spent Tuesday in Portland.

Fairfield News

(Capital Journal Special Service) Fairfield, Or., July 20.—C. J. Zeran of Portland is visiting at Ak-Sar-Ben ranch. Miss Naomi Arthur and Ila Wilder are visiting Miss Arthur's sister, Mrs. James Mahoney. Mr. and Mrs. Sohn and Bessie were Portland visitors Saturday. Mrs. Gabe Vanberbeck is seriously ill. The roads are being graded in this neighborhood, which is improving them very much. Mrs. William Foreler who has been ill is improving. Miss M. Miles of Salem is nursing Mrs. Vanderbeck. Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mahoney were Woodburn visitors Monday.

FARM HOUSE IS BURNED

The ranch home of F. H. Libbey, four miles north of Sheridan, in the Gopher Valley district, was totally destroyed by fire early Wednesday. The loss of $8000 is mostly covered by insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Libbey were only given time to escape in their night clothes. The quick spread of the flames and the dense smoke prevented them from gathering their clothes or valuables. Before neighbors could be summoned the house was in ruins. The origin is supposed to have been from a defective kitchen stove. The house was located on an apple and walnut ranch and was built about four years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Libbey came to Oregon from Oshkosh, Wis. There was an unusually large number of fine sets of books, china, silverware and bric-a-brac in the house. Yacht club trophies and cups to the value of $1000 were lost. Neighbors who came to the rescue supplied Mr. and Mrs. Libbey with clothing and other necessities. Mr. Libbey is undecided whether or not he will rebuild.—Dallas Observer.

SURPRISE AT CLOVERDALE

Cloverdale, Or., July 20.—A pleasant surprise was given recently to Mrs. Ann E. Morris, at her home Sunday July 16th, in honor of her 60th birthday. A delicious dinner was served afterward ice cream. Those who were present were: Mrs. Ann E. Morris, Mrs. Maria Thomas, Mrs. Mary Wann, Marion Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cummings, Kenneth and Grace Russell, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Irene and Delbert Thomas, Floyd, Anna and Allen Zirkel.

The fact that Maple sugar production in the province of Quebec, Canada, is increasing rapidly is due to the establishment there of three schools devoted to teaching farmers how to make it.

The Dilicate Flavor of Malted Barley---

So rarely found in cereal foods—plays a valuable and necessary part in the digestibility of

Grape-Nuts

Blended with prime whole wheat, there results the distinctive Grape-Nuts flavor so attractive to the palate.

Full of sterling nutrition, Grape-Nuts food is twice baked (about twenty hours) and rendered easily and quickly digestible—generally in about one hour.

Many physicians recommend Grape-Nuts—
