

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

THE summer relaxation has come, and it is just as much a part of the year as the winter's round of dances and mad tear and hurry of the gay season. Society has been looking forward to a little respite from the social gaieties and now that the lovely summer weather is here preparations are growing daily for trips to the various beaches and summer resorts.

Those who are left at home live out of doors as much as possible these days. Every form of amusement that takes one out in to the open is popular, and the simpler and nearer to nature that it is the more it is liked. Nothing of a formal nature has a chance as those who are here naturally do not feel inclined to indulge in any pronounced frivolous.

The new bathing beach opens up a broad vista for merriest and swimming will undoubtedly be one of society's particular diversions during the warm weather.

Charming in every detail was the small bridge party for which Mrs. J. N. Smith was hostess on Friday afternoon. The affair was most informal and lovely, the card tables being placed on the large veranda where golden hued garden flowers and greens were effectively arranged in huge baskets and bowls.

Guests were asked for three tables of bridge and the card honors were won by Mrs. Frank W. Spencer. Mrs. Smith was assisted by Mrs. Lenta Westcott.

The matrons of the Thursday bridge club and a few additional players were guests and included: Mrs. Fred S. Stewart, Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mrs. H. J. Schulz, Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. Charles L. Dick, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, Mrs. George Waters, Mrs. Frank W. Spencer and her house guest Miss Spencer of Kansas City.

Mrs. William C. Knighton went to Portland Friday to greet her friend Mrs. E. D. Roberts of Los Angeles, California, who is the guest of Mrs. Charles Kamm. Mrs. Roberts has many friends in Salem and plans to visit Mrs. Knighton before her return south.

She is the mother of Mrs. Philip Kamm and Mrs. Walker Kamm of Portland where they were popular members of the smart set. The girls visited in Salem before their marriage and will be remembered as the charming Misses Louise and Marie Roberts.

Honoring her house guest Mrs. Le Roy Emerson Fairbanks of Seattle, Miss Lucille Belle entertained on Thursday afternoon with a pretty bridge tea. Guests were asked for three tables of bridge, card honors falling to Miss Gertrude Koltz of Riverside, California.

At the tea hour the party was augmented by a few more matrons and maids. After the game Miss Lela Slater played several charming piano solos.

The Belle residence was artistically decked with Dorothy Perkins roses, sweet peas, maiden hair ferns, and a color scheme of pink being adopted throughout the room.

Miss Belle was assisted by her sister, Miss Eugenia Belle.

Those asked to meet the visitor were:

Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. George William Gray, Mrs. Clyde C. Graham, Mrs. James A. Wilson, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. A. M. Cabler, Miss Winifred Byrd, Miss Cora Talkington, Miss Eugene Craig, Miss Veda Cross, Miss Carolyn Hurst, Miss Lela Slater, Miss Gertrude Koltz of Riverside, California, Miss Nancy Skafte, Miss Mary Eckerling, Miss Margaret Putnam and Miss Zoe Stockton.

Miss Mabel Withycombe who motored to Portland the first of the week with her mother, Mrs. James Withycombe, returned last night. She was accompanied by Mrs. Merrill B. Moores who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George W. Gray.

Complimenting Miss Theodosia Bennett, bride-elect, Mrs. R. W. Walton was hostess Friday for a charming and artistic luncheon. The affair was planned to make known the date of Miss Bennett's marriage to C. B. Martin of Portland, which will be an event of August 11.

The table was prettily adorned with pink sweet peas and ferns and pink candles.

Luncheon was followed by music. Mrs. Charles Bates and Miss Eugenia Belle sang several solos and Miss Lucille Kuntz played a selection on the piano.

The guests were: Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. E. A. Bennett, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. Floyd Uter, Mrs. Charles E. Bates, Miss Eugenia Belle, Miss Margaret Gill, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Lucille Kuntz, and Miss Margaret Graham.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clay are being welcomed after a several weeks sojourn in San Francisco. While in the south the Clays were delightfully entertained and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harry T. Roberts on a motor trip to San Jose, Santa Clara, Palo Alto and other interesting points around the bay.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the informal public reception given at the residence of Mrs. L. K. Page on Wednesday afternoon to honor the management of the recent Chautauqua.

The hostesses for the affair were: Mrs. Page, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. E. S. Wallace, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. H. C. Epley and Mrs. O. A. Chapel.

An enjoyable and interesting feature of the function was the number of men who attended and made themselves attractive to the throng of women surrounding them. During the tea hours over 100 guests called to meet the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fisher left today for a motor trip to Chehalis, Wash., where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. McBroome. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher expect to return Wednesday and will bring Mrs. McBroome and daughter, Miss Nellis, home with them.

Now that the warm weather is here most everyone is on the qui vive for the opening of the new public bathing beach, which gives promise of being one of the gayest and most popular spots in Salem this summer.

The men worked hard all day Friday cleaning up the beach and were happy to greet the maids and matrons who went over late in the afternoon to serve them a lunch.

Those assisting were: Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. Zedoc Riggs, Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. Walter McDougall, Mrs. W. H. Lyle, Mrs. Marvin Cabler, Mrs. Fairbanks of Seattle, Mrs. Karl Neugebauer, Miss Mary Creed Howard, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Lucille Belle, Miss Gene Belle.

A charming informal dinner was given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Ada Strong and Miss Ellen Thielsen at the home of the latter. The affair was planned as a little attention to Mrs. Henry Eakin of Astoria and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen, on the occasion of their birthdays.

The artistic and appointed table was aglow with red poppies, and covers were placed for Mrs. Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. Thielsen, Frederic Thielsen and the hostesses.

Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Mrs. John D. Coughlin are enjoying the sea breezes at Newport, having taken a cottage there for the summer. They left Thursday and were accompanied by Ralph Watson of Portland. Later in the season Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Locke will join the party for a visit.

About 60 matrons and maids called Thursday at the Y. W. C. A. to greet the instructors and visiting members of the Epworth League, who are in Salem this week.

An artistic array of sweet peas adorned the rooms. The guests were received by Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. C. A. Park, Mrs. E. A. Elliott, Mrs. Frank Spars, Mrs. J. O. Goltra, Mrs. George G. Brown, Miss A. McCullough, Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Florence Cleveland.

Miss Grace Bean presided over the punch bowl and the Misses Catharine Carson, Muriel Steeves and Irene Kuntz assisted.

Mrs. Chester Cox has as her guests over the week-end, her mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. E. H. Cowles, and Mrs. Donald Cowles and small son Don Jr., of Woodburn.

Mrs. Henry Poisal entertained informally in honor of Miss Alice McClelland and Miss Amelia Babcock. The affair was a birthday dinner for the girls and the table was adorned with pink roses artistically mingled with ferns. Covers were placed for ten.

Mrs. Ada Strong left Thursday for a sojourn at Agate Beach, where her daughter, Mrs. Frederic D. Thielsen and children are summering. She was accompanied by Mr. Thielsen who will spend several weeks at the shore.

A small informal dinner was presided over Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lewis. A bowl of soft colored garden flowers centered the table. Covers were placed for 6.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walton (Harrist Hargrave) who have been enjoying a wedding trip in southern California are expected home next week.

About half a dozen little play mates were guests at the attractive birthday luncheon given Max Hartley, Monday at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. Hartley, in the Court apartments.

A huge birthday cake surrounded by red candles centered the table around which were seated: Eleanor Smith, Gwendolen and Clifford Bryngelson, Billy Stevenson, Grayroth and Tommy Edwards and the young host.

Mrs. S. S. East has as her house guest Miss Carolyn Haughton of Santa Ana, California. Miss Haughton arrived last night and will spend several weeks in Salem.

The lure of the out door life is not equalled by any call of a more restricted social nature and as people throw themselves into the joyous spirit of summer motoring becomes more essential to their pleasure. Oregon has many enchanting spots and the McKenzie has been discovered as a new place of delight this season for vacationists and others who are flocking there to camp and fish.

Today several parties of Salem folks motored up for a few days outing. Among those going were:

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Steiner and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bier, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCarthy of Independence and others.

Miss Mabel Withycombe, daughter of Governor and Mrs. Withycombe, motored from Salem Thursday to lunch with Mrs. Martin at the Hotel Portland. During Miss Withycombe's sojourn at the exposition in San Francisco she was frequently a guest of Mrs. Martin's at notable functions.—Oregonian.

Perhaps the most delightful affair planned for next week is the informal tea for which Mrs. Charles Gray and Mrs. George William Gray will be hostesses on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the latter to honor Mrs. James Withycombe and Miss Mabel Withycombe. A number of matrons and maids have been asked to call between the hours of four and six o'clock to welcome the attractive newcomers to Salem society.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Myers were hosts for a small informal dinner Monday evening, honoring Mrs. Hugh Williamson of Portland, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Homer Goulet. Covers were placed for 8.

Mrs. W. C. Kerron, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner for a few days, returned to her home in Portland Friday.

A jolly picnic was given recently by the members of the Sweet Briar club in the grove near the country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklyn on the Wallace road. After supper the guests circled a huge bon fire and the evening was rounded out by telling stories.

The members of the club and their families participated in the gayeties and included: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Pettys, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mrs. Hodson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Imah, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webb, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Bunn, Miss Nellie Taylor, Miss Gaynor Beckett, Miss Mildred Bunn, the Misses Mabel and Margaret Olinger, Miss Mildred Imah, Miss Marie Christine Ferguson, Miss Blanche Gibson, G. W. Gibson, Hugh, Dwight and Howard Adams, Gordon and Wilmet Moll, Lockwood Franklin, Harold Bunn and Russell and Carl Beckett.

A small informal dinner was given Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr. It was a stag party, and the guests were mostly the benedict friends of Mr. McGilchrist whose wives are out of the city. A bowl of lovely sweet peas centered the table around which covers were placed for:

George Post, C. B. Webb, George J. Watson, Paul Stege, Dan Langenberg and the hosts.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry J. Talbot were hosts for a dinner Friday evening complementing the instructors of the Epworth League. Covers were placed for ten around a prettily appointed table, adorned with soft colored sweet peas and ferns.

Mrs. Louis Bechtel entertained informally on Friday afternoon, asking as her guests the members of the Pythian Sisters club. An afternoon of sewing was enjoyed on the porch and later the hostess served refreshments assisted by Miss Lizzie Starkley of Portland.

About 22 club members and several guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Grier returned this afternoon from Portland where they were guests at the dinner dance for which Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cobb were hosts last night in the crystal room of the Hotel Benson. Mr. Cobb is president of the Falls City Lumber company with which Mr. Grier is associated.

Salem society turned out en masse to attend the recent Chautauqua and to greet the many interesting and attractive visitors it brought to our city. One of the many charming guests in Salem during the week was Miss Driscoll of Waterloo, Iowa, superintendent of the junior chautauqua. Miss Driscoll was very favorably impressed with Salem, and is said to have remarked that "she found Salem people the most delightful of any on her tour."

She made a host of friends here, and became especially popular with the little folks who attended the junior chautauqua. A number of women and young folks gathered at the train to bid her adieu and literally showered her with flowers. She received several very lovely bouquets, one being presented to her by Mrs. Walter Denton and Mrs. O. A. Chapel from a group of women who were interested in her work.

Mrs. Jean Miller Bahn, contralto, of this city has been engaged to sing at the jewellers convention to be held in Albany on Monday and Tuesday of next week.

Mrs. A. L. Clearwater was the recipient of a pleasurable surprise party Wednesday evening when a number of friends gathered during her absence to celebrate the anniversary of her birthday.

The rooms were decorated with garden flowers and greenery and the evening was spent playing 500 and other card games. At a late hour refreshments were served by her daughter, Miss Garnet Clearwater, assisted by Miss Mabel West.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lickel, Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. West, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Matlock, Mrs. Florence Spencer, Mrs. M. E. Bewley, Miss Florence Smith, Miss Mabel West, Miss Frances Cameron, T. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Cornforth, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davis, Mr. J. L. McAdams, Mrs. May Dell Smith, Mrs. Hattie Cameron, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Gertrude West, Miss Garnet Clearwater.

Thursday afternoon the members of the Aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps were entertained at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Smith, 1985 Court street. The hostesses were Messdames Smith, Hattie Skelton, Henry Scott, George Terwilliger, Frank Thompson, Echo Stanton and Hattie Cameron.

The rooms were effectively and appropriately decorated with flags and garden flowers, and the guests spent the afternoon sewing. Later a patriotic programme and refreshments were enjoyed.

Those present were: Messdames Marion Snover, Echo Stanton, Anna Dinmore, Edna E. Morgan, Bessie Martin, Edna B. Simpson, Laura B. McAdams, Della Clewator, Dora Follich, Cordelia La Bare, Mary Kafoury, Sarah Peterson Amy Ellis, J. E. Blodgett, Florence Shipp, Mollie Denison, Louisa Fortner, Hattie Skelton, Mary M. Fox, M. L. Cameron, Myra Dotson, Mina Saunders, Mabelle Lockwood, Margaret Stanton, Alice Caldwell, M. Louise Welles, Wm. LaBare.

Wednesday evening a large and appreciative audience attended the musical given by the young folks of Highland at the Friends church. There was much talent displayed and the numbers were all ably and effectively given.

The solo by little Miss Ina Riggs was especially pleasing and the dainty little singer responded to an encore with "The Cook." Mrs. Hendry also received much applause for her solo the "Holy City."

The Peters music store kindly furnished the piano for the evening and N. D. Elliott, printer, the programmes. The following numbers were given:

Mrs. G. C. Pevtherer chairman of the social committee has been very fortunate in securing Mrs. C. E. Bates an enthusiastic worker, on her committee.

A number of young women living at the Y. W. C. A. enjoyed an outing Friday evening in Alberts park. Lunch was served under the trees at 7:30.

Would not the ladies of Salem like to help the Young Women's Christian Association enlarge their winter supply of fruit. Of course you would and surely you would never miss a glass of jelly and jam or a jar of cherries, pears and plums. The board of directors would greatly appreciate this favor. If its not convenient for you to bring the fruit to the association building please telephone and it will be called for.

The rooms were effectively and appropriately decorated with flags and garden flowers, and the guests spent the afternoon sewing. Later a patriotic programme and refreshments were enjoyed.

bombarded that city without damage. The official outline of the day's fighting shows a series of desperate and unsuccessful counter attacks by the German in various parts of the battle front. A strong German reconnoissance force was dispersed on the right bank of the Meuse. German artillery hurled vast quantities of shells at French positions around Fumain and Fleury and in the same sector an infantry attack was repulsed by the French troops. The same sort of an assault was made last night north of Saint Die in the Vosges and was likewise repulsed. With very heavy losses the attacking columns.

Russians Gain at Points.

Petrograd, July 22.—General Brusiloff's Russian troops today proceeded methodically on their way to the northern Galician border, southward from Lutsk. The Russian forces accomplished the feat of crossing the swollen rivers Lipa and Stry in the face of the enemy's fire and of the warring of the Austrian positions from the enemy.

The Austrians are surrendering in whole units, to the czar's forces, dispatches declare. Past flying cavalry squadrons were today pressing forward toward Brody and Galicia from Verben, which point was yesterday wrested from the Austrian forces. The Galician border lies very close to Verben and it was confidently expected today that the official statement would reveal Russian troops fighting on Austrian soil. Huge Russian masses of troops are now concentrating on Jablonitz pass to the extreme south and pressing forward. The Russian advance here is the lower encircling movement.

In Petrograd there is intense interest in news from General Kurapatkin's drive at General Von Hindenburg's front west and south of Riga. Dispatches from the city say the rear of the czar's artillery is plainly audible there, and that the Russian attackers have already swept across three lines of German trenches. The first big batch of German prisoners have arrived at Riga.

Rejoicing over the success of the Russian drives from Riga and toward Galicia was added to by the official news that the grand duke Nicholas' forces in the Caucasus has captured Gumushkhanes, 45 miles southwest of Trebizond, a point of great strategic value on the way to Erzizman, at which point the Russian forces are aiming.

Release British Ship.

Berlin, via wireless to Sayville, July 22.—German authorities have ordered release of the British steamer Adam, captured by a German torpedo boat, since investigation disclosed the vessel was captured within Swedish territorial waters.

On the other hand, a telegram from Sweden states that a Russian submarine, operating in Bottian Bay, off Ratan and within Swedish territorial waters, fired a torpedo at the German steamer, Elbe.

Reports from The Hague say the British have confiscated first class mail on the liner Ryndani, enroute from the Dutch West Indies to Rotterdam.

Six Trawlers Sunk.

Berlin, via Wireless to Sayville, July 22.—German submarines on July 17 sunk six British trawlers off the British east coast, according to admiralty announcement today.

Russians Attacks Wenker.

Berlin, via Wireless to Sayville, July 22.—Russian attacks are growing feebler on the east front, according to official headquarters reports today. General Von Hindenburg reported that southeast of Riga the enemy's attack was frustrated. Russian attempts to cross the Dnena on both sides of Priederichstadt failed.

"North of Dvrenten," the report adds, "a small detachment crossed the river. Northwest of Smorgan advanced field guards were driven back before superior forces."

General Lusingen reported that after having stopped Russian attacks between Verben and Korsow, "the salient positions around Verben were taken back before an unexpected encircling attack."

Allies Held. Say Germans.

Berlin, via Sayville Wireless, July 22.—The allies were unable to continue their attack on German lines following the repulse of previous assaults, the official statement from the war office announced today.

Repulse of several separate attacks was reported with the capture of nine machine guns and several dozen prisoners.

The official statement said: "On the Somme sector the enemy was unable to resume their large uniform thrust after the previous day's defeat."

"Separate attacks were repulsed without effort or strike at the beginning. While clearing a British trench in Foreaux wood, several dozen prisoners and nine machine guns were captured."

"Lively artillery duels continued with interruptions."

"In the early morning French attacks on several fronts north of Massiges failed. On both sides of the Meuse artillery fire temporarily increased to higher intensity."

"Yesterday morning and last night enemy attacks in the Fleury sector failed. German patrols captured fourteen men in French positions northwest of Saint Drest. Both sides showed lively activity throughout the night and day."

"Several enemy air attacks caused small military damage, but caused some damage among civilians. At Laon one woman was wounded and three children killed."

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

By Margaret Mason.

Lovely moonfaced maiden In your Luna veil The moon of you is jealous And turns with envy pale.

New York, July 22.—If John Armstrong Chalmers should ask "Who's the Laney now?" we should all have to answer "We all are simply laney over the new Luna veils."

They go to greater lengths in the original veil lines than anything we have been offered for many months.

Of two and a half yard lengths of hemstitched chiffon, the Luna veil has an inset of exquisite lace veiling, either white or black round as the full moon and about half a yard in diameter. This is for your face to peep seductively through while the rest of the chiffon folds swathe your head and throat in gracious and diaphanous manner.

Not in a blue moon have you seen anything so lovely as a Luna veil of azure chiffon inset with black lace. A white one with a black inset is striking and one yellow as Luna herself has a black lace opening also, while a wonderful rose shade has either black or white to choose from.

These veils are worn not only for motoring but unusually are adapted for moonlight night wear or even on those nights when Diana hides her face in putting jealousy of Earth's fair daughters.

They really are intended for any dress occasion when one goes unattended. The lace disk is worn over the face while the chiffon protects the coiffure and acts also as a scarf around your throat and bare shoulders.

A new veil for motoring exclusively comes in the most vivid shades of chiffon and is three yards long. It has an elastic sewed in a circle over your motor hat and forms a puff of veiling over the crown while part of the width falls over the front of the face and the other in the back. The long ends are then knotted under your chin and allowed to float in the breeze and if you choose to sit in the front they may incidentally get all tangled up in the steering wheel.

Following the fad for stripes there are also chiffon veils of white, striped widely in either blue, rose, green and yellow or mauve.

On the face of things veils continue fine of mesh with delicate lace borders or all over traceries. Because of the huge dimensions of this season's favorite hat the face veil is of a necessity put on first, next to the head and under the chapeau.

Alas, it is oft too true that most of us have nothing much else under our hats but our veils.
