

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO END SESSION SUNDAY

Dr. Morgan to Make Closing Address—May Meet In 1917 at Jefferson

The fourth annual Epworth League now in session on the University campus will close Sunday evening with an address by Dr. Morgan of New York City.

Yesterday 65 of the students accepted an invitation to visit Jefferson to look over the camp grounds in order to be fully advised as to whether the fifth session should not be held at Jefferson.

The enrollment was larger this year than a year ago and delegates were present representing all the churches in the district.

The mornings of the week have been given to study and instruction, with the afternoons mostly to recreation. Lectures were delivered each evening and last night, Governor Withycombe accepted an invitation for dinner at Lesanne hall, delivering a short address.

The enrollment for this year is as follows, all attending as delegates: Leslie M. E. church, Salem; Alma Nye Ulrich Helen Ingreve, Florence Miller, Grace Sherwood and Mrs. J. C. Spencer.

The Season's Latest in Furniture Can Always Be Found Here

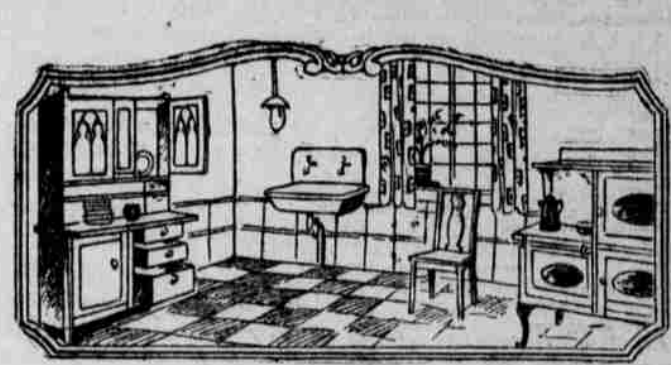

SALEM'S EXCLUSIVE FURNITURE STORE

NOTICE OF SPECIAL IMPORTANCE TO THE PEOPLE OF SALEM AND VICINITY: Did you ever stop to think—why it was necessary to put on sales to dispose of high grade merchandise. It is not necessary, if the stock is always kept up as it should be kept, but if you have been a little careless in your buying and have lots of odds and ends and they are carried for 20 or 30 years why—it is absolutely necessary for you to put on a sale. This store has never found it necessary to put on a furniture sale, or have we ever misled the people, by placing fictitious prices on furniture and then marking it down. We keep our expenses as low as possible and buy so as to get all discounts that can be obtained, and sell to the people at a smaller margin of profit than any store in the Willamette Valley. Our steady stream of satisfied buyers will be evidence enough of the truth in the above statements, and of the quality and prices of the furniture we sell. This store will ever maintain the high standard of furniture, and will as it always has, keep its stock complete, and the prices of any other store (whether a sale is on or not) will be met. Thanking all the people in Salem and vicinity for their generous patronage in the past, we will endeavor to please all in the future. Yours very truly, W. W. MOORE, Furniture Store.

We Furnish Your Home Complete For Less Than Other Stores

WE NEED NO SALES TO CLEAN OUR STOCK

Many were prevented from being present on account of the late harvests and the inclemency of the weather. There are about 30 tents and more coming in. The population is averagely 250. The sanitary conditions are carefully looked after and no case of sickness has been contracted since arrival in camp. People are there from Washington, Idaho and different parts of Oregon. Among the prominent ministers present from a distance are Brothers E. E. Masters, Simon Decker and Woods of Seattle, the latter being accompanied by his wife, Sister Chapman of Everett, Wash., Brothers W. W. Christ of Middleton, Idaho, Henry Cooper, Colfax, Wash., and James Bamford, Blaine, Wash. The pastor, Brother Oscar Lewis, is kept busy looking after the comfort of the visiting brethren, among whom is our former townsman, Brother J. L. Green, of Grants Pass. Among the campers are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parry, of near Myrtle Point, Coos county, and John Watkins, of Bandon.

The daily arrangement is as follows: 6:30—Morning worship. 8:00 to 9:00 a. m.—Ministers' meeting. 9:00 to 9:45—Children's meeting, conducted by Grace Clark of Eugene. 10:00 to 12:00 m.—Regular morning service. 1:00 to 2:00 p. m.—Ministers' meeting. 2:30 to 4:30 p. m.—Regular afternoon service. 6:00—Young People's meeting. 7:45—Regular evening service.—Woodburn Independent.

HUBBARD NEWS. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dental, a nine pound girl, Saturday, July 15, at their home northeast of Aurora. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grimm went to Portland last Saturday. Mrs. Grimm continuing her stay throughout the week. Mrs. M. J. Courtright, of Portland, visited her brother, Rev. C. H. Purcell, from Thursday until Saturday the past week. The city council meets Thursday night of this week to issue a call for bids for construction of 24 blocks of sewer mains. E. S. Miller and family are attending the Church of God camp meeting at Woodburn and report a great meeting is in progress. A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mootaw Monday, July 17. The little miss weighed 6 1/2 pounds. Iris Carmine is the name. Southern Pacific surveyors were in Hubbard Tuesday running lines about the station grounds, presumably the preliminary work to erecting a new passenger station. Miss Keith VanWinkle, of Albany, was a guest of Miss Lois Simms last week. Miss VanWinkle is a graduate of Willamette university. The ladies taught in the Scotts Mills schools last year. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brookins, of Canby, were guests of the Enterprise family Thursday evening. Mrs. Brookins had returned Monday from a three months' visit with relatives in Kansas and other states east. Adam Misher returned from Wenatchee, Wash., Tuesday evening after registering in the land drawing that will be held in the Colville Indian reservation lands July 27. About three thousand will have registered by that time. Mrs. Livenspire and daughter, Miss E. Livenspire, returned Monday from a two weeks' visit at The Dalles. They were accompanied by Miss Grete Livenspire, who will visit in Hubbard a few weeks. Mrs. J. Kornick returned to her home in Portland Tuesday afternoon after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnston. The families were friends in Nebraska. The Mr. Kornick at the head of the famous Kornick stock conditioner firm, is a son of Mrs. J. Kornick. Tuesday afternoon Octav Voget received two full blooded Guernsey cows from Bellingham by express. One of the cows had a fine calf by her side. This is the third animal of this breed in Mr. Voget's possession. About the time contractors were ready to begin the construction of a residence last week for Mrs. Coleman on the north part of the Jackson property, a change in plans was made and the building located opposite the Catholic church. Miss Mary Raymacher and Miss Henrietta Raymacher, of Fresno, Cal., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmer, arriving Wednesday. The young ladies will make an extended visit and are pleased with the appearance of Oregon as compared with California. Last Friday Clyde Ainsworth closed a deal with Joseph Ryan by which he exchanges his Hubbard property on Second street for property located at Wisener. Mr. Ryan will move to Hubbard about the first of the month. A delightful affair was the stepping party at the armory Monday night when Ursula Wolfer entertained, honoring her friend, Jay Crittenden, who is to leave soon for San Francisco. The merry gathering of young people included many of Woodburn's and Hubbard's younger set. G. W. Whitney received a letter Monday from his son, J. A. Whitney, living in Sacramento. The letter indicates that all things are moving right along down there. He has recently purchased a auto and is getting acquainted with all the surrounding country. Charles Will, visiting friends at Oak Harbor, the past two weeks, writes that after a fine time at Oak Harbor, he will stop at Seattle and call at the home of Rev. Dick, formerly pastor of the Hubbard Congregational church. He doesn't say when he will be home. H. J. Hewett has a contract with a Salem firm whereby he will handle Oregon blackberries this year the same as in other years at the G. W. Knight store. Crates and boxes furnished. Come in and make arrangements for delivery. There will be lots of berries this year and will it pay to pick every. Jay Crittenden has resigned his position at the S. P. station to enter the station school conducted at San Francisco for the benefit of employees. Albin Fredrickson applied for the place and went to Portland Wednesday morning to take the physical examination required. Jay expects to go south on receipt of transportation. Jay has rendered good service for the company and general public the past two years and we expect to see him continue to make good.—Enterprise.

COURT HOUSE NEWS. Oswald Felsman, arrested Thursday night at Woodburn on information received from the sheriff at Missoula, Montana, was released yesterday on receipt of information from the Montana city that the case in which he was involved had been settled. A grand jury charge had been made against Felsman. Reports have been filed in the county court by the appraisers appointed in the estates of Peter Laurer and George Stitz. The Laurer estate is valued at $3400, and the Stitz estate at $1824. Anglers' licenses have been issued by the county clerk to Edwin M. Hafnell and P. E. Dalrymple. The case of B. J. Farrar vs. John P. Wilber was filed in the circuit court yesterday. The plaintiff claims $195.20 due him for labor performed. The case of Grinde vs. Howell has been settled out of court. A suit has been filed in the circuit court by Delta McDonald against Everett Hanson and May Hanson, Jacob W. Herwick and Mary I. Herwick and George M. Shaver to collect $750 alleged to be due on a promissory note. Foreclosure of a mortgage is asked, attorney fees amounting to $75 and taxes amounting to $18.50. Department No. 1 of the circuit court has been a busy place during the past several days. What was thought would be a short term of court has developed into a long and lively grand. It now appears probable that the session will run well into next week. The case of Ward K. Richardson vs. A. A. Brown and James Kuhus was concluded yesterday, the jury giving a verdict for Defendant Brown. A default and judgment was entered against Defendant Kuhus in the sum of $147.51. In the case of J. C. Davis vs. Dorothy Hanson, trustee, a verdict was given the plaintiff in the sum of $80. In the matter of the Portland, Railway, Light and Power company vs. H. H. Vandervort settlement was made out of court. On account of insufficient evidence the case of the state vs. Charles E. Smith was dismissed on motion of the district attorney. The receiver in the matter of Alliance Trust Co., Limited, vs. Fannie E. Hubbard et al has been ordered to pay to Fannie E. Hubbard the sum of $50 from rentals from the Hubbard building for services rendered in care and supervision of said building. When the heirs of the late B. Forster made claim that they should be allowed their share of the estate before the death of Mrs. Forster, she brought suit against John Bier et al for the purpose of getting an interpretation of the will of her husband and of settling title. That the will, a very short one, bequeathed the property to Mrs. Forster and made provision that the property be divided equally between the heirs of each upon her death was the decision made yesterday by Judge Galloway. The property covers valuable business buildings on Commercial street, Salem. At the time of the death of Mr. Forster there was a mortgage on the property for $3500, which Mrs. Forster has since paid off from the income, and in view of this fact Judge Galloway decrees that she shall have a lien of $3500 upon the defendants' ultimate interest in the property. Arguments in the case of Hery Fawk vs. D. N. McInturff were made this morning. This was an action to recover possession of certain promissory notes. A verdict was returned for the plaintiff. Judge Galloway this morning granted a decree of divorce in the case of J. J. Sommers vs. Rosa Sommers. The hearing of the case of Ray Stearns of Oakland, who claims to be illegally confined in the state hospital for the insane, was continued by Judge Galloway this morning until August 3. The Misses Edna Ray and Ha el Lambert called at the Mrs. H. Shank home Wednesday. Darryl Downs of Stayton is visiting at the P. H. Lambert home. B. F. Lambert called at the Dave Aegerter home Sunday. The Misses Effie, Zona and Cora Ray called at the H. Shank home Friday. Mrs. G. H. Ray and daughter called at P. H. Lambert's Wednesday. Mrs. H. R. Shank spent Saturday with home folks. John Flick and John Aegerter called at J. H. Klobers Monday. Eldon Griffith who has been employed for the past four years, left last week to work for Tom Fleming. Ben Thayer of Seio called at the F. Shelton home Monday. Lee Downing is hauling ties for the Jungvirth Brothers. Miss Freda Thayer of Seio is visiting with her sister, Mrs. F. Shelton. Joe Senz was seen on the business streets of Mt. Pleasant Tuesday.—Stayton Mail.

Market Was Lifeless Little Change In Prices. New York, July 22.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today says: Midsummer week end conditions of lassitude and lack of all public interest were very pronounced in the short session of this stock market today. A few professional traders who withstood the temptation to leave the torrid city little to do and a minimum of opportunity influence prices of securities one way or the other. There was practically no news of either foreign or domestic origin which might be said to have influenced stock dealings in the slightest degree. With the second quarterly report for this year of the United States Steel corporation forthcoming on Tuesday of next week, with the promise of record earnings there continued a strengthening influence on the shares of that company, which moved narrowly around 85 3/4. The motor and zinc stocks were particularly strong relatively with gains from one to two points and more. The general industrial list was narrow with a slight upward trend discernible, but business was of the most perfunctory nature. The rails made small fractional gains as a rule, though many in this list were not dealt in at all. Steel advanced fractionally on good demand in the later trading, crossing 86. The motor stocks also showed further improvement of moderate proportions, but there was little change in the remainder of the list.

MT. PLEASANT ITEMS. Miss Margaret Smith of Albany is visiting with home folks this week. Frank Haberman and wife and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ryan and daughter, motored to Albany Saturday. Lee and Max Shelton and Ray and Lionel McKnight of Seio spent Sunday with their grand parents, W. R. Ray and wife. The Misses Edna Ray and Ha el Lambert called at the Mrs. H. Shank home Wednesday. Darryl Downs of Stayton is visiting at the P. H. Lambert home. B. F. Lambert called at the Dave Aegerter home Sunday. The Misses Effie, Zona and Cora Ray called at the H. Shank home Friday. Mrs. G. H. Ray and daughter called at P. H. Lambert's Wednesday. Mrs. H. R. Shank spent Saturday with home folks. John Flick and John Aegerter called at J. H. Klobers Monday. Eldon Griffith who has been employed for the past four years, left last week to work for Tom Fleming. Ben Thayer of Seio called at the F. Shelton home Monday. Lee Downing is hauling ties for the Jungvirth Brothers. Miss Freda Thayer of Seio is visiting with her sister, Mrs. F. Shelton. Joe Senz was seen on the business streets of Mt. Pleasant Tuesday.—Stayton Mail.
