The Breakfast club, composed of young ladies who really enjoy waiting, is now enjoying a vacation camping out at Mill City. Next Tuesday, they will fold up their tent and make the walk home to Salem.

The Maccabees will hold their annual picnic tomorrow at Blake lake. The party will gather at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at Marion square and make the trip by auto. As this picnic happens about once in every twelve months, a large attendance is expected.

Joseph Haimovitz of Portland has purchased the "Togger" from Win. H. on Hammond and will open up for business with a special sale as soon as the stock can be arranged. He says that the store will continue to be run under the name of "The Togger."

Dr. R. T. McIntire, physician and surgeon, 214 Masonic bldg. Phone 440.

The children continue to make the municipal playground in the Albert pasture their headquarters, as every day this week more than 300 have been picnicking and enjoying the games. The dam has been enlarged. The committee in charge already owns one tent for a dressing room and would greatly appreciate the generosity of any one who would either loan or give another tent.

Dr. Alice Bancroft, over Stockton's, Eye and Nerve Specialist.

The Salem Floral society with its two or three hundred members will picnic next Monday afternoon and evening at the fair grounds. The luncheon will be served at 6 o'clock and after this important part of the picnic, there will be a program of music and talking. Mrs. E. W. Wallace is in charge of the evening's program. It has been suggested that members bring a basket properly equipped, a picnic.

Dr. Stone's Drug Store for trusses.

After years of watchful waiting, there really is prospects of the fair grounds road. Today, workmen were busy driving stakes for the curbing, all of which indicates that within a few days the curbing crew will be working and following this crew, the paving men and machine and then those who have been waiting for a generation for a decent road to the fair grounds may remark that everything comes to him who waits.

The excursion to Marshfield starting Friday morning, August 25, will cost $16.80, on the following basis: railway fare, $7.25; three days eating on the diner, $6 Pullman fare, $3.55. The Pullman fare is based on all berths being taken. If not, there will be a slightly advanced charge for the berth. The $3.55 price is made on the estimate of 38 to the car. Those who want an entire section will have the privilege of paying for the upper berth extra.

Sergeant Schuster reports business good at the recruiting station in the Keith hotel. He has just returned from Dallas, Black Rock and Falls City and reports several good prospects. George H. Henlee, age 18, is the latest to join the colors, going to Portland today. Sergeant Schuster will leave in a few days to open a recruiting office at Aberdeen, and Sergeant Brock of Portland will be in charge here. Enlistments are for seven years, with the privilege of an honorable discharge at the end of three.

In order that the Cherrian dinner and dance at the fair grounds may be an unqualified success, the following special committee was appointed at the Cherrian meeting last evening: Dr. H. H. Olinger, chairman; Chas. L. Dick, Hal B. Patton, George Graves, Theodore Roth, William H. Lerchen, James Young, Curtis Cross and Frank Spears. A jitney dance will follow the evening feast, and as this is an affair in which all are interested, an invitation is extended to everybody to come out Thursday evening, have a good time and assist the Cherrians in raising the expenses of taking the band to Marshfield.

Mrs. W. Carlton Smith reports the loss by theft of a diamond pin surrounded by pearls and a platinum chain with diamond and pearl lavallier. Mrs. Smith first discovered that they were missing Thursday afternoon about 1 o'clock. It is feared that the jewelry has been stolen by a gang of young boys who have been committing numerous thefts in the neighborhood. This information is given in the belief that should the boys who committed the theft attempt to dispose of any part of the jewelry, the police will be notified. It is understood that in other districts added their shrill shrieking to the din. After this outburst the paraders took up the work of marching in earnest.

Will Have Street Dance Next Tuesday Evening

Here is a new one for Salem. While the Cherrian band is playing its sweetest music at the public concert next Tuesday evening, those who prefer to dance will be given the privilege. It is just like this. The Salem Patriotic league is desirous of raising funds for the members of Company M and to also assist in the relief work and in order to do this, a street dance will be given on Court and Winter streets. By permission of the mayor, part of the street will be roped off for the dancers, who will be allowed to enjoy themselves at the rate of one jitney per dance. It has been figured that the band can furnish enough music for those in the park and at the same time,
