Two Are Killed and Four Under Arrest

Seattle, Wash., July 25.—The police this afternoon discovered a distillery under the Billingsly store-house, on Westlake avenue, where one police officer and a Japanese watchman were killed in a gun fight last night.
During the day a mysterious fire broke out within the warehouse, although it was guarded by police, and locked. The discovery of the distillery followed.
Ora Billingsly, aged 25, was arrested shortly after noon in connection with last night's shooting. Four Billingslys—the father and three sons, are now held in the city jail in solitary confinement, and a score of detectives are working on the case.
Logan Billingsly, proprietor of several drug stores here and central figure in a number of clashes with the police who accuse him of being a wholesale bootlegger, his brother Fred, and his father R. W. Billingsly, were arrested at noon today following the fatal shooting here last night of Police Sergeant John Weedin, and I. Suehiro, Japanese night watchman at Billingsly's warehouse. The police are also looking for two more of the Billingsly boys.
Weedin died instantly, and Suehiro died shortly after reaching the city hospital.
Gen. Funston, it seems to us, ought to remind Gen. Obregon that a reloaded man never withdraws from anywhere.—St. Joseph Gazette.

THE SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS GALLOWAY

This In Habeas Corpus Proceedings Against Warden Minto of the Prison
The supreme court this morning handed down an opinion in the matter of the application of A. M. Long for a writ of habeas corpus vs. John Minto, warden of the state penitentiary, appealed from the Marion county court, Hon. Wm. Galloway, judge.
Long, who was adjudged guilty in a Multnomah county court of larceny from a dwelling, has been confined in the penitentiary since December, 1914. His petition for a writ of habeas corpus, made through his attorney, Tom Garland, of Portland, alleges that he is unlawfully imprisoned on the grounds that a demand made by the attorney for an interview with the prisoner was refused by the prison officials.
The court avers that if a convict when in prison has the right claimed by the petitioner it cannot be enforced by a writ of habeas corpus but must be asserted in some other proceeding.
The judgment of the lower court is affirmed. Opinion by Judge Harris.
Other opinions handed down this morning were:
A. E. Nolan, appellant, vs. Vincent Cook, et al, appealed from Multnomah county, suit to establish division line between realty, opinion by Judge Burnett, Circuit Judge Gautenbein's judgment affirmed.
George K. Fargo, et al, vs. W. T. Wade, appellant, appealed from Multnomah county, action to recover on a contract, opinion by Justice Burnett, Circuit Judge Duffy affirmed.
Carlton Lumber company vs. The Lumber Insurance company of New York, appellant, appealed from Multnomah county, suit to reform insurance policies, opinion by Justice McBride, Circuit Judge Gaten's judgment for plaintiff affirmed.
John Theiler, appellant, vs. Tillamook county, appealed from Tillamook county, action for damages, opinion by Justice Benson, Circuit Judge Bagley's judgment for defendant affirmed.
Petition for rehearing was denied A. K. Higgs vs. George McDuffee, appellant, appealed from Morrow county, opinion by Justice Burnett. Orally petition was denied in Northwestern Transfer company vs. the Investment company.
David Lewis, who was chosen at the state primaries in Maryland to succeed Blair Lee as United States senator, worked in the coal mines as a laborer until the age of 22. He never attended school, but learned to read in Sunday school, and while mining studied law.

Has Poor Opinion of Eastern Weather

A. J. Anderson, delegate of the local lodge of Elks to the national convention at Baltimore, returned last night with a sad story of enduring hot weather almost every day he spent in the east. His side visits included New York City and Washington and an inspection of the Elk lodges in half a dozen other cities where people live by the millions. His most exciting time was when the excursion party of which he was a member, stopped within a few yards of the submarine Deutschland. Arriving in Baltimore at about the same time that the mercury in the thermometer climbed up to the 100 notch. Mr. Anderson says the delegates were too busy trying to keep cool to listen to many long talks or to transact very much serious business. However, there was no radical legislation enacted by the convention and now that he is in the greatest summer resort climate of the whole U. S. Mr. Anderson says he is glad he is here and not there.
Mr. Rounder—(at police station)—Can I see the burglar who was arrested for breaking into my house?
Chief (hesitatingly)—Well, I don't know. What do you want to see him about?
Rounder—Oh, there's nothing secret about it. I just wanted to find out how he managed to get into the house without waking my wife.
News note—Mary Moore stepped on a live wire today and was electrocuted. She was very highly connected.—Dayton O., Journal.

In the attempt by French troops around Estrees and Soyecourt the enemy suffered heavy losses, according to the statement. Except at the one point where they gained ground temporarily, all their other attacks were dispersed.
Admission that the Russians had succeeded in penetrating the teuton first line south of Berestecko was made in the war office report.
Repeated attempts to recapture positions around Froide Terre were repulsed, the statement said.
